Nanticoke

Last Sunday was observed as "Mother's Day." Miss Mabel Almas spent the week end at her home in Hagersville.

Three of Jarvis prominent business men, R. McCarter, Chas. McCarter, C. Allen, motored out to this burg last week.

The Women's Institute will hold their Annual Meeting next Saturday.

The subject taken at Bible class last Friday evening was Baptism. This same subject will be continued next week.

The expression "I Wonder" most of us use every day, and many times a day. We wonder what will happen, what will people think, how will the crops turn out, if it will rain, if we will soon have warm weather. We wonder who there are so many vacant seats in church, why we have so few knitters. The harvest truly is great but the laborers are few, if the price of food stuffs will still be soaring higher. When will this war end. "And so we keep on "Wondering."

During the fore part of the week Mrs. Ross, Miss and Alfred Honey motored to Hamilton.

A number from Nanticoke and Port Dover attended the funeral of Bert Wood, Hagersville. The service was conducted by the Rev. J. Norton, assisted by the Rev. J. Taylor, formerly pastor of this parish.

Miss Bryant has returned to her home in Nanticoke, after spending several months in Hamilton.

Renton.

Walter Deming shipped a carload of mixed cattle from here on Tuesday last.

Mrs. Wam Evans and her sister Miss Jennie Easton, of Bealton, spent a couple of days last week with the Misses Secord.
