Goodbye to Canada

CAMP BORDEN, Oct. 24.
This is the final message from the boys of Haldimand County, and Caledonia par-ticular, before leaving for the east for the east for further training; thence to the old land, the centre of all things British, to further prepare themselves for the great struggle which is the most tremen-dous in the world's history. We, who have stepped forth from the office, the shop, the store, the farm; who were citizens of a peace loving country, who never before August, 1914, would have thought it possible, are now trained sol-diers of His Majesty, King George V. learned in many of the arts of modern warfare, somewhat skilled in the hand-ling of those implements which have no other use than the slaughter of our fellow men, and the devastation of homes and lands of people whom we have never seen. Yet we have not sought this thing. We are on the defensive. We go forward across the mighty deep that we might prevent this hideous enemy of human lib-erty from ever setting foot upon the shores of the, to us, greatest country that God in his great Plan has set aside as an example of true liberty and freedom. We Don't you want a pretty new Bed-Room Set?

Dear Mary -
Did it ever occur to you that we women spend more than one-half of our lives in our bed rooms. We ought to have them pretty.
What a joy to turn down beautiful covers, to re- pose on a comfortable mattress, to sink your tired head into a downy pillow! What a delight to awaken in a prettily furnished room and to sit at a luxuriant dress- ing table and primp.
Cheerful bed rooms will make every member of the family retire happy and awaken with energy and delight.

As ever-HELEN.
P. S. Haven't you seen the new bedroom sets at
