The War Rosary

I knit, I knit,
I pray, I pray,
My knitting is my rosary,
And as I weave the stitches grey
I murmur prayers continually.
Grey loop—a sigh,
Grey knot—a wish,
Grey row, a chain of wistful prayer,
For this to sit and knit and pray—
This is of war the woman's share.

And so I knit,
And thus I pray
And keep repeating night and day,
May God lead safely those dear feet
That soon shall wear this web of grey.

Now and again—
A selfish strain?
But surely woman-heart must yearn
And pray sometimes that she may hear
The sound of footsteps that return.

But if—O God,
Not that. But if
It must be sacrifice complete,
Then I will trust that afterwards
Thou wilt guide home those precious feet.

—Nellie Hurst, in the Westminster.

Canadian War Records

The Officer in Charge Canadian War Records has asked us to make known that it is desired to compile a complete history in a photograph of the Canadians' share in the War, in the same way that all other belligerent countries are compiling similar records.

It is particularly desired to obtain photographs of Officers, N. C. O's and Men who have served or are now serving in the Overseas Military Forces of Canada, and it is requested that an appeal should be made to this end, through their columns.

All Officers and Other Ranks serving Overseas may find it difficult to send in their photographs and their relatives are therefore appealed to, to send in their photographs for them.

By preference the photographs should be unmounted and printed on heavy paper in order to ensure permanence. Each photograph should be accompanied by a concise record not exceeding two or three hundred words, of the subject's military career, including date of enlistment, promotions, distinctions and so on, as this will greatly assist in obtaining a full and accurate record of all concerned.

In addition it is desired to collect all photographs dealing with the Mobilization, Training and Departure of Troops together with pictures illustrating Reviews, Sports, Presentations, etc. Any photographs of this nature is regarded as a document of historical importance, and it is hoped that the possessors of all such photographs will deem it their duty to send either the originals or copies, which will ultimately be placed in the Permanent Public Archives of the Dominion.

All photographs, which will be acknowledged, should be addressed to the Officer in Charge Canadian War Records, 14 Clifford St., Round St. London, W. I. England.

Liberal Meeting

Addresses will be delivered by Mr. Parsons and others. All ladies are cordially invited. Everybody welcome.

To Haldimand Liberals

Since returning from England I have heard some old time Liberals say that they would support Union Government if we had a real one. To my mind our present government is as near fifty-fifty as it is possible to get at present; there are yet places for two Liberals from Quebec, and if any are elected who will support the Military Service Act they will be asked to join the Government; it will then be half and half. As for myself I am just as ardent a Liberal as ever, as firmly as ever believe in Free Trade, and the farmer as against the Big Interests. In this election I will support Fielding, Carvell and the Boys in France. I cannot understand why any of the old Liberal school would prefer to back up Lanier, Lemieux and those in Quebec who say this is not our war.

All this talk about a fifty-fifty government and the little election positions is childish piffle at this time, and those who pay any attention to it, must think, like the majority in Quebec, that this is not our war. It is tragic to think of the small things we discuss here, and our 114th Boys, over in France, in a death struggle with savages, giving their lives to keep those savages from us and our beloved Canada. Do you know what kind of kind of animals our Boys are holding back? I believe many of you do not. They are not human, nothing human about them except shape. They are blood thirsty mad dogs bent on murder and war. Just one instance to show how they feel toward their own dead soldiers: At Vimy Ridge we captured a Hun officer with this army order on him: "Strictly enforce orders re cadavers. Fat for glycerine is very scarce. All cadavers (dead soldiers), must be sent to reducing plant, Sighet, Hindenburg." They have no respect whatever for the living or the dead, women or children. There are none good among them but the dead ones. We must defeat them now. At Vimy Ridge it was proven to the world that the Prussian Guards are no match for the Canadian Boys from the farms and offices. Walter Gilling, Fred Pettit, Will Griffey and I were right in the midst of that fight, and my pals all come out strong. I came out with them, but on account of blood poisoning could not carry on longer.

On the way to Eton hospital I met dozens of German prisoners also going to hospital. At the dressing station at Eton I was talking to a wounded prisoner who told me that "Canada would one day suffer for all this." I tried to show him that we had them whipped, but could not. He finally said, "The Kaiser knows no defeat, what he cannot win by open war, he can win by his spy system," and I am certain that his spies and his money are at work in Canada to-day, doing more to upset Union Government than all other agencies combined. Make no mistake about it, the situation is more than serious. If the Union Government is defeated, we will soon be out of the war, for I know for a fact there are few, if any, infantry reserves in England to-day. True a few of the 114th Boys were yet in England when I left there late in October. They were drafted into the Fifth Division but did not go to France as a division, being drafted to France to fill the ranks as needed. Yes, the late Borden Government made mistakes, they were only human, a Liberal Government would have done better, but the best men of both sides will do even better still. Mewburn and Carvell, both Liberals, have charge of the most important work just now, and I feel that as Canadians of the build breed we should elect their supporter, Mr. Lalor, unanimously. Why was it not unanimous in the first place? Who is responsible for this election in Haldimand or in Canada at this time? That is what the boys in France are asking. The first paper I picked up in Quebec gave an account of a Union meeting at Cayuga and stated that the people were united in war, and would back up the Boys with new men. I felt elated over it, such a difference to what I saw there in Quebec where they are united to stay at home. When I arrived in Jarvis I was surprised and disappointed to find an election on here. And now let me ask you for the sake of all you hold dear to get together—we cannot win this war without union—and all support the ablest man of both parties, elect the Union Candidate by a huge majority and let the Huns see that we intend to carry on until they say "enough."

Re Conscription. I believe it is the business of the state to protect itself rather than depend on the few who feel like protecting it. No. 739163.
