Bailey - Jackson

On Tuesday, August 19th, 1919, guests to the number of about twenty met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Davidson to attend the wedding of their eldest daughter, Marion Remmige, to William John Bailey.

Promptly at twelve o'clock to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March played by Alberta Davidson, sister of the bride, the bride and groom met under an arch of evergreens and asters where the ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. L. Smith.

The bride, who was given away by her father, looked very beautiful in a gown of white silk with rose bead trimmings. She wore a veil and carried a bouquet of rose buds.

The bride was attended by Miss Bessie Bailey of Hagersville and the groom by Mr. Charles Davidson.

The groom's gift to the bride was a necklace set with a diamond and a ruby, the pianist and bridesmaid pearl pendants, and to the groomsmen a signet ring. Many and beautiful were the gifts received showing the esteem in which the couple were held.

After a sumptuous repast Mr. and Mrs. Bailey left for a trip to the Pacific Coast, stopping at many places in the west during the trip.

The bride's travelling suit was of reindeer brown cloth with hat to match. After returning they will be at home in Jarvis. Their many friends join in wishing them a long and happy life.
