DEATHS

DIED—In Woodhouse, at her residence, on Wednesday, March 7th, 1917, Agnes McNeilly, relict of the late James McNeilly, aged 75 years. The funeral was held on Saturday afternoon, interment in Port Dover cemetery.

BOWMAN—In Springvale, on Friday, March 9th, Catharine Winger, beloved wife of Richard Bowman, aged 67 years. The funeral was held from her late residence on Monday afternoon, interment in Springvale County.

MARRIAGES

JOHNSON-ROBERTS—On Saturday, March 10, 1917, in the Methodist church, Jarvis, by the Rev. H. L. Roberts, of St. Catharines, assisted by Rev. J. G. Foote, Emma Pearl, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Roberts, Walpole, to Benjamin Johnson, Walpole.

JEFFREY BELL—In Tillsonburg on Wednesday, March 7, 1917, at the home of the bride's parents, Helen Webster, only daughter of Mrs. Alex. Bell, of that place, to William Jeffrey, of Simcoe.

Johnson-Roberts

A very pleasant event took place in the Methodist church when the marriage of Emma Pearl, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Roberts to Benjamin Johnson, both of Walpole, was solemnized. Precisely at four o'clock, and to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Miss Muriel Foote, the bridal party entered the church. The bride who was unattended, was given away by her father, and was becomingly gowned in a navy blue tulle-trimmed gown with hat to match. The beautiful and impressive ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. L. Roberts of St. Catharines—brother of the bride, assisted by her pastor, Rev. J. Gordon Foote. Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple left on the 5 o'clock train for Toronto amid the best wishes of the large number of friends who had gathered at the church, and station as an evidence of the esteem the young couple is held. Upon their return they will reside near Garnet.

Porter's School House

Married in Tillsonburg at the bride's parents, on Wednesday last, Miss Nellie Bell to Mr. William Jeffrey. Their many friends wish for them a long and happy life.

Mr. Wm. Mason was in Toronto part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Porter went to Laagton last Thursday to attend the funeral of the former's uncle, Mr. James Smith.

Mr. David Jeffrey, sr., spent the week end in St. Thomas visiting his daughter and other friends.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Erwin of Rockford were the guests of Mr. Algine Mason's on Sunday.

Mr. David Jeffrey and family were in Tillsonburg on Wednesday last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Duncan spent the week end in Forestville.

Miss Ina Duncan entertained a number of friends on Thursday evening last. This party was given in honor of her sister, Mrs. Robert Gardner who is about to leave this burg and move into Jarvis where she intends to reside. The evening was spent in music and games. Before the party broke up a dinner lunch was served which was thoroughly enjoyed by all present and as they bade their hostess and sister good bye they all hoped it would not be long before another invitation would be extended to this happy company to spend another evening with them. Mrs. Gardner will be greatly missed in this neighborhood but true in her new home she will find many true friends.

Miss Lillian Wyckoff of Simcoe is re-joining old acquaintances and everyone is pleased to meet her again.

Mr. David Jeffrey, jr., returned to Toronto on Monday.

Miss Isabella Simpson of Jarvis was week end guest of Miss Grace Jeffrey.

Mrs. Walker returned to Jarvis on Saturday after spending two weeks with her brother in this place.

Ellison Jeffrey and sister Grace were guests at Mr. Wm. Simpson's, Jarvis, on Sunday evening.

Sandusk

The Basket Social at Sandusk Music Hall Thursday night under the auspices of the S. S. was a treat. Mr. John Walker made an able chairman with his humor. The program consisted of choice vocal and instrumental music. The dialogue "The Ghost of Crooked Lane" caused much laughter as the doctor was being snared into giving his consent to the marriage of his daughter and Ned Hamestead (the ghost). Miss Westbury, who characterized the old and eccentric Dr. Cross housekeeper, was a match for him. Charles Peacock made an apt ghost. A pretty tableau brought cheers when Doris Pond, draped in the Union Jack and wearing a golden crown stood before the audience. The latter part of the program consisted in testing the contents of the various baskets of many shapes and decorations. Those present seemed to enjoy a very pleasant evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Warner of Port Dover, Mrs. Fewster and daughter Gladys of Hagersville were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Pond over Sunday.

Measles are quite prevalent around Sandusk so also are Dutch chickens.

Hartley Pond has been suffering with a severe attack of tooth ache.

Mrs. Clair Deal of Port Dover spent a few days at East View.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Lofthouse spent Sunday at Garnet.

John Peacock left on Saturday with a car load of live stock for the West.

Miss Forrest spent Sunday with Miss Annie Westbury.

Lieut. Avde of Kingston is spending a few days under the parental roof.

Heed the Battle-Cry

(Composed by Hazel M. Ward, age 13)
Your King and Country need you;
You have heard the battle-cry;
From New Zealand and Australia
Britain's sons are drawing nigh.
Take up your arms and follow,
Let them know you love your land;
And for the sake of Freedom
Lend a helping hand.
Don't stand back and be a coward,
But go and sign the pledge;
Be a man like George and Ernest—
Be a man like Bill and Redge.
Heed the Cry of anguish
Heard from Fleets afar;
Go fight for sake of dear ones
—For King, President and Car.

Killed by Truck

Carleton Hill, 36, Heating Contractor, was walking on E. 71st Street in Newburg Heights, on Friday, on his way to a house at which he had been working. A five-ton truck, loaded with brick, passed and the owner gave him a ride. They talked until the truck came to the house for which he was bound. "Much obliged, so long," he cried as he jumped for the pavement. His foot slipped and he fell under the right hand wheel of the truck. The weight of the tons of brick and brick passed over his right leg, crushing it. He was rushed in Nook's ambulance to St. Alexis' hospital where he died a half hour later not having regained consciousness.

Mr. Hull resided at 10541 Glenville Ave., N. E. and is survived by a wife who was formerly Hazel R. Evans, of Hagersville, Canada.

"Cleveland Plain Dealer" 3rd Mar. 1917.

To Repeat

"Breezy Point" will again be shown in the Music Hall, Jarvis, on Saturday, March 17th, under the auspices of the Women's Institute. This play is being put on by the ladies for the purpose of raising money to purchase a few comforts for our Jarvis boys who are overseas and are fighting for home and country. We trust every one will turn out and make it a success. What matter if you did hear it before it is worth going miles to hear again. Admission only 25c.
