ROLL OF HONOR

The Canadian Pacific Railway has given a greater number of employees to the army than any other Canadian concern. Up to date 6,692 have enlisted for overseas service, exclusive of army reserves who had been in the employment of the Company before the beginning of hostilities. 293 have been killed and 611 wounded. The missis are not entered on the following, the seventeenth, casualty list of C. P. R. employees, just issued: Blacksmith's H'pr Revelstoke
