Favorite Picture of the People's Prince

When it became generally known that H. H. the Duke of York would give the Canadian National Exhibition this year the honor of being the first to touch with the official photograph in London and received a special mention of him for his protection of the Victory Year Medal awarded to the winners in the Agriculture and other sections of the Big Fair. The photo shown above was received after considerable delay, and immediately a cable was run back to this effect:

"A mistake had been made. An official picture is desired. One you sent shows the Prince without hat or coat and with khaki shirt collar turned in. Charming, desirable, but hardly dignified enough."

Then came the answer: "Sorry you dislike it. It's the Prince's favorite picture, taken with the Canadians in France and in every sense official."

And that is the reason why the People's Prince will appear on the Canadian National Exhibition 1919 medals, badges, crests and in the careless attire of the Fighting Man in France. He will wear the Big Fair on Monday, August 25th.

A Real Treat.

"Ladies and gentlemen," began the manager of the Dillydally moving picture theater, appearing in front of the screen, "it affords me pleasure to assure you that we are about to present for your entertainment a unique departure in modern motion pictures—a 1,000-foot film, on which, after about 800 feet have been used in exploiting the title, the name of the author, the oxlike countenance of the famous star, Francis X. Mushman, the fact that it was produced under the personal supervision of a great genius of whom you never heard before, and the information that the photography, which is no better and no worse than common, was done by another total stranger, there will positively be nearly 200 feet of pictures given!"—Kansas City Star.

Epidemic Record of 1917.

Disease scourges took a great toll in the orient during 1917. Cholera prevailed in southern Asia from Assam to Turkey in the Indian region; there were 8,870 cases in the Philippines and many deaths in Burma. Bubonic plague belted the tropical world from Peru to Hawaii and New Caledonia. In British India the largest mortality took place; there were 300,000 cases, with 360,000 deaths. The disease area extended as far north as Egypt and Senegal. Yellow fever appeared in Africa, Mexico and South America. The deaths were not above several hundred.

Surely Has "Done His Bit."

"I think this man is doing his bit," writes an army correspondent who sends the following dispatch to the Army and Navy Journal:

"George Borden, a negro, of Goldsboro, N. C., has furnished sons to the war in the sum of nearly two squads. He is the father of 35 children, 27 of them living and 14 of them in the United States army either in this country or in France.

"He has been married three times and on four occasions has been the father of quadruplets."

Many Feeble-Minded.

A complete census of the feeble-minded in the United States has never been taken, but it is estimated that there is one feeble-minded person to every 250 of the population, or approximately 400,000 in all, according to the secretary of one of the New York mental hygiene organizations. About 12,000 men have been rejected from the new national army on account of nervous and mental disorders; and one-third of these were rejected on account of feeble-mindedness.

Letter to the Editor

New York Central Train.
Editor of Jarvis Record,
Jarvis, Ont.

Dear Sir,
Listened to a speech to-day by Tad Jordan, aviator of the Flight Marines. Being a native of Fort William, although a U. S. citizen now, you always have a soft spot for home. Mr. Jordan, in speaking, spoke in glowing terms of the Canadian boys and mentioned town citizens who made the supreme sacrifice, and Jarvis was mentioned.

It seems Mr. Jordan is a pioneer aviator and former instructor to Lieut. Col. Bishop, whom Mr. Jordan termed, the Ace of all Aces. Mr. Jordan said that the boys from Canada formed a battle line formation in the air that never broke. Which showed the wonderful spirit of the Canada aviator in grit which he stated helped most wonderfully to grind the Hun out of the air and send him to the dust which, Mr. Jordan said, was their proper home. He stated that it would be years before all the deeds of that most wonderful band of air fighters shall be known to the Canadian citizens, and from time to time they would receive new thrills of the exploits of Canadian Air Fighters. Mr. Jordan is an inventor and was held in reserve to work out detail for the U. S. government, and has made twenty-seven trips across the Atlantic since 1914. He stated, the brains of Britain always had the brain of Admir. Von Tripitz and the rest of his dirty-curs, baffled. Finally Mr. Jordan got across, became an "ace" in two months, was wounded and in returning back to his wing became a balloon straffer, which he said was the best out door sport in the world. His only regret is that the war ended so quickly as it was planned by the Allied Air Force to send the huns to Hell through the medium of the air route. He ended his speech by saying: "God only knows that a good Hun is a dead one and must be everlastingly watched. Thank God the allies have at last got the snakes of humanity coagulated and must be kept there. And believe me, ladies and gentlemen, we must take off our hats to those wonderful snake charmers across lake Ontario who never had fear of the poisonous reptiles. The poppies are growing over thousands of these brave boys from the cities, villages and farms of Canada, but they have not made the supreme sacrifice for nothing, and the Canadian soldier is one of the world's greatest fighting men on the field of battle, and gentle, kind of heart when engaged in useful pursuits of endeavor at home."

I thought I would drop you these few lines they may be of some use to your paper, for I was really amazed to hear this big aviator talk in such glowing terms of the boys at home.

Respectfully Yours,
JOHN McMURRAY.

U. F. O. to Contest the Two Norfolks

The Norfolk county executive of the U. F. O. and representatives of the farmer's clubs at a conference held in Simcoe on Saturday last, decided to place candidates in the next local elections. These will be selected at meetings to be held in Victoria on the 13th, and at Wingham Centre on the 14th inst.

It is conceded that T. R. Atkinson will seek re-election in the north. No reform candidate is yet in the field in the south. The Conservatives have made no move as yet. It is said that A. C. Pratt will come to Norfolk again as an Independent Conservative candidate. John S. Martin of Port Dover's looked upon by many as very well qualified to represent the south.
