Plenty of ice on the trees is a favorable sign for a good fruit yield, says well known fruit grower, in speaking of the recent ice storm. Twenty-five years of experience in fruit growing should give some force to this prophecy.

It will be good news not only to the people of Cayuga but to the people of the Grand and traveling public to know that the Hamilton House is to be reopened. Mr. J. Rebbeoy has been considering the proposition again, and has definitely decided to reopen.

Bishop Dowling has changed the Saturday abstinence during Lent to Wednesday. This change is made to conform to the Food Controller's regulations. This week being Ember week there will be three abstinence days, namely, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday.

In order to increase as much as possible the amount of land devoted to the growing of wheat, the Ontario Department of Agriculture has secured 50,000 bushels of spring wheat from the Dominion Grain Commission, and this will be distributed among Ontario farmers at cost, $2.75 a bushel.

This was the only January on record when the temperature never rose above 30 degrees in the whole of the province. The highest rate at which the wind blew was 54 miles per hour, and that on January 28 there were 113 hours of sunshine during the month. The snow fall in January was 23 inches. The only cold January was in 1887, with an average of half a degree colder.

Lion Wallace MacKinnon, son of Rev. N. D. MacKinnon, arrived home last Wednesday night after two years' service at the front having been granted two months furlough. His passage was booked on the Olympic and the crossing was made in six days. He was given an enthusiastic reception on his arrival and his many friends are pleased to see him looking as well as he does. —Caledonia Sachem.

Pte. Wilfred Wilson, D.C.

The soldier hero, Pte. Wilfred Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson of Rockford, gave an agreeable surprise to his parents on Saturday last when he arrived home, his coming being utterly unexpected.

He went overseas early in 1915, enlisting at Hamilton and spending over a year in the trenches. For the past year he has been in the hospital in England suffering from shell shock and other ailments. He is the proud possessor of two medals, namely the D.C.M. and the Montenegro medal. How these medals were won were reported in the Record some time ago. We understand that there are only two possessors of the last mentioned medal in Canada, Pte. Wilson's chum of Hamilton being the other recipient. Wilfred is well known in Jarvis and his friends will be glad to meet him. His leave is of ten weeks duration.

Rockford

The January thaw arrived a month ago and the water in the creek was higher last week than it has been known for years. Owing to this fact the attendance at the school was small.

Albert Frycott, of Hagersville, spent Sunday with Frank Hamby.
