Highway of the Great Divide

Between Banff, the popular summer resort in the Canadian Pacific Rockies and Lake Windermere, the headwaters of the great Columbia River, lies an Alpine ridge of spectacular beauty, forming part of the Great Divide. This ridge is penetrated by two comparatively easy passes, the Simpson, and the Vermilion which lead into the Valley of the Kootenay River, a region abundant in game on account of its being well south of the main line of the Canadian Pacific Railway.
