Completing the Home Circle

There is no other force more effective in making the home attractive than music. Every member of the family is irresistibly drawn by good music. The supplies this wedding link in hundreds of Canadian homes. Those who desire to be bound down to no limited number of artists in their choice of records choose the Brant-ola because it plays all records equally well.

BRANT-OLA

Those who desire a phonograph in a case that is in keeping with the other beautiful furnishings of their homes, find in the Brant-ola that combination of art and science that marks the work of masters. The Brant-ola is a truly beautiful instrument to see and hear.

The Brant-ola is made in seven different styles. Finished in Walnut, Painted Oak or Mahogany. It will play any make of record. Ask your dealer to demonstrate this beautiful instrument to you.

GENERAL OF GENERAL LIPSETT

GENERAL OF GENERAL LIPSETT

Funeral of General Lipsett near the lines. Taking the coffin from the gun carriage. H.R.H. the Prince of Wales following the coffin.

"Get Mit Uns": This German hall mark chalked by one of the Cambrai vandals on the stand of a pillaged room is a good example of German humor.

The statistics show that the cities have the smaller increases in births, while the places other than cities and towns have the larger figures.

Another thing that the report brings out is the fact that illegitimate births have not increased since the war. The figures, as quoted show that there has been a decrease since 1913:

	Male	Female
1912	54,516	54,516
1914	56,226	56,226
1915	67,632	67,632
1916	62,264	62,264

Since 1913 there has been a large decrease in the number of marriages in the province. In 1913 there were 3,897 more marriages than in 1916. In 1913 there were 26,998 couples united (while in 1914 the figures had dropped to 24,245, in 1915 to 23,506, and in 1916 to 23,461).

Since the beginning of 1913 135,631 people have died in the province, 1916 having the largest record, followed by 1913. The figures for deaths are:

	Male	Female
1913	34,317	34,317
1914	32,449	32,449
1915	33,294	33,294
1916	35,540	35,540

The statistics show that the cities have the smaller increases in births, while the places other than cities and towns have the larger figures.

Another thing that the report brings out is the fact that illegitimate births have not increased since the war. The figures, as quoted show that there has been a decrease since 1913:

	Male	Female
1913	26.6	26.6
1914	22.1	22.1
1915	21.9	21.9
1916	20.3	20.3

The work on the new drydock and certain dredging operations in the harbor of St. John which the company has contracted for will, it is expected, be started within sixty days, and both should be completed within three years. The contracts call for an expenditure of close upon ten million dollars.

Sudden Thunder Works a Wonder. A sharp peal of thunder during a severe electrical storm at Ormskirk is credited with restoring his sight to a blind soldier. The veteran, who had been sightless for a year as a result of shell-shock and gassing, was asleep at the time. The shock awakened him suddenly and he immediately fainted. When he recovered consciousness he discovered to his amazement and delight that his sight had been completely restored.

An Extensive Yawn. Two soldiers in the front-line trench were watching an enemy plane circle overhead. First Soldier—(opening his mouth in an extensive yawn)—Aw—aw! Second Soldier—For the love of Mike, man, shut your mouth. Fritz might think it's a dugout, and shoot it!

Hatchery Provides Many Fish. The Dominion Fish Hatchery at Belleville has in the past four years provided for distribution in restocking provincial lakes and streams no fewer than 21,533,000 salmon trout fry, the total being made up: 1915, 1,500,000; 1916, 6,900,000; 1917, 6,039,000; and 1918, 7,050,000.

Motor Hood Through Trench. A young lady of Fredericton who had just learned to drive a motor car essayed to return the car to the garage recently, but failed to gauge accurately its impulses, the result being that she passed completely, if not really, through the end of the building.
