he Balkan

TWIXT LOVE AND PRIDE

suswered the doctor.

This reply. Denzil knew, was equivalent to a promise. And accordingly old Blount looked mischievous. the following day saw him installed;

Mabel, with an assurance that she a sensible mother." would let her go back again in less! "I don't know about that," returned than five minutes.

in making their exit, the other, situ- enough. We do not want to be left ated at the top of the room, opened, without any solace in our old age. ing Fazil so unexpectedly alone, she suppose?" heritated slightly for a moment, and "Yes," said he, "they have come to then came forward, looking rather shy a proper understanding at last, I and conscious, he thought.

She was remembering her last inwas feeling terribly embarrassed in "but the question of late has been consequence, while he was dwelling when to name the wedding day. Fran-ces was very refractory in the begin-It very differently—not as 2 reality, ning, but at last she has given in, and but merely in the light of a happy

"I'am very glad to see you," she said, rather awkwardly, standing beside his lounge, and looking down upon him.

"You might have seen me long ago, If you had cared to do so," he rejoined repreachfully. "You are the only one of all the household who

His face was supremely innocent, and she drew a deep breath of relief which smootner of all difficulties," put in coming quite plentiful, instead ) of yet was mingled with a little pain that Mrs. Younge, softly, raising her eyes he should so entirely have let her visit from her knitting. slip his memory.

You had so many to see after you "and of course all day I heard reports | Carline?" of your well being."

Still, you might have come, if only for a few minutes," he persisted. "Not that I expected you would. There was no reason why you, of all people, should trouble yourself about

"If I had thought you wished for

"Mildred!" he exclaimed angrily; and then she ceased speaking altogether knowing she had vexed him by the open hypocrisy of her last remark. "If she had thought!"—when she knew, in her inmost heart, how he had been waiting, hoping, longing, for "and I think it is a pity the young some sign of her presence.

"So you have broken off your ensagement with Lyndon?" he said, am an old man now, with more monpresently, regarding her attentively. ey than I know how to spend; so I rather, he broke it off with me."

"He!" repeated Denzil, with amazetinue? You have been unhappy and miserable ever since?"

"I have not been unhappy exactly, not have been the one to end it." What was the reason?" he asked, unthinkingly; then-"I beg your pardon. Of course I should not have ask-There were many reasons," return- have it as let it be idle."

ed she calmly. "Perhaps"-with a little bitter laugh-"you were right after all. Do you remember telling . me that you thought no good man would in her eyes. ever care to marry me? Well, your words are coming true, I think,"

"Will you never forget that I said that "Denzil's voice was full of pain as he spoke. "You know I did not mean it. How could I, when I think div out of the window. you far above all women? You know

'Oh, hush!" implored Mildred, tremulously, suddenly growing very pale. Then, hearing the sound of approaching footsteps, she asked him, hurried-young people in these days. Now how some figures came toward us and tried ly: "Are you getting stronger new she could object to that nice Lord really better? I should like to hear Lyndon is beyond my comprehension holding you tightly all the time; and that from yourself."

"Would you" he said, looking pleas- ed to her." ed and radiant, and possessing himself fell at her side. "Do you really care impulsively, and rather crossly. to know? Have you my interest at all in me? Say you will come and see mother, with mild surprise. "Well, my recovery more than all the docme, then, here to-morrow at this hour. see how differently people judge." Think how lonely it is to lie still all day." He pressed her hand entreating Blount. "And now tell us, Denzil, Bleunt came in.

"Aa, Mildred, good child," cried rather against his will.

Mrs. Younge, innocently, "you have been taking care of him, while I was is down," he said, reproachfully. fearing that he was alone all this

DRS. SOPER & WHITE

SPECIALISTS Piles, Eczema, Asthma. Catarrh. Pimples, Oyspepsia, Epilepsy, Rheumatism, Skin, Kid-riey, Blood, Nerve and Bladder Diseases. Call or send history for free advice. Medicin Call or send instory in the variety of the call of the form, Fours-10 a.m. to 1 p.m. and 2 to 6 p.m. Sundays-10 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Consultation Free

25 Toronto St., Toronto, Ont. Please Mention This Paper.

"Well, well, we will see about it," caped from the room, while Lady Caroline glanced covertly at Denzil, who appeared totally unconscious of any under-current in the conversation, and

"Well," said he, when he had shakstate in the library, with books and en hands with Denzil, and wished him in. and joy, in his kind hearty way, at having all the family at his beck and call recovered his freedom, "I have just It so fen out that about three o clock been with Sir George, Lady Caroline, he was alone, Mrs. Younge having and he tells me you are determined to been called off for some reason by marry off all your family at once, like Lady Caroline, laughing. "One at a Almost as they closed the one door time, if you please, will suit us well and Mildred Trevanion came in. See- But you mean Charlie and Frances, I hear." "I think they came to that before terview with him in his own room, and Christmas," observed Lady Caroline; ing of his strength? it is actually arranged to take place on the thirteenth of next month; always provided the day is fine as she says nothing on earth would induce her to be married in rain."

Old Dick laughed. "She has been such a spoiled pet all her life," he commented, "that I think she will give Charlie something to do to manage her."

"I agree with you," said Lady Caronever came near me during my iil- line, "but she is such a dear girl with it all that one cannot help loving her, Mildred glanced at him suspiciously, and forgiving her the very trifling Had he really forgotten all about it? faults she possesses."

"And then true love is such a

"It is time for us to be thinking of wedding presents," said Denzil. "I -I was scarcely wanted, she said; wonder what she would like, Lady

Well, I hardly know," answered her ladysnip; "but I can easily find I gathered for you this morning? See out by putting a few adroit questions. I suppose jewelry is about the best thing a young man can offer."

"And how about Mabel's affair?" asks Blount. "Oh, the child," cried Lady Caroline-"surely she can afford to wait; and, besides, she must, as Sir George has decided nothing must be said about it until Roy is in a better position. "I have just been talking to Sir George about that," said old Blount; people should be sighing for each other when they might be together. I ther delay." "Then, jealously—"And you oline, greatly touched "this is too perhaps leave me if I did." perhaps leave me if I did." oline, greatly touched "this is too perhaps leave me if I did." of course you may," answ Why should you deprive yourself of anything at your years?" "My dear creature." returned old or miserable; but I certainly would Blount. "I am not thinking of doing anything of the kind. I am far too seifish to deprive myself of any luxuries to which I have been accustomed. But I literally cannot get rid of the money; so they may just as well

"There never was anybody like you. Dick," said Lady Caroline, with tears

"Except Sir George," returned old Blount, mischievously, at which they all laughed.

"And still we have Mildred to dispose of," he said, presently, with a side-glance at Denzil, who gazed stolwhat I think of you—now I have loved daughter?" expostulated Lady Caro-line; and Mrs. Younge, who had grown very intimate with them all to cry, and stooped over me, whispering something—I forget what—and I "Dear, dear-will you leave me no during her son's illness, looked up plaintively to say: quite. He seemed in every way suit-of one of the small slender hands that most unsuited to her," put in Denz J, struggling for clearness in his brain- origin.

"Differently indeed," coincided old what sort of a person do you think ly, and kissed it.
"If nothing prevents me," promised would make her happy?"
Miss Trevanion, with faint hesitation:
There was a siy laugh in the old Younge, Lady Caroline, and old and Dazil, looking up caught it; so Bleum came in. and then the door opened, and Mrs. man's eyes as he asked the question.

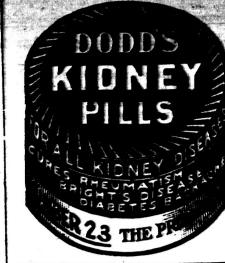

time, Denzil, you are a spoiled boy down, returned Blount, with an enfrom all the attention you receive. I couraging nod that somehow made hope the time did not seem too long, Denzil's heart beat high, though he Mildred dear, I meant to be back did not dare to take the words in their under meaning. "And now ? directly."

Miss Trevanion blushed, and, makmust be off. No, thank you, my dear ing some pretty, graceful answer, es- -I cannot stay to dinner; I have so many things to attend to before seven. But tell Sir George I will look him un again in the morning. And give my love to the girls; and tell Mildred that I know, and she knows, there is but one man in the world can ever > make her happy." He looked kindly at Denzil as he spoke, but the latter would not ac- | per box at all dealers. cept the insinuation conveyed in his words. Mrs. Younge, however, noticed ! both the glance and the significant tone, and a light broke in upon her went over and knelt down by her son. "Denzil," she said, lovingly, "I know it all now. But am I never to speak of it?" "Do not let us ever mention it again-there's a darling mother."

woman-like, yet feeling in her heart the while that the choice her son had made was indeed a perfect one.

After this Denzil made rapid strides toward recovery, growing stronger, gayer and more like the Denzil they nad known in the first days of their acquaintance than he had been for some time before his illness. He could now walk from room to room, and take long drives, though Stubber still insisted on some hours in the day being spent on the sofa. Miss Trevanion Denzil saw daily, though seldom alone—and who 'shall say how much this conduced toward the renew-

It wanted but a fortnight to Charlie's wedding-day, and Denzil, who was feeling a little tired, and was anxious to attain perfect health before the event came off-having promised to attend in the character of "best man"-was lying on the lounge in the library when' Mildred came in.

"I did not know you were in from your drive," she said. There was less constraint between them now than there had ever been. "Did you enjoy Very much indeed."

'So you ought," she said. "Could there be a more beautiful day?" She threw up the low window as she spoke and leaned out. "The air reminds me of summer, and the flowers are bebeing sought longingly one by one." "Yes," returned Denzil, vaguely, thinking all the time what an exquisite picture she made, framed in by the windows and its wreaths of hanging ivy. "By the bye, did you like the bunch there they are over there." "Were they for me?" asked Denzil. looking pleased. "I did not flatter myself that they were."

"Well, yes, I think they were chiefly meant for you," returned Mildred, carelessly. "Invalids are supposed to get every choice thing going-are they not?-though indeed you can scarcely come under that head now."

She drew down the window again, and came back toward the centre of the room.

"Mildred," said Denzil, suddenly-he had risen on her first entering, and stood leaning against the chimneyuron my mind. May I tell it to you? "My dear Richard," cried Lady Car- The vivid impression it made might stores a tired, worn-out system very "Of course you may," answered Mildred, growing a shade paler. -I cannot speak to you so far away." She approached the neart-rug, and sicod there. "I will warm my hands while you tell me," she said, determined that, should it prove to be what she half dreaded to hear, he would not see her face during the recital. that, as I lay in bed one evening, the or ailing woman that Ferrozone won't door opened, and you came into my room, and walking softly over to my bedside, stood there very sorrowfully locking down upon me. We were alone. I think"-passing his hand in a ruzzled manner over his forebead, as though endeavoring vainly to recollect something-"at least I can rememtook your hands like this"-suiting "There is really no understanding the action to the word-"and then to separate us, but I waved them back, -here he paused, his eyes fixed earn-"And he seemed to me in every way there he saw reacting all that was mulation of estates. It had a curious the char party to the treaty is under unsuited to her" not be compared to the control of the c "and I asked you to do something for i "Did he indeed, my dear?" said his me then-something that would aid

tor's stuff-and you---(To be continued.)

Advice to Dyspeptics Well Worth Following

In the case of dyspensia, the appetite is variable. Sometimes it is ravens down, he said, reproachfully.
"I don't think you will be long this condition there is but one sure this condition there is but one sure remedy-Dr. Hamilton's Pills-which cure quickly and thoroughly.

Sufferers find marked benefit in a day, and as time goes on improvement conditions. No other medicine will strengthen the stomach and digestive organs like Dr. Hamilton's assistance necessary to convert everyto build up the run-down system. | a subject of much discussion by law-Why not cure your dyspensia now? Get Dr. Hamilton's Pills to-day, 25c.

To Lengthen Life of Necktie. A good many people who are users | Major, or the Great Bear. The stars When Lady Caroline had followed of four-in-name ties are more or less forming the tail of the bear also form Dick Blount out of the room, she bothered by ties becoming useless af- the handle of the dipper. The first star ter it has been worn a few times. Take the wide end of the tie with | cond Mizar, the third Alioth. The othseam and lay it flat upon a table. er four, which go to form the bowl of Then thrust in the finger and seize the dipper, are Megres, Phad, Merak And he answered as he kissed her: the lining. Take the silk cover in and Dudhe. The two last named are the other hand and pull it over the called "the pointers" because they lining about half its length. A hot point or guide the eye to the pole star,

Have One Where You Can Grow

LEGENDS OR LIES?

to thin out the parsley to get best re-No Black Hole of Calcutta, and No William Tell. Lettuce, radishes and young onions > Wars are fruitful breeders of legends. and always have been. Nor is the present war any exception to the rule. .

to soak the seed, for a day before sow-A red pepper plant is a valuable addition. It should be grown in a pot by itself as it must be kept very moist.

A window box such as is ordinariy used for fowers is most adaptabe and convenient for such a garden.

The Russian Soldiers who came to deal the length and room archanged.

In the Russian Soldiers who came to deal the length in our archanged.

In the Russian Soldiers who came to deal the length in one archanged.

In the Russian Soldiers who came to deal the length in one archanged.

In the Russian Soldiers who came to deal the length in one archanged.

In the Russian Soldiers who came to deal the length in one archanged.

In the Russian Soldiers who came to deal the length in the len

The preparation of the soil of such box is much the same as for an outdoor flower bed: a rich, loose, sandy soil, placed upon a two-inch bed of broken crockery, or oyster shells which act as a drainage. To obtain best results from this window box, care must be taken that it is not kept too wet or the earth will become sour, causing the seed to rot. In odd moments while the cooking s in progress you must pull out blades of grass and weeds, for weeds will grow even in a kitchen window box. and the care of such a garden is little, indeed, compared to the satisfaction and convenience of being able to step

Your Cooking Herbs.

Nothing flourishes better in the

When sprouted care must be taken adapt themselves well to such a gar-

In spite of advice to the contrary.

To promote the growth, it is well celery will not thrive well in a kitchen window hox than the ornamental and is a kitchen window pox.

appetizing parsley.

suits.

to the window box for an onloo or sprig of parsley to add to the appetizing qualities of a dish.

WOMEN AS BRAVE

Their Struggle Shows a Remarkable

AS THE MEN

Talk of the bravery of men, but where can you find a finer spirit than among the half-sick women who are fighting and struggling to do their duty against the terrible odds of ill-health, and who will not give up? One woman in every three is struggling against weakness. Most of them are not exactly sick but, oh, how miserable!

The burden and misery of it all has its foundation in the blood which is thin and watery. The red cells are too The very stream of life is reduced in vitality. Weakness and inevitable ill-health are the certain result.

Every ailing or weak woman can quickly regain her health in this very simple way: By filling the system with the nutrition that comes from rich, red blood, a quick change for the better will result. To accomplish this take two chocolate-coated Ferrozone quickly. you get Ferrozone working through cheeks, brightens the eye, quickens feeling of youth. One of the finest things Ferrozone sound sleep, strong nerves and lots of nourishing blood you're bound to re-"Well, then," he bogan, "I thought gain robust health. Any sickly girl make well must be incurable. There is a secret power in Ferrozone and it is worth a tria! at all events. Fifty cents per box. six for $2.50. At all dealers in medicine, or by mail from the Catarrhozone Company, Kingston,

CURIOUS ORIGIN OF A LAW. It Was Passed in England On Account of Peter 'Enellusson's Will. the everlasting stone of the dry land

will and to prevent the excessive accu- man of remote antiquity. Khetsar Thellusson, an English merchant of ars. French birth, died in London, leaving mous.

valid. In order, however, to prevent people, such a disposition of property in the They are montioned in the bible future, Parliament passed what was and in the Egyptian and Assyrian recalled the Themassand or accumula-tions act, regulating and limiting be-own story had never been read by quests in such a way as to make great modern man. To-day, thanks to the viving grandson died, in 1956, a quest has been learned about this great tion arose as to whether the eldest group of tribes, and orderly evidence male descendant or the male descend- about them is now available for the ant of the eldest son should inherit the first time in 2.600 years. Pills. They supply the materials and property, and this question was decided on appeal by the house of lords in June, 1:59. The Thellusson will and muscle, fibre, and energy, with which the legislation growing out of it were

The Big Dipper.

In astronomy the Big Dipper, so called, is in the constellation of Ursa in the handle is Benetnasch, the se-

Everybody, to cite but two instances, Will be ame to lecall the story of the mons angers, and that other the about the russian sources who came rough boy and nearly every grown-up merson is familiar with the details of that ghastis familiar with the details of that glassify story. It relates how the reason Suraja Dowlah shut up 146 Britons, captured by him in calcutta fort, in a small, unventilated gungeon, and how, after a night of agony from heat, thirst and lack of air, only twenty-three were tound alive next morning.

and lack of air, only twenty-three were tound alive next morning.

For more than one hundred and fifty years the story has been implicitly believed. Yet now along comes air. Little, and proves, in his "Bengal, Past and Present," not omy that it is not true, but that it could not possibly be true. Nine persons only were, it appears from countemporary records, confined in the "black hole," which was really the common prison, and none of these suffered any very inconvenience. The remainder of the garrison, numbering some 123, were either killed or wounded in the righting, and the latter were treated by their conquerors with every coned by their conquerors with every con-inderation. Similarly, Wellington never said, "Up, Guards, and at 'em!" at Waterioo; nor did Blucher exclaim, on first seeing London, "What a place to sack!" While the phrase, "Providence favors the big battalions," which is usually attributed to Napoleon, is found in the writings of Cicero.

There never was a person named William Tell, and consequently he never shot an apple from his son's head at the bidding of the Austrian tyrant, Gessler.

The story of Queen Eleanor sucking the poison from her husband's wound during one of the Crusades is another poleon's Old Guard is said to have replied to the challenge of surrender pompously. "The Old Guard dies, but it does not who gave me some powders, but they ly. "The Old Guard dies, but it does not surrender!" In the French army, however, it is a tradition that his answer consisted of but one word, not at all fitted for ears polite.

Similarly, the Girondins had no last supper to-gether. Columbus could not have foretold an eclipse of the moon in order to frighten the natives of Ja-macia into submission, as has been as-serted, for the simple reason that the serted, for the simple reason that the moon was not in eclipse during the time, the famous explorer was on that island. Alfred the Great never went into hiding in a goat-herd's cottage while the Danes were ravaging his kingdom; on the contrary, he "got on with the war."

The Bulldog.

dogs, very seldem barks. In fact, owing to the construction of his throat and I gladly continued taking them his attempts at barking are more like until every symptom of the trouble resently, regarding ner attentively. The she answered, quietly; "or, there has busekeeping without further, he broke it off with me."

Tablets after each meal. 100 if feel the same and a burlesque of the real thing. 'He was gone, and I was again enjoying better immediately, for the simple real thing. 'He was gone, and I was again enjoying better immediately, for the simple real thing. 'He was gone, and I was again enjoying better immediately, for the simple real thing. 'He was gone, and I was again enjoying better immediately, for the simple real thing.'

There are the triangle of the real thing. 'He was gone, and I was again enjoying better immediately, for the simple real thing.'

There are the triangle of the real thing. 'He was gone, and I was again enjoying better immediately, for the simple real thing.'

There are the triangle of the real thing. 'He was gone, and I was again enjoying better immediately, for the simple real thing.'

There are the triangle of the real thing. 'He was gone, and I was again enjoying better immediately, for the simple real thing.'

There are the triangle of the real thing. 'He was gone, and I was again enjoying better immediately, for the simple real thing.'

There are the triangle of the real thing.'

The triangle of the real thing is his heavy breathing. His courage what they did for me." is astonishing, and the largeness of You'll feel like new all over once his opponent never acts as a deter- from any dealer in medicine or by rent when hostilities are imminent. "Come over here then and sit down your blood It puts color into faded Still, as he is not a quarrelsome dog, he very rarely indulges in street the step, brings back that wonderful brawls, and, as he is exceedingly good natured, it takes a lot to rouse him. The modern bulldog is undoubtedly does is to make you eat lots and di- a different looking animal from his gest it as well. With keen appetite, bullfighting ancestors. The most conspicuous "improvements" introduced by the present day "fancy" are largeness of head, width of chest, heaviness of bone and more typical tail.

MOST ANCIENT TREATY.

Carved in Stone on the Walls of Two Egyptian Temples.

On the walls of two of Egypt's greatest temples, that of Karnak and the Ramesseum at Thebes carved in of the Nile, says the Christian Her-The Thellusson law, once enacted by ald, is the oldest international treaty the British Government, was a law to known to man. Rameses the Great, regulate the disposition of property by- one of the signers, is the best known known except to a few, and his nat-On the 27th of July, 1797, one Peter ion is little known even to the schol-

The Hittites were a mighty race. a certain sum to his widow and chil- whose empire, equal in rank with the dren, grandchildren and great-grand- mighty empire of Egypt and Babylochildren living at the time of his death nia, once extended over 400,000 square and the survivors of them. The ac- miles of territory in Asia Minor and cumulation would have been enor. Syria. A few y are ago practically nothing was known at the life and nous.

The will was cont sted, but was held civilization of a turns mysterious excavations that were carried on at accumulations impossible.

When Peter Theilusson's last surthe capital city of Carchemish, much

Silver Sword of Mawaii.

One of the most curious plants in the world and one of the greatest interest to all botanists is the silver sword. This exceedingly rare plant. with its magnificent silver spines and handsome crest, may still be found in profusion in the upper part of Kaupo rap, the southern outlet of the vast extinct crater of Haleakala, on the island of Maui. It flowers from July to October and occurs hardly anywhere else in the world. Even stranger is the variety known as the green sword, which occurs only in Haleakala crater and is unknown to exist elsewhere.-Honolulu Star Bulletin.

'Is Blinggins a patriot?" "Yes. But he's the kind that would be more use-southern peninsulas of Europe, which in its turn takes its name from the mountain range of the Balkan. This great mountain chain, running down into the peninsula, is a continuatio of the southern Carpathians or Transylvania Alps. The strict limits of the Balkan peninsula piace its base on a line from the delta of the Danube to the head of the Adriatic Sea, but part of the territory thus defined lies outside what is conventionally designated as the Balkan peninsula.

ACAUSE OF INDIGESTION

People Who Complain of This Trouble Usually Are Thin Blooded.

Thin-blooded people usually have stoniach trouble. They seldom recoghize the fact that thin blood is the cause of the trouple, but it is. in tact thin, impure blood is the most common cause of stomach trouble; it affects the digestion very quickly. The giands that turnish the digestive fluid are diminished in their activity; the stomach muscles are weakened, and there is a loss of nerve force. In this state of health nothing will more quickly restore the appetite, the digestion and normal nutration than good, rich, red blood. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills act directly on the blood, making it rich and red, and this enriched blood strengthens' weak nerves, stimulates tired muscles and awakens the normal activity of the glands that supply the digestive fluids. The first sign of improving health is an improved appetite, and soon the effect of these bloodmaking pills is evident throughout the system. You find that what you eat does not distress you, and that you are streng and vigorous instead of irritable and listless. This is proved by the case of Mrs. J. Harris, Gerrard street, Toronto, who says: "About three years ago I was seized with a sovere attack of indigestion and vomthe poison from her husband's wound during one of the (Crusades is another war myth. She did not accompany her husband, on the expedition in question; and, besides, the Saracens did not use pusoned arrows.

At Waterloo the commander of Na-allor's Old throw is said to have realled a lot of home remedies, but they did a lot of home remedies, but they did seemed actually to make me worso instead of better. This went on for rearly two months, and by that time my stomach was in such a weak state that I could not keep down a drink of water, and I was wasted to a skeleton. and felt that life was not worth where the clerk fixed up something to take, and my intended got me a lox The bulldog, unlike the majority of of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. By the end of the first week I could feel some improvement from the use of the Pills,

> You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills $2.50 from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

> > VICTORIA'S LETTERS.

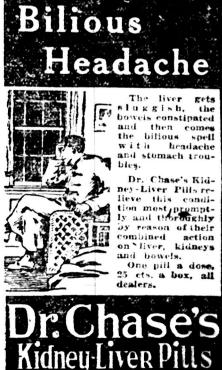

Royal Secrets That Are Stored Away in Buckingham Palace.

"We may wonder if the world will ever be allowed to see the private correspondence amassed by the late Queen Victoria," says a writer. It is stored away in a strong room built into the walls of Buckingham Palace, and the Queen shared her confidence with no one. So long as she was physically able to do so she opened and closed the safe herself and arranged its contents. When she was too feeble to do this she employed an old and trusted secretary, but even he had to work under the royal eye. He was never allowed to keep the keys nor to read the letters that he handled. Queen Victoria was always a volumincus letter writer, and she was in constant communication with most of the royalties in Europe. Every domestic secret and privacy of royalty during half a century is said to be represented by the contents of this wenderful safe, and it is easy to believe that the modern historian would find his hands full if he were perratted to browse entirex these letters.

But pretary he will be to wait a few hundred years, and then his popular audience will be a longuid one. It is one of the ironies of life that we can never have a thing when we

But all that night Mrs. Youngs iron is then run over the lining to which is distant 29 degrees. The top DRS. SOPER & WHITE ful in a school of elecution than in a training camp."—Washington Star. gazed at the girl and wondered, pon- straighten it out.—Popular Science bowl stars are 10 degrees and the botdering many things, and blaming, Monthly.