Furlong-Green

Rep. Bill married. And they do say that she bride, formerly Miss Beatrice Elizabeth Green, prominent and wealthy residents of the town of Essex, was "the fairest that ever the sun shone on." The lucky man—well it was the greatest of a long line of successes for him—he says so himself. The ceremony was performed Easter Monday morning by Rev. Father McCabe in St. Mary's church, Maldstone, Essex.

The groom, William Henry Furlong, is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Furlong, is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. M.
H. Furlong, of Hamilton, and grandson of the late William Furlong, one of the early pioneers and a large landowner in Walpole township. He was born in November 1889 on the 4th concession road a mile east of Hodges' corner and received his early education in the little red backwoods school, known as "Sanders' schoolhouse." About 19 years ago the family moved to Hamilton and Bill completed his studies in St. Mary's Cathedral school and the Collegiate Institute in that city, and Osgoode Hall, Toronto, being called to the bar in 1911. Since then he has a chieved success looking after the Windsor interests of the legal firm of Furlong and Avey. Joseph Owen of Jarvis and Michael Furlong of Nantouke are uncles of the groom.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and looked a picture of charming girlish grace in her wedding gown of broad-edged duchess ivory satin, trimmed with old lace and silver, a long veil of silk tulle embroidered in orange blossoms and carrying an old-fashioned shower bouquet of Ophelia roses and snap-dragon. The bridesmaid was Miss Florence Mary Green sister of the bride, who wore a quaint frook of fuled pink Georgette poke bonnet of black meline faced in pink with long streamers, and carrying a shower bouquet of pink sweet peas and mignonette.
The groom's brother, Bernard Henry Furlong, the best man, formerly of the R.A.
F., has just completed his final examinations at Osgoode Hall. Miss Cecile Quel-lette, organist at Immaculate Conception Church, Windsor, was at the organ and played Mendelssohn's Wedding March at the beginning of the ceremony and during nuptial Mass Mr. Eugene Janisse sang an "Ave Maria" and Mrs. Frederick Sevald of Detroit "Oh Promise Me." The ushers were Messrs. William Eagan, Harry Cotter, James Wall, John McMannus, all of Windsor.

The wedding breakfast was served at 12.30 noon at the home of the bride in Essex, where lilies and lovely spring flowers were used abundantly in decorating.

The mother of the groom, Mrs. M. H.
Furlong, wore a gown of henna brown embroidered Georgette over creamy satin, and the mother of the bride, Mrs. Green was attired in a pearl grey gown of embroided Georgette. They were matrons of honor and received the guests, who included: Judge John O. Dromgoole and Dromgoole of Windsor; Dr. Brian, M. P. and Mrs. Brian, of Essex; Mr. W. C.
Kennedy of Windsor; Mr. McWhinney of Woodstock; Dr. and Mrs. Thrush of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Sevald of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Featherstone of Kitchener; Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Bricker of Essex; Mr. and Mrs. Brodie Green of Leamington; Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Green of Essex; Miss May F. Furlong of Detroit; and Miss Flora Furlong, Dr. F.
J. Furlong and Miss Margaret McNally of Hamilton, respectively. Sister, brother and cousin of the groom.

Among the many verbal bouquets presented to the happy couple during the toast-making, the one one with the sweetest perfume came from W. C. Kennedy, M. P., of Windsor, who said in part:
"Mr. Furlong (that's Bill) is the coming man of Windsor. This city needs more such progressive young men as he."

Following the reception the newlyweds entrained for Ottawa and other eastern cities, where they will spend an extended honeymoon before returning to take up their residence in Windsor. They expect to pay a visit to Jarvis and vicinity this summer.
