Death of Wm. Brennan

In the tragic death of William Henry Brennan, late of this vicinity, recorded in last week's issue, the township of Walpole has lost one of its most promising young farmers.

He was born in this township near Hagersville forty-three years ago where he lived until a few years previous to his demise when he bought the farm just seuth of the village, previously worked by Mr. T. Hyde. About fifteen years ago he was united in malriage to Miss Jessie Coombs, of Waterford, who survives him along with four soms and one daughter.

The funeral which took place on Saturday morning last to St. Anne's Church Walpole, was one of the largest funcrals which was held in this vicinity for some time. Mass was said by the Rev. Father Murphy, of Cayuga. The bereaved widow and family have the sincere sympathy of the whole cemmunity in their deep bereavement.
Mr. Brennan, besides his wife and children, is survived by three sisters and four brothers, namely: Mrs. Nelles, Boston; Mrs. Anderson. Vancouver; Mrs Wilcox, Hartford; John and Joseph, of Walpole; Geo. of Detroit; and Edward. The pall bearers were Messrs. John Waters, John Kindree, Thos. Guiler,

John Jaques, John O'Donnell and Geo. L. Eiller. Flowers were received from the fol lowing: Mr. and Mrs. G. Morrow, spray C.O.F. Jarvis, wreath; Coombs Bros. Brantford; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Munro Buffalo, spray; Geo. Brennan, Detroit, cross; Mrs. Palmer and Mrs. Neal, spray

Mrs. Guiler, spray. An inquest was held by Coroner Quance on Friday afternoon last at Hagersville, and after hearing the evidence of the witnesses to the accident and that of the engineer of the train, brought in a verdict that the train wag running far faster than the law allows and requested with the Railway Commissioners. Crown Attorney Arrell appeared at the inquest for the Crown and J. H. Fisher, Juliet Gulver, widow of the late George Walker, was born in Rainham Township, puced tariff May 1, 1845, and died in Walpole Town ship, June 17, 1916.

George Walker, to whom she was married over fifty-two years ago, predeceased twenty-nine grand children are living. Rive grandsons Elvin, Leo and Claude Fond, Cecil Werner, Ivan Harris and one nephew, Arhur Wood, acted as pall-bearers. Leo l'ond was in the King's unitorm. Our late sister had four brothers and five sisters. A brother and a sister died less than six months ago. Mrs Walker wrs the third to go within a brief period to her eternal reward, Mrs. Walker was for over forty years member of the Methodist church. The Cheaspide Church were she has attended for the past twenty-nine years, will miss her much. Her memory was fragrant. One of the neighbors said that ever since time. she looked through the house after her death and saw how neat and tidy it was of Music was well filled on Thursday everything being in its place, the words of God's book had been in her mind.
