On Wash-day, save yourself from unfair work. Let Fels-Naptha's whitest of suds search out the dirt and the grime that otherwise you yourself, would have to scrub out.

Boiling water is not at all necessary for Fels-Naptha. You get its remarkable results without boiling water, but that doesn't mean you must use cold water in winter weather. Use water at any temperature that is comfortable to your hands and Fels-Naptha will work splendidly.

A Fels-Naptha wash-day always means a comfortable wash-day.
