The Teacher

He shapes a soul and fashions a life. And moulds a character mild, into anything he would have it be, Who teaches a little child. He gives his best to the work he loves. And himself with his best must go. If he fails the world is quick to hear. If he wins, no man will know. He may not shirk for he knows his work. And the path that is his he trod. He may not plead, for there is no need. If his work will speak to his God. He is held to account by all the world. For the hope in the child's frail reach; And the hand of God is heavily laid On the shoulders of him who would teach. For he who teaches a little child. Much more than his books must know. For he takes the frail little life in his hands. And shapes it th way it must go. And crooked or straight however it be. If bright be the mind or dim. The glory will be to the child himself. But the blame will be to him. Though a thankless task seems the teacher's lot. Yet the blessedness few may know. To feel the touch of a child's white soul. To shape it and watch it grow. Marie Everett.

The local publishers of Norfolk County at a Press meeting last week unanimously decided to raise the circulation rates to $1.50, owing to the tremendous rise in the cost of publishing the weeklies. A meeting will be held in Caledonia on Friday next by the Haldimand fraternity for the same purpose. Are we weeping?

Called Minister
A mass meeting of the congregation of Knox Presbyterian Church, Jarvis, was held in the schoolrooms Tuesday evening for the consideration of the first draft of ministers, who have occupied the pulpit for the past six years.

Rev. W. Hare, B. A., of Arcona, received a large majority vote and will be given a call.

A Slight Accident
What might have been a serious accident occurred on Saturday morning last when Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Davidson, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Davidson, were motoring to Ridgetown. About two miles west of Defti, a car coming up behind, Mr. Davidson left the road, to allow it to pass. Going at a high rate of speed it swerved towards the other car and Mr. Davidson, to avoid a collision, turned farther towards the ditch, causing his car to overturn.

All present with slight injuries, except Mrs. Jas. Davidson, who sustained severe bruises and fractured ribs. The car was also considerably damaged.

Meetings Closed
The Revival Meetings, which have been held here during the past two weeks, under the direction of the nation fanned Revivalist, Rev. H. T. Crossley, closed Sunday evening with a crowded church. During his stay here, Rev. Crossley won many friends and through his efforts secured about fifty converts for the Higher Life. Sunday services, perhaps, showed his superior qualities as a winner of souls for Christ than any of his former meetings and his heart-embodied appeals were of the highest order.

Rev. Crossley left for his home in Toronto Monday morning, where, after a short rest he will open services in Lucan. On October 15th he will commence services at Hagersville.

A Close Call
What might have been a fatality occurred at Hagersville yesterday morning at 11:30 when a motor car driven by Robert Hamilton, of that place, struck and knocked some hundred feet, where the tangled mass of steel burst into flames. Mr. Hamilton is to be congratulated on his escape, and he claims to have sufficient evidence to warrant a new car.

Presentations

The last meeting of the Jarvis Branch of the Anglican W. A. was largely attended. After the usual business of the day, the members surprised Mrs. J. R. Newell, who is a life member and who is about to leave Jarvis to reside in Hamilton, by presenting her with a very handsome sateen Comfarter. Mrs. Newell thanked the friends for their kindness in remembering her at this time. On Thursday, of last week, Mrs. Newell was again greeted with another pleasant surprise, when Mrs. Jones tendered her a farewell tea at her home here. When all the guests had written to the drawing room, Mrs. Newell was given a shower of very useful articles. Among the guests from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Campbell, Hag ravill; Miss Kathleen Low and Miss Ausden, Toronto; Miss May Aiken and Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Aiken, Simcoe. Mrs. Newell expressed her thanks to the many kind friends and also her appreciation of the kind hospitality of the hostess, Mrs. Jones. After spending a very happy evening and a hearty leave taking with Mrs. Newell, who is very much beloved by her many friends and acquaintances, the party dispersed to their respective homes.

Pro-Elgicia

"The Relief Work for the Belgian Victims of the War" of whom the President is the most devoted General Consul at Ottawa, is editing for some weeks past, the paper "PRO BELGICA" printed in two languages. This paper discloses the painful condition of the Belgian people so worthy of admiration and shows what Canada is doing for its relief. It is very interesting to observe the manner in which the subscriptions received for the relief of Belgian and French populations of the invaded departments are employed. The subscribers of "PRO BELGICA" are not only acquainted with all that happens in Belgium, they also contribute to the revictualizing of this unfortunate country, for all receipts of the paper are paid into the receiving office of the "RELIEF WORK". The amount of the subscription is one dollar which can be sent to the Management of the paper, 119 St. Luke, Montreal. Give your subscription for "PRO BELGICA". It is a mere trifle, but it is for the relief of the destitute Belgian.

In Memoriam

SWING—In loving memory of our dear son, William Henry, who was killed on Shan Island, B. C. Sept. 28th, 1912.

How many times have we longed for him Through the days of the years gone by; How many tears have we shed for him. Our boys so young to die. We lost him, ah! so suddenly. Our hearts were wrung with pain. But blessed solace for our grief. From day we'll meet again.—Family.

FRUIT BULLETIN

Housewives will do well to put down a large quantity of Canadian Elberta peaches which are now at their best. You should see your grocer at once, and put down an extra supply of Niagara Peninsula Grown Fruits. Fruit is good food and is healthful. Ask your grocer for the Niagara Grown kind. Look for this label on basket.

The Newspaper Man

He seldom is handsome or natty. And has none of the charms of the dude. He courts us, then slights us, and grieves us. And is sometimes unbearably rude. Is often more abstract than chatty; As much as he possibly can. He hisses us, loves us, and leaves us. This perfidious Newspaper Man. Our mother's won't have him come calling. He's no earthly good as a catch; His morals, they say, are appalling. His finances usually match; He's rollicking, reckless, uncaring. Living but for the hour, the day; He's dangerous, dubious, daring—Not fit for a husband they say. But somehow we girls are forgiving—Perhaps he but needs us the more. Because he goes wrong in the evening. And knows the old world to its core, so we pass by the duke and the schmeer. Who lead in society's van. And cherish the thinker and dreamer Enshrined in the Newspaper Man.
