The Flu situation in this community curred, although a number of cases are seriously ill. The village as yet has been singularly fortunate no cases have developed with the exception of Dr. O. attack of the malady. It is thought cluding the 27th October, 1918. that the doctor is suffering from a complete breakdown due to overwork.

Mr. R. A. McCarter is erecting an extension to his place of business on Talbot street. The cement floor and foundation work was completed by Mr. Walt Rodgers, while the carpentry work is being done by Messrs. W. Porter and A. Winger. It is the intention of Mr. Mc Carter to use the new building for the assembling of farm implements. We congratulate Mr. McCarter on the improved appearance of his business site.
