Reception Given

(Held for last week.)
On Friday evening, April 2nd, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Glanfield was fragrant with flowers and fresh with ferns to welcome home from their wedding holiday their youngest daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Galbraith.

The dining room table was adorned by a cut glass vase and table mirror, the gift of the bride's sister, containing a beautiful bouquet of roses, while red roses adorned other tables. The archway and ceilings being tastefully draped with crepe paper. About thirty-five were present to add further welcome to the happy couple.

The bride certainly made a very charming and graceful appearance dressed in her wedding dress of cream satin and chiffon as she fitted in and out among the guests.

A table of very pretty present bespoke the high esteem of the wedded couple.

The evening was pleasantly spent in games and music and the guests departed leaving their best wishes not only with the bride and groom but with Mr. and Mrs. Glanfield.

A Cry for More Food

It is estimated that forty million men are bearing arms in the present titanic struggle, while twenty million men and women are producing munitions and clothing for soldiers. Many of these sixty million were formerly producers of food.

From that work they are withdrawn, leaving vast regions idle. Ten nations are on rations, and six in a distressing lack of food.

Canada is one of the countries that are expected to produce a surplus of food to help to make up the deficit in lands that are more severely affected. It is our duty to feed our soldiers and our allies. Our country is exceptionally well situated, for a vessel can make four trips from Canada to England in the time occupied by one trip from Australia.

Our present production falls far short of what ought. The acreage of wheat, oats, barley, and potatoes was nearly 365,000 less in 1916 than in 1915, and the yield declined by more than 73 million bushels. Between 1914 and 1916 the yield of potatoes fell from 29,717,597 bushels to 7,409,429 bushels.

The Ontario Department of Agriculture is proud of the many patriotic acts of the Ontario farmers and realizes to the full the difficulties the farmer is working under. Through the Ontario Government Public Employment Bureau a determined effort is being made to secure a large amount of farm-trained labor and it is hoped that the farmer will make full use of same and produce large crops this season, for every pound of which large prices are likely to be paid.
