A Machine Gun Section

For The 114th Battalion

Lieut. B. G. Fleming, of Cayuga, and Sergt. W. N. Reunick, of Dunnville, have returned from their course in machine gun training at the Exhibition Camp, Toronto, and a Machine Gun Section is to be organized in the battalion as soon as possible.

Machine Gunning is undoubtedly the most interesting of all arms of the service, and besides receiving instruction in the Machine Guns themselves the Gunners are trained in Signalling, Bombing, Scouting, Range-finding and many other subjects which compel the attention of their students on account of their interesting nature.

The men of this Section are permitted to wear a special distinguishing Badge, and are not required to do Guard, Picquet or Fatigue duties either whilst in training or at the front; and when actually on service are only required to be in the Trenches at such times as it is necessary for them to be for the purpose of operating the guns. These privileges give them more leisure than falls to the lot of the ordinary "Tommy" and are much appreciated by those who enjoy them.

Thirty men are required immediately, to qualify as Gunners, etc., for this detachment and on account of the specialized nature of this work only men of good education and physique and of a high standard of morals can be accepted as recruits.

This gives many who have been awaiting the opportunity to get into a "Corps d'elite" the chance they have long looked for.

Applications should be made by letter, telephone or personal or personal interview to

LIEUT. E. G. FLEMING, Cayuga, Ontario.
