These districts are the only parts of the province where school fairs are held by the Department of Agriculture in which this competition will not be a feature. Forgetfulness

A gentleman whose beautiful grounds were often visited by the public had an old gardener who was in the habit of showing parties round the beds. At such times he would in a hurried, gabbling voice explain the names to the visitors. When nearing the exit gate he would, however, suddenly pause and draw special attention to a pretty cluster of modest posies and then, in a significant tone of voice, exclaim: "These, ladies and gentlemen, are forget-me-not."—Chicago News.

No Cause For Worry. "Mind now," said the judge, "you are sworn to tell the truth, and if you do not the penitentiary will be your portion."

"The man took the oath and then whispered to his friend: 'John, I'm afraid it's all up with you. The judge says I've got to tell the truth.'"

"That's all right, Jim," said his friend, with confidence. "I ain't worried 'bout that, kase you can't do it."

Discouraging. "I dare say you do your best to make other people happy," said the altruist.

"Oh, yes," answered the man with a sloping brow. "But I don't believe my efforts are appreciated."

Justified Worry. "Juggers must be a devoted husband. He told me his wife met with an accident and that he was worried sick for fear she should attempt to be active with her injury too soon."

"What was her injury?"

"He says that honesty is the best policy."

"Coming from him, the opinion has weight. He has tried all sorts of policies."

It Might Be Worse. Poet—I fear I haven't written anything that will live. Friend—Look on the bright side of it. Be thankful that you are alive in spite of what you have written.—London Opinion.
