These winds are not only violent, but they come down suddenly, and often when the sky is perfectly clear.—Cam. Bib. 28. Asleep on a pillow-Mark gives particulars omitted by other evangelists. The "hinder part of the ship," or stern, afforded a convenient place for rest. The "pillow" was probably the leathern cushion provided for the steersman's use. The sleep was required because of weariness resulting from the day's labors. Master, carest thou not-"Teacher,"-R. V. The question shows the disciples' fear and also their doubt of the Master's interest in their welfare. It also implies some faith in his control over the clements; 39. II. Healing a demoniac (vs. 1-14). 1-5. On the east side of the Sea of Galiles Jesus entered the country of the Gadarenes, called in Matthew Gersenes, and is called Gerasenes in the Revised version. In this country was scity called Gadara, hence the region where Jesus was would very naturally we called the country of Galilee, hence the place could properly be spoken of as the country of the Gergesenes, or Cerasenes. On disembarkinug here, Jesus was met by a demoniac, whose place of abode was one of the natural or artificial caves of the region which were used as tombs. No provisions were made for the care of such persome then, and they were obliged to care for themselves as best they could. Matthew tells us there were two. Demon-possession is frequently mentioned in the New Testainent. The victim by a course of sinful indulgence gives and hence loses control of himself. It is not necessarily insanity or bodily disease, although both may be present. Dr. Nevius, a missionary among the Chinese, declares there are cases in China exactly like those described in the New Testament. It is shown in the narrative that efforts were made to control this demoniac, but the chains and fetters with which he had extraordinary physical strength. The sttempts to bind him were for the protection of the community. That mady with sharp stones.

The Lord had already commanded the mon to come out of the afflicted name of the unclean spirit, the answer given was, "Legion." A Roman legion was composed of six thousand men. The evil spirit then asked that he and his fellows might not be sent back to the abyse, or "out of the country" (v. 10), but that they might go into the herd of swine. Jesus cast out the demons and they took possession of the two thousand swine and hurried them down into the sea. The swine perished and the devils either

They would rather keep their swine and endure the demoniac than have Jesus with them healing asmoniacs and lose their swine. Jesus soon granted their request and departs ed. 18. prayed him that he might be with him--It was natural that the cured man should desire to be with the healer. 19. Jesus suffered him not-It would have been a pleasure to be with Jesus, but the Master had m greater work for him than that. He must testify to his friends what Jesus had done for him. In some instances Jesus forbade the persons he healed to give testimony as to what had been done, for that would result in Jesus' being overwhelmed with the crowds that would be drawn to him, so that his work would be hindered. In this case Jesus was going to withdraw at once, and there would be a large field for the labors of the healed man. 20. He was weary. He slept. Toil had been protracted to the point of actual physical exhaustion. He had spoken all of the parables concerning the kingdom of God. This little touch lay within human power, even to the of the human side of Christ's life utmost self-abnegation, in order to only brings into greater evidence His preserve peace for the world. His own spirit and the evil spirit were in strife together. Here as in other instances the devils To Jesus' inquiry as to the acknowledged the power of Jesus over them. Their request was founded on malice and mischief in order to render Christ obnoxious to the Gadarenes by the spoiling of their property. This exercise of Christ's power over evil spirits foreshadowed their ultimate subjection to Him. Jesus looked upon the afflicted man with pity rather than censure. His affliction was not treated as if it were in special sense a visitation for sin. Jesus did not rebuke those who had done their best for the sufferer. He did that which was far better. The man was helpiess until Jesus came. Divine authority and compassion encountered human sen, foulness and degradation. The demon was exercised and the sufferer made whole. The man's nature was so transformed as to make him a glorious manifestation of the transforming power of the gospel upon the human scul. He could testify to the enthronement of reason, to emancipation from the thraidom of evil spirits, to restoration to happiness and to the Author of his deliverance.

(By Siegfried Balder.) Comrades in war!

Three years have passed since the German Emperor plunged the world and his people in this most groundless, senseless and impious of all wars. into a sea of blood and tears.

Trained from childhood to be a soldier, brought up and the perverted views of the junker and officer caste, dreaming of the laurels of the conqueror as the highest ideal, counselled by generals, befriended by war contractors, and even with a financial interest in their profiteering, he has since 1905 systematically paved the way for the war. He desired this war, he permitted the systematic cult of war in Germany by the Pan-Germanists, and he has encouraged it. He supported and fomented the almost daily quarrels of the other powers through the Pan-German press by his inflammatary speeches. Last of all he affixed his signature to the various declararesponsible for them.

For nine years the diplomacy of our neighbors, consistently anxious for peace, succeeded in averting this disaster from the world. This was the policy which was falsely presented to policy," in reality a peace policy in which Germany was always most heartily invited to participate. Germany was not isolated, but the German Government, and in its wake the Austrian Government, deliberately and maliciously withdrew from the circle human social circles.

But not only the diplomatic circles of foreign states, but also German men of insight and lofty ideals have placed themselves firmly in opposition to the Emperor's senseless and extravagant lust for war, in spite of his wrath, and have/sacrificed their positions rather than their convictions. This was true in the case of the president of the Reichesbank. Dr. Koch, and even of the Emperor's brother, Prince Henry of Prussia. On July 31, 1914, he urged the Emperor to desist from the war, and when he failed in his attempt he flung at the Emperor's feet his commission as grand marshal and commander-in-chief of the German navy. war the sympathy of the entire world belonged properly to our neighbors who had been so wantonly attacked. But it did not stop at sympathy; the scoundrels who govern you and control you, by the colossal atrocity of their methods of warfare, by such brutality as in itself to be a menace to the whole neutral world, by disregard of all established treaties, managed step by step to enrage all civilized humanity to war against us.

If a bloodthirsty maniac should be let loose on the streets those whom he attacked would defend themselves. All peace-loving men would hasten to their rescue; only cowards would slink timidly away. This is to-day the attitude of the world toward Germany. There will be no peace, and justly so, until the murderer is imprisoned and shorn of his power to harm.

THIS MURDERER IS GERMAN EMPEROR. •

Comrades in war, this murderer is the German emperor and his governtions of war; he is fully and entirely [ment; that is to say, the men whom he himself has chosen for his infamous plan, without consulting the people. and without regard for their wishes: and these are accomplices he has sefected after men of honor have refused their services. In the spring of 1914, your ignorance as the "isolation by an overwhelming vote of lack of confidence, the reichstag showed its distrust of the only man whose signature the emperor needed for mobilization and declaration of war, Bethmann-Holweg, his imperial chancellor. In no modern civilized state would it be possible for a minister to remain in of civilized nations, as criminals from office after being openly branded by the representatives of the people as unfit, but in Germany any criminal may become and remain imperial chancellor at the will of the emperor alone. Punishment has already found him out. Another lackey has been promoted to lackey-in-chief, without consultation with the German people and their representatives. This murderer is the German emperer with his accomplices; but not the German people, the poor people defrauded and exploited by their government; not the poor soldiers, who are driven to slaughter by these knaves under the iron shackles of military law, like the miserable galley Comrades, how long is it your wish to put up with this? When will you rouse yourselves? When will you take arms on the side on which every man | man people and the German Fatherof honor must now fight; on the side even held out until noon of the 4th of of humanity and civilization against this gang of slayers? When will you posts is: free our poor, down-tredden, famished people from its tyrants, and again establish justice, liberty, morality, reason and civilization in Germany. JOIN FIGHT ON SIDE OF JUSTICE. Why not come over to fight on the side of justice, of truth, of freedom, al! of you; the side on which all civilized nations as well as the noblest and most far-seeing of your own people have taken their stand? I know the reasons which hold you back: 1. Your ignorance; the false doc-

Fear of your masters, especially of the officers. But these hangmen of the Kaiser are cowardly and hide themselves in time of danger b hind cover. Shoot them down like mad dogs if they get in your way. Rather that they die than the hundreds of thousands of honest, industrious tathers of families whom they have already hunted into the jaws of death; a hunt which day by day goes on. turn home even if you escape punishment. But the laws by which the murderers maintain their power and make you truckling staves shall be blotted out before the war is at an end, and you will be joyfully welcomed home without disgrace and more than that, with the highest honor, as true heroes and liberators of your country.

4. Fear of injuring their Fatherland if you go over to the French and Eng- average hog, and recommended that lish, and more than that if you fight on their side, which is a matter for your own choice.

Comrades, I pledge you by all that we hold holy, I am a son of the German people, I love them with every Hohenzollern loved them; and the honor and welfare of my fatherland stand above all else, and are the only lodestars of my destiny. I know the war, the events leading up to it, its causes and its progress-more than the Kaiser's government likes. I assure people demands that you come over: aye, that you turn your cannon around. that you join the Entente and march with them to the Rhine and over it, and wrest our land from the claws of its destroyer, for now and for all time.

ground down into ruin, and what is more, the people of our German Patherland will be given over to the will of the conquerors. Then your intellectual and political leaders, the true leaders who are not the lackeys of the Emperor, will have no right and no opportunity to interpose a word concerning the future order of the world and of Germany. But if you co-operate, and that with all your might, to carry out this purpose, the honor of the German people, which is to-day scorned as merely an insensate tool in the hands of murderers, will be restored; and cheese, lb. 0.00 more than that, you will have a voice in the establishment of the new order of the world and of Germany. And take my word for it, we shall have peace, and we can have it on such terms that the German people wil be happier in the future than they eve were before the war. But leave us in the lurch, and we must recognize with sullen rage and scorn that we are the fellow-countrymen of hopelessly delud ed slaves, upon whom will rest the blame for their own ruin and for the annihilation of Germany. EMPEROR WICKEDLY DECEIVED

Comrades in war, you have taken as oath of allegiance to your flag. But the Emperor, too, took an eatn at the beginning of his reign, an oath of alle gience to the German constitution The confederation which forms the German Empire was established ac cording to this constitution "To protect the United Provinces and the fe gal rights thereof, and to promote th welfare of the German people." To guard it is the foremost, indeed the only, duty of the German Emperor. I this purpose cannot be accomplished without war, then the Emperor ma declare war, but not until then. Bu the Emperor, wickedly, wantonly, b deceiving the German people, by mis representing facts and by forging of ficial documents, by breaking sacre treaties which he as the defender of justice, should have observed, has overthrown Belgium, declared war of Russia, France and Serbia, and ha thereby violated the laws of justice and the constitution: has hurled th German Empire down to ruin and ha wretked the welfare of the German people. The oath which you have taken means allegiance merely to a Emperor who is the protection of the German people, the guardian of their their welfare; it goes not mean allegiance to burglars, murderers, rascally drumers or greedy cannon makers. But you took no oath against the German country in the hour of greatest danger. who either from stupidity or from cowardice works against the good of his people. KNIFE AT GULLET OF SCOUN-
