Keen Scented Deer.

Under the most favorable atmospheric conditions deer can scent a man at the distance of a mile and a half. If he is smoking the range may be increased to two miles. They have been known to refuse to cross a man's track more than four hours after he had passed, but rain may destroy the scent in ten minutes. St. James' Gazette.

An Indian Marriage.

It seems almost incredible to an English girl that her little Indian sister never sees her husband until after the marriage ceremony. The parents choose the wife for the son of the house without consulting either party. Sometimes the bride is as young as fourteen. The child is gorgeously dressed, and placed on a dais behind a sheet; the women of the family being in attendance.

BABY'S WELFARE

The welfare of the baby is the fond mother's greatest aim. No mother wants to see her little one suffering from colds, constipation, colic or any other of the many ills that so often afflict little ones. Thousands of mothers have learned that by giving an occasional dose of Baby's Own Tablets to the children they can keep them well.

Pepps at a Feast.

Peppy's account of the lord mayor's banquet which he attended in 1683 illustrates the earliness of the proceedings at that time. He made his way to the Guildhall at noon, "went up and down to see the tables" and then had a drink, refusing wine in consequence of a vow, but persuading his conscience that he might indulge in hippocras, a compound of wine and spices. Soon after 1 o'clock came the lord mayor, "and so all to dinner."

BE CURED TO-DAY OF BACKACHE

Your persistent back-ache can have but one cause—Diseased Kidneys—and they must be strengthened before the back-ache can be cured.

Perpetual Motion.

Several people have had a shot at making something that would go on forever, like Tennyson's brook. And these have not all been cranks. A mechanician, for instance, made a top, which was balanced on diamond tips and spun in a vacuum, which ran for twelve months.

More Cure Guaranteed

Never known to fail; acts without pain in 24 hours. Is soothing, healthy; takes the sting right out. No remedy so quick, safe and sure as Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor. Sold everywhere—25c per bottle.

Internal Portraiture.

An art patroness was gushing over a portrait in the presence of the artist. "I do not know how it is," she said, "but when you paint a portrait you seem to put more into it than anyone else can see."

SIR JAMES WATSON'S OPINION CONSIDERED MOST VALUABLE

He says that the commonest of all disorders, and one from which few escape is Catarrh. Sir James firmly believes in local treatment, which is best supplied by Catarrh-ozone. No case of Catarrh can exist where Catarrh-ozone is used; it is a miracle-worker, relieves almost instantly and cures after other remedies fail.

Snipers Hunted Each Other, but German Got Careless.

One of the more humorous stories concerns two snipers, German and British, who spent a whole night hunting for each other. It was at a point in the lines where the trenches suddenly veered 1,200 yards apart, with a little mountain of coal slack between. Here it was that the snipers piled their trade, fellows that from cover of the slack could shoot round a corner and hit a nail at five hundred yards. An Irish Guardsman told the story.
