way to the feast. Heard that he had done this miracle. The Jews who had come from various places were told by the people who lived near Jerusalem that Jesus had recently raised Lazarus from the dead...

19. Pharisees—An influential sect of the Jews. At the time of their rise they prevailed nothing. These opposers of Jesus consulted together over the enthusiastic reception which Jesus was receiving...

20-22. Among those who went to Jerusalem to worship at the feast there were some of Grecian descent. They were probably proselytes to the Jewish faith, but had not fully conformed to Jewish customs...

23-26. In answer to the desire of the Greeks to see Jesus made it very clear that his mission was not to become a great earthly ruler, but he must become obedient unto death and the glorified...

The fact that efficiency may go hand in hand with all the attractiveness of old order. Messrs. Andrew McRae & Sons began to specialize in dairying in 1906. They have a herd of sixteen pure-bred Ayrshires on their farm of 120 acres...

the life that is eternal. The way is open to all who will follow Jesus. The followers of Jesus enter upon a life of service, but the servant is in close fellowship with the Master...

II. Explained in its spiritual import. The Greeks were representatives of the great Gentile world seeking after Jesus, ready, it would appear, to enter his kingdom...

III. Explained in its spiritual import. The Jews of Jerusalem and those in attendance at the Passover bore witness to the miracle, the raising of Lazarus, which led to the demonstration of the day following branches at Bethany...

For some time a five-year rotation was followed, but finally it was decided that this system was too slow for high-priced land. Now a four-year rotation is practised. First year, corn and peas; second year, grain; third year, clover; fourth year, timothy...

practical survey. Topic—Acknowledged Kingship. I. Indicated by the joyous multitude. II. Explained in its spiritual import. III. Explained in its spiritual import.

salvation of multitudes by means of his sacrifice and intercession. The including of Jews and Gentiles in 'one new humanity' made up the triumph of Christ's spiritual Kingship...
