Moore Barracks Hospital, Ward 27, Shorneliffe, Kent, Eng.

Just a few lines as I received a parcel from the. Women's Institute Jan. last Sunday which contained a pair of socks knit by you, at least they had your name inside them, I was very glad to receive them as socks always comes in very handy when a best is a long way from Mar. 20 R. W. Smith, J. D. home and the socks we get over here are nothing extra, especially the army acks which you put on one day and next day when you come to take them off there is not very much left. I have been in the hospital here since a week ago to-day, Mr. D. Duff of Cayuga was in town on Tuesday, with tousilitis but it is not serions and expect to be out before very long This makes my second time, since I came July 14 Money borrowed...... from France, to be in this hospital and am always glad to get back once in awhile for a rest. It is pretty lonesome here in this ward. There are only two of us here, a fellow of the same battalion as I am in. that is the 4th Canadians. We are not Mrs. Guntin and children, Simcoe, starved, get lots to eat and nothing to wotry about. Well I guess I will close. thanking the Institute for the parcel and thanks for the socks. I remain
