Nanticoke

Thursday evening, August 2, was the scene of a large gathering when the many friends of Mrs. M. Davis assembled at the Rectory to do her honour ere her departure for Saskatchewan. A very pleasant evening was spent in games on the lawn, the main feature being an address and presentation given by the Rector, Rev. Mr. Brand, on behalf of those present.

The following was the address:
To Mrs. M. Davis, of Nanticoke, Ont.
Greeting.

We the members, of the Congregation of Christ Church, Nanticoke, of the Woman's Auxiliary, and of the Sunday School, in connection therewith, together with other resident friends, have invited you to this gathering to-night, in order that we may express to you our regret that you are soon to leave this district and the friends amongst whom you have spent so many years.

As a community we shall miss you, and by your departure the church loses a valuable helper.

In that new life of the free, open and seemingly boundless prairie of our Great West, on which you are soon to enter, we believe that under God's guidance and protection you may be spared to spend many happy years.

While for ourselves we regret your departure from our midst, we believe that for yourself and your children the change is a wise one, as in that land, born but yesterday as far as world-age, and its rate of progress is to be reckoned, you will find such abounding opportunities for future success and improvement as would fully warrant your contemplated removal thither.

As a small token of our appreciation and regard for you, and a tangible expression of goodwill, we pray that you may be pleased to accept as a gift from this community the accompanying purse with its contents.

Praying that heaven-sent blessings from God, the Almighty Father, may be yours both now, and in the future, if spared.

We are,
Your fellow Churchpeople, friends and neighbors, of Nanticoke and neighborhood,
Signed on behalf of the said interested parties,
HENRY W. A. BRAND, Rector.
Thursday, 2nd day of August, 1917.

Mrs. Davis and family leave Nanticoke with a host of friends, all wishing their success and happiness in their new abode.

Frank L. Smith Writes

Somewhere in France,
June 15, 17.

My Dear Coz. Edith:

These are great and wonderful days that we are now living in. The air is filled with the roar of cannons while the earth shakes with the explosion of mines prepared against the enemy's defense system and strongholds, while the papers herald the good news that we are winning and that victory is on our side.

I am attending a school of instruction for officers and will be here another week or so. I came here on June 2nd so I am having a great change and rest from the strain of battle especially after the strenuous campaign of the fall and winter. Every Canadian Batt. over here has a representative and we surely discuss plan and past experiences of fighting. It is a idea. We also have advanced drill. We live in huts and in my huts there are ten lieutenants. We are a merry, motley crew. One is a lawyer from Manitoba, another a druggist from Owen Sound, another an actor from the States and one a business man from Halifax, etc. We have a jolly time after school hours. There is always a song, story or recitation on the wing. It is the best time I have had since I have been in the army. We know how to appreciate a good time after battling with the enemy.

This school is situated in a valley surrounded by hills, with woods dotted here and there. Green hedges divide the fields, while the grain, in all its beauty, sways to and fro. There is a small village and peeping above the swaying trees is a church tower. It does seem an ideal place for a school and if I were an artist I would endeavor to send you picture. Nature is at its best.

The crops in France are excellent. Their methods of farming are crude but they certainly get results and till every inch of land that is available. Some plod away in the vicinity of shell fire and do so at a great risk. The land is very rich and exceedingly productive. I had begun to be pessimistic at the term 'Sunny France' but the last two months have convinced me that term is quite justified. The sun shines very brightly and long. Daylight 3.30 a.m. and it is quite light at 9.30 p.m. so the days are very long.

Your letter of April 25th reached me last month and I was delighted to hear from you again. No doubt you and Jack have lots of work now with 200 acres and help so scarce.

It does seem funny to think of you and Gertrude as mothers. Some do their duty one way and some another. After this war is over Canada will need some stalwart sons so keep on with the good work.

Vimy Ridge was a great success for the Canadians. I considered it a great privilege to be a part of it and I have some extraordinary experiences as well as some close shaves but did not get a scratch. Those who came out of it have wonderful satisfaction in realizing that we have helped to make history for Canada and assisted in the breaking down of tyranny and despotism and the future generations will have a chance to enjoy liberty and peace.

We haven't any tables here for writing so am writing this on my knee and I hope you will excuse the awful scrawling.

We have lots of sport and games here after school hours which helps one to relax and forget there is a war in progress. I am capt. of one of the football teams and we have won our first game in the series. Little did I think when Tyrrell used to be versus Marburg that I would be playing in France.

Well Edith, we used to have some good old songs, didn't we? I hope that we will have the opportunity again some day.

Hoping that you have a bountiful harvest, I remain,
Your sincere cousin,
FRANK LORNE SMITH.

P. S.—Kindest regards to Jack and your Father and Mother and any other who may be kind enough to enquire about me.

The foregoing letter was received by Mrs. John Stadder, of Nelles Corners.

Sad Death

A particularly sad occurrence befell the community last week in the death of William Wilson Thompson, only son of John Thompson, 10th concession, Walpole.

The young man had been sick for seven weeks from typhoid, contracted while on a visit to an old friend in Huntsville. The very regrettable feature was that he convalesced and apparently out of danger, when one of those rare things, known as an embolus took place, a clot of blood stopping the valve of the heart.

The funeral, which took place on Sunday, was very largely attended. The service was conducted by Rev. A. W. Hare, minister of Knox church of which the deceased was a member, interment being to the Hagersville cemetery.

The deceased was very popular in the community, being of a very winsome personality; the many and beautiful floral offerings from the Session and Young People of Knox Church, and many other friends, testifying to the high esteem in which he and the family are held.

The deepest sympathy of the entire neighborhood goes out to Miss Isabel and Mr. and Mrs. Thompson and other relatives.

Corporal Arthur Mann

Corporal Mann is a son of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Mann, of Aylmer. He enlisted with a Western Battalion shortly after the war broke out and landed in England in May, 1915. After twenty-two months of faithful and competent service in the trenches, Corporal Mann has been pronounced physically unfit for further trench duty, has received a distinguishing badge to that effect, and assigned to home guard duty in England. Only three members of the company with which he enlisted are left. More than once he was offered higher honors than Corporal, but as the promotion meant that he must leave his comrades he refused the honor. Arthur is rather of an inventive turn of mind and several small inventions of his are now in use in France. One of them was a field telephone, by which the British could hear what was being said in the enemy trenches. During his long trench service he never received a scratch but has many narrow escapes, which he considers providential. On one occasion he was buried above the waste by the bursting of a shell, but while others about him were shot down, he escaped injury, although he could not move and made a splendid shot for the enemy. Several times a comrade had only just taken his place, when he was killed.—Express.

Arthur Mann spent his early youth in this village, his father, Mr. S. Mann, being in the employ of Mr. D. Steel. The older son, James, is also with the C. E. F. in France. Those who remember Corporal A. Mann, although regretting his physical unfitness, will be pleased to know that a former Jarvis boy has conducted himself so creditably on the battlefields of France and Flanders.
