Hospital for Sick Children ITS CHRISTMAS MESSAGE

Dear Mr. Editor:—

Thanks for your kindness in allowing me the privilege of appealing to your readers this Christmas time on behalf of the Hospital for Sick Children, the "Sweetest of all Charities," which has as its mission the care of the helpless, the sick, the crippled and the deformed.

There never was a year in the history of the Hospital when funds to carry on the work were more needed than now.

Your purse is the Hospital's Hope. Your money lights the candles of mercy on the Christmas trees of health that the Hospital plants along the troubled roadway of many a little life.

So I am asking you for aid, for the open purse of the Hospital's friend is the hope of the Hospital at Christmas. Just as the open door of the Hospital's mercy is the hope of the little children throughout the year.

Calls on generous hearts are many in these times. Calls on the Hospital are many at all times, and especially when food and fuel and drugs and service costs are soaring high. YOU know the high cost of living. Do you know the high cost of healing—of helping the helpless to happiness? What you do to assist is the best investment you will ever make.

Do you realize what this charity is doing for sick children, not only of Toronto, but for all Ontario, for out of a total of 3,740 in-patients last year 646 came from 254 places outside of Toronto. The field of the Hospital's service covers the entire Province—from the Ottawa to the far-off Kenora—from the borders of the Great Lakes to the Arctic north-western district.

The Hospital's doctors and nurses work. If you could see the children with crippled limbs, club feet, and other deformities, who have left the Hospital with straightened limbs and perfect correction, your response to our appeal would be instant. In the Orthopedic Department last year a total of 330 in-patients were treated; and in the Out-Patient Department there were 1,946 attendances.

Let your money and the Hospital's mercy lift the burden of misery that curses the lives, cripples the limbs and saddens the mothers of the suffering little children.

Money mobilizes the powers of help and healing for the Hospital's drive day and night against the trenches where disease and pain and death assail the lives of the little ones.

Remember that every dollar given to the Hospital is a dollar subscribed to the Liberty Loan that opens the prisons of pain and the Bastilles of disease, and sets little children free to breathe the pure air, and to rejoice in the mercy of God's sunlight.

Will you send a dollar, or more if you can, to Douglas Davidson, Secretary-Treasurer of the Hospital.

J. ROSS ROBERTS, J.N., Chairman of the Board of Trustees.

FIVE FUNERALS IN THREE YEARS

Family Almost Wiped Out By Consumption.

From a hotel in the rear of more pretentious buildings comes a ghastly tale, one that in this fair Province of ours seems almost incredible; yet, to those who know the ravages of consumption, it is but a typical case.

Grief-stricken, the mother tells us of her five small children buried from this lowly home during the past three years, of her only remaining child, suffering from a tuberculous hip, and then as though in mockery of their misery, the father, too, was stricken.

He is now a patient at the Muskoka Free Hospital, where every endeavor is being made to save his life. The Muskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives is appealing for help to carry on this fight against the Great White Plague. The money you give will help them seek out those unfortunate families and give them a fighting chance for their lives.

Contributions may be sent to W. J. Gage, Chairman, 51 Spadina Avenue, Toronto, or Geo. A. Reid, Secretary-Treasurer, 228 College St. Toronto.

Murder at Sea

The unwritten law of the deep from time immemorial has been that the captain of a ship must defend with his life the passengers entrusted to his safe keeping, and he himself the last to leave the ship.

By the laws of civilized nations the unprotected ships have been considered sacred.

It has been left to modern German Culture to introduce Murder at Sea. We remember the Lusitania, Falabar, the Belgium Prince, but at this moment we particularly think of Capt. Fryatt, in command of a passenger ship, whose only offence was that he sought to save the ship from the hungry maw of the Prussian Wolf in endeavoring to save his ship from being submarined. He was sent through the farce of a mock trial, condemned to death and was shot. Had he been a naval officer, seaman or soldier, he would have been made prisoner; because he was a merchant seaman, his life, (according to the law of German civilization) must be forfeited. He is only one of many; thousands have been torpedoed again and again, and after reaching port they sign on and are out again on the Long Lone Trail.

For the merchant seaman there is no Patriotic Allowance, Separation or Pension for his dear dependents; this is one of the objects the Navy League is seeking to provide for.

Rockford

Rev. Mr. Barberree of Walsh preached a splendid sermon here Sunday evening, from Acts 2: 42.

Next Sunday is Decision Day in our Sabbath School morning service at 11 o'clock conducted by our pastor. Sunday School will commence at 10 o'clock. Everybody welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Williamson left last week for their new home at Queenston. Mr. Williamson has worked for the neighboring farmers for some years and Mrs. Williamson, formerly Miss Annie Auket, has lived for the past eight years with Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay Irvine. They have made many friends during their stay with us and we hope that happiness and prosperity may attend them in their new home.

The new roof of the church has been completed and adds materially to the looks of the building.

Mrs. John Wilson is confined to the house through illness we are sorry to say.

Mr. Wilson had a bee Monday, & drew dirt to fix the mill dam.

A Race for Honors.

During the war there has been an interesting contest between two noted regiments—the South Wales Borderers and the Rifle Brigade—in regard to the Victoria Cross. Before the war the Borderers had for some years held the record for winning the highest number of crosses—sixteen; the Riflemen following with fifteen. Then the latter won two more and held the lead for a time. But the Borderers, again asserted themselves through the agency of Captain Buchanan and Private Flynn and now hold pride of place with eighteen crosses.

Their earliest V. C. was Assistant-Surgeon Douglas, who won the honor in the sixties for saving a ship's crew near the Andaman Islands. Two noted winners were Lieuts. Melville and Coghill, whose distinctions were awarded posthumously. They swam the Tugela, after the disaster at Isandhlwana, and saved the regimental colors at the cost of their lives. Lieut. Bromhead won his cross for gallantry at Gorke's Drift at the same period.

Rubber Nails.

India-rubber nails, for use in places where ordinary nails are liable to corrosion, are a German novelty.

Rambler Roses.

One of the loved roses of summer is the Rambler rose, which rambles about scattering its joyous self among hundreds of people in addition to those who grow it. Clambering over houses, both of rich and poor, it gladdens the eye of the tourist, and in great arm loads it wanders from its home vine to the fence loving, but not rose possessing; to the sick, to the weary, to the business folk, to whom it brings a bit of relaxation. The rambler rose of June, which rambles all over to the joy of every one—here's to the insect pest health of the Rambler rose, whether Dorothy Perkins, Pillar or whatever name.—Newark News.

His Fidelity.

Upon the recent death of a politician who at one time served his country in a very high legislative place a number of newspaper men were collaborating in an obituary notice.

"What shall we say of the former editor?" asked one of the men.
"Oh, just put down that he was always faithful to his trust."
"And," queried a critical member of the group, "shall we mention the name of the trust?" "Pack."

It Does Happen.

"I don't think the truth of that Chatterella story ever came out."
"No?"
"I think she took off her slipper because it hurt her. I've seen ladies do that in restaurants many a time."—Kansas City Journal.
