

FOR SALE

RE TO SELL YOUR... full particulars and... purchase whatever... J. D. Biggar, 26... Milton, Ont.

SHEEP AND HAY... 1,000,000 fine... five acres... garden... school, telephone... Canadian Northern Rail... radius 5 miles... electric wires... Dr. Barker, Inverary Island.

VALLEY FARMS... top prices for milk... estate... will pay you... We are not... Wheeler... N. Y.

OR SALE—34 MILES... on main... Reginald... school... pasture of about 100... good... frame house for hired... and additions... excellent water supply... $100 cash, balance... with interest at 7 per... M. G. Croome, Inverary, Sask.

FINE STOCK AND... Township of Arthur... 100 acres... good orchard... 20 acres hardwood... excellent cutting... for price, terms, for... J. & S. Mount... Mt. Pleasant, Ont.

THE TOWNSHIP OF... Wellington... cleared... in... new bank... two good wells... church, school... For details... 600 Crawford St.

CRES. NORTH HALF... Beverly, 15 miles... well fenced... first class condition... school, convent... Ont., R.R. No. 6.

10-50 ACRES NOR... miles from Simcoe... soil sandy loam... drainage... good walls, spring creek... will sell with or... and... in a splendid... Bros., R. R. No. 4.

LANEUS... PRESS MONEY ORD... in five thousand... Canada.

TY SHARES ANZAC... sixty cents each... W... street, Toronto.

REE GASOLINE EN... also drag saw and... will sell in or sep... O. Box 33, Montreal.

MARKET PLACE

AND MECHANICS... tools... Stamp your... We will make for... out from tool... time send... and the postage... are required send... Works, Watford.

BUILDERS.

Book of House Plans... how to save from... dollars on your new... Halliday Company, 21... Hamilton, Ontario.

STOCK.

NE (BLUE HOGS)... in color. The blue... an experiment. We... for twelve... grow very large... for information... The Blue Hog... Kings, Mass.

INGS FOR SALE.

$1,000 — COMFORT... cottage... comfortable... and one acre of... and vegetable... Main Falls. Also 200... and bush land. For... Angus A. McKinnon.

CHANCES

KRAMITH SHOP AT... opening for a good... business stand. Ap... R. No. 2, Glanford.

NATIONAL

ARK

College

for best results... N. Hamilton, Ont.

Shortland, Cleri... and Secretary... for Public School... School graduates... rates, etc. send... "A." In estimating... consider service... not price alone. If... that you pay; it is... that is vital to you... attention, individual... prepare our students... superior positions.

New students en... cheap in the end... Business College... F. W. Park... ONT.

Gondolas.

the end of the sev... the Venetian... its present simplicity... of color. A vain at... to introduce it... efforts at acclimatiz...

see how that fellow... laughing all the time... Wags—Yes; we can't even buy a...

A Budget of News From the Old Land

Mr. Robert Gladstone, ex-chairman of the Mersey Docks and Harbor Board has died, aged 88. For about £100,000 Swanses has bought the Singleton Estate from Lord Swanses for town improvements. Mr. John Mayo, for 30 years proprietor of the Castle Hotel, at East Molesey, a well known Thames-side hostelry, has died.

A Tobacco Prices Protest League for smokers willing to "strike" and force down prices is being formed at Croydon. Six brothers who came safely through the war were among the guests at a dinner given in their honor at a dinner given in their honor at Wycombe. Two other brothers are still on active service.

After 25 years' continuous service as curate and vicar of St. Mary-the-Less, Lambeth, the Rev. Canon Bromfield is resigning. For a grandfather clock in Chippendale mahogany case 245 guineas was paid at a sale of furniture at the George Hotel, near Bangor.

Floury electors propose presenting Lieut.-Colonel Archer-Shee, D. S. O., M. P., with a sword of honor in appreciation of his services in the war. "A man with a wife and children has a prior claim to the man who is going to be married," said Judge Perry in refusing an ejectment order at Lambeth County Court.

As the nucleus of an endowment fund Princess Louise (the Duchess of Argyll) has promised £1,250 War Loan to the Princess Louise Home, Kingston Hill, for friendless girls. Canon Power, Roman Catholic pastor of Kiltwoy, who has just died, was prominent in the land agitation of 40 years ago, and was a personal friend of Parnell, Davitt, Redmond and Dillon.

The national projectile factory at Birkley, County Durham, has been purchased by Sir William Angus Sanderson & Co., carriage builders, Newcastle, who propose to use it for the manufacture of motor cars. There has been a glut of fish at Scarborough. Fishermen said they had never known the market in a worse condition. The explanation given is that the North Sea is teeming with fish, which have multiplied during the war.

Mrs. Caroline Hughes has died at Selly Oak infirmary, Birmingham, aged 102. The Rev. R. J. Fletcher, preacher of Gray's Inn, is appointed Residency Canon, Bristol Cathedral. Supt. A. E. Rhodes, of Chatham, one of the best known police officers in Kent, has retired from the county constabulary after 35 years' service.

While mackerel-fishing 4 miles from Littlehampton, James Allen and his assistant secured a whale shark weighing 3 cwt. and measuring 9 feet. Ten members of one family went in to a bank at Camberwell, London, and to the astonishment of the clerks, each of them took £500 War Savings Certificates.

Mrs. Harper, Charlwood-road, Putney, had no fewer than 500 soldiers billeted on her house during the war, and as many of the boys as can be traced in England have been entertained at a Peace party. Mr. J. F. Cooke, stationmaster at Crewe, who has resigned his post after 50 years' service with the L. and N. W. Railway Company, was one of the seven stationmasters on that system who are entitled to wear a silk top hat when on duty.

The appeal of Thomas Foster, chair-maker, against sentence of death for the murder of his wife at Bethnal Green, was dismissed by the Court of Criminal Appeal. "I didn't know it," he exclaimed when being taken from the dock. The wife of a seaman on board His Majesty's ship Victory has given birth to triplets at Brighton.

A lover of Box Hill, near Dorking, has given a peace gift of £1,000 for further land to be added to the estate. The famous Block Book of the Apocalyptic Visions of St. John, circa 1460, very rare, at Sotheby's realized £950. Mr. Daniel Jones, a coal miner in a top hat when on duty.

The appeal of Thomas Foster, chair-maker, against sentence of death for the murder of his wife at Bethnal Green, was dismissed by the Court of Criminal Appeal. "I didn't know it," he exclaimed when being taken from the dock. The wife of a seaman on board His Majesty's ship Victory has given birth to triplets at Brighton.

A lover of Box Hill, near Dorking, has given a peace gift of £1,000 for further land to be added to the estate. The famous Block Book of the Apocalyptic Visions of St. John, circa 1460, very rare, at Sotheby's realized £950. Mr. Daniel Jones, a coal miner in a top hat when on duty.

The appeal of Thomas Foster, chair-maker, against sentence of death for the murder of his wife at Bethnal Green, was dismissed by the Court of Criminal Appeal. "I didn't know it," he exclaimed when being taken from the dock. The wife of a seaman on board His Majesty's ship Victory has given birth to triplets at Brighton.

A lover of Box Hill, near Dorking, has given a peace gift of £1,000 for further land to be added to the estate. The famous Block Book of the Apocalyptic Visions of St. John, circa 1460, very rare, at Sotheby's realized £950. Mr. Daniel Jones, a coal miner in a top hat when on duty.

The appeal of Thomas Foster, chair-maker, against sentence of death for the murder of his wife at Bethnal Green, was dismissed by the Court of Criminal Appeal. "I didn't know it," he exclaimed when being taken from the dock. The wife of a seaman on board His Majesty's ship Victory has given birth to triplets at Brighton.

A lover of Box Hill, near Dorking, has given a peace gift of £1,000 for further land to be added to the estate. The famous Block Book of the Apocalyptic Visions of St. John, circa 1460, very rare, at Sotheby's realized £950. Mr. Daniel Jones, a coal miner in a top hat when on duty.

The appeal of Thomas Foster, chair-maker, against sentence of death for the murder of his wife at Bethnal Green, was dismissed by the Court of Criminal Appeal. "I didn't know it," he exclaimed when being taken from the dock. The wife of a seaman on board His Majesty's ship Victory has given birth to triplets at Brighton.

A lover of Box Hill, near Dorking, has given a peace gift of £1,000 for further land to be added to the estate. The famous Block Book of the Apocalyptic Visions of St. John, circa 1460, very rare, at Sotheby's realized £950. Mr. Daniel Jones, a coal miner in a top hat when on duty.

The appeal of Thomas Foster, chair-maker, against sentence of death for the murder of his wife at Bethnal Green, was dismissed by the Court of Criminal Appeal. "I didn't know it," he exclaimed when being taken from the dock. The wife of a seaman on board His Majesty's ship Victory has given birth to triplets at Brighton.

A silver loving cup, 2 ft. in height and 20 lb. in weight, has been presented to Nottingham Corporation by several leading citizens as a peace gift. The cup, which cost £110, will be used at civic banquets.

The Rev. Francis St. John Thackeray first cousin of William Makepeace Thackeray, has died, aged 94, at Magdalenham, where he had been vicar for 35 years. He was for twenty-five years an assistant master at Eton College. Mr. Balfour was among his pupils.

Mr. Frederick William Stabbings, of Worle, Somerset, has celebrated his 104th birthday. He is well and can read and write without glasses. It is estimated that there are 148 people in the United Kingdom with incomes of over £100,000 a year, a gentleman proposes to establish an absolutely exclusive social club, entitled "The 148 Club."

Three young women born in the city, out of 29 applicants, have been selected by London Corporation for the marriage dowries of £12 each annually provided under the will of Signor Antonio Favre of the 14th Battalion, London Regiment.

A policeman named Swindell jumped fully dressed into the Wye at Ekevalley, Derbyshire, and rescued a woman and her child. The mother had jumped in to rescue her child but could not swim. Both were unconscious when saved.

While Private Woodward, East Surrey Regiment, was preparing to clean his rifle at the peace sports, the bullet passed through the head of Private Reginald Alfred Bell and both legs of another soldier. Bell was killed. At the inquest a verdict of accidental death was returned.

Five pens and pencils used by the Big Five in connection with the Peace Conference were sold by auction by Mr. George Grossmith at the Winter Garden Theatre, Drury-lane, in aid of King George's Fund for Sailors. They realized £253, the highest bid for M. Clemenceau's pencil being £125.

During the last quarter 20,357 rats' tails were received at police stations in Anglesey, and £127 was paid for them. Samuel Culling, of Borough Green, Kent, who lost his right arm at Loos, won the mile race (14 competitors) at the peace sports, the bullet passing through the head of Private Reginald Alfred Bell and both legs of another soldier. Bell was killed. At the inquest a verdict of accidental death was returned.

Five pens and pencils used by the Big Five in connection with the Peace Conference were sold by auction by Mr. George Grossmith at the Winter Garden Theatre, Drury-lane, in aid of King George's Fund for Sailors. They realized £253, the highest bid for M. Clemenceau's pencil being £125.

During the last quarter 20,357 rats' tails were received at police stations in Anglesey, and £127 was paid for them. Samuel Culling, of Borough Green, Kent, who lost his right arm at Loos, won the mile race (14 competitors) at the peace sports, the bullet passing through the head of Private Reginald Alfred Bell and both legs of another soldier. Bell was killed. At the inquest a verdict of accidental death was returned.

Five pens and pencils used by the Big Five in connection with the Peace Conference were sold by auction by Mr. George Grossmith at the Winter Garden Theatre, Drury-lane, in aid of King George's Fund for Sailors. They realized £253, the highest bid for M. Clemenceau's pencil being £125.

During the last quarter 20,357 rats' tails were received at police stations in Anglesey, and £127 was paid for them. Samuel Culling, of Borough Green, Kent, who lost his right arm at Loos, won the mile race (14 competitors) at the peace sports, the bullet passing through the head of Private Reginald Alfred Bell and both legs of another soldier. Bell was killed. At the inquest a verdict of accidental death was returned.

Five pens and pencils used by the Big Five in connection with the Peace Conference were sold by auction by Mr. George Grossmith at the Winter Garden Theatre, Drury-lane, in aid of King George's Fund for Sailors. They realized £253, the highest bid for M. Clemenceau's pencil being £125.

During the last quarter 20,357 rats' tails were received at police stations in Anglesey, and £127 was paid for them. Samuel Culling, of Borough Green, Kent, who lost his right arm at Loos, won the mile race (14 competitors) at the peace sports, the bullet passing through the head of Private Reginald Alfred Bell and both legs of another soldier. Bell was killed. At the inquest a verdict of accidental death was returned.

Five pens and pencils used by the Big Five in connection with the Peace Conference were sold by auction by Mr. George Grossmith at the Winter Garden Theatre, Drury-lane, in aid of King George's Fund for Sailors. They realized £253, the highest bid for M. Clemenceau's pencil being £125.

During the last quarter 20,357 rats' tails were received at police stations in Anglesey, and £127 was paid for them. Samuel Culling, of Borough Green, Kent, who lost his right arm at Loos, won the mile race (14 competitors) at the peace sports, the bullet passing through the head of Private Reginald Alfred Bell and both legs of another soldier. Bell was killed. At the inquest a verdict of accidental death was returned.

Five pens and pencils used by the Big Five in connection with the Peace Conference were sold by auction by Mr. George Grossmith at the Winter Garden Theatre, Drury-lane, in aid of King George's Fund for Sailors. They realized £253, the highest bid for M. Clemenceau's pencil being £125.

During the last quarter 20,357 rats' tails were received at police stations in Anglesey, and £127 was paid for them. Samuel Culling, of Borough Green, Kent, who lost his right arm at Loos, won the mile race (14 competitors) at the peace sports, the bullet passing through the head of Private Reginald Alfred Bell and both legs of another soldier. Bell was killed. At the inquest a verdict of accidental death was returned.

Five pens and pencils used by the Big Five in connection with the Peace Conference were sold by auction by Mr. George Grossmith at the Winter Garden Theatre, Drury-lane, in aid of King George's Fund for Sailors. They realized £253, the highest bid for M. Clemenceau's pencil being £125.

During the last quarter 20,357 rats' tails were received at police stations in Anglesey, and £127 was paid for them. Samuel Culling, of Borough Green, Kent, who lost his right arm at Loos, won the mile race (14 competitors) at the peace sports, the bullet passing through the head of Private Reginald Alfred Bell and both legs of another soldier. Bell was killed. At the inquest a verdict of accidental death was returned.

Five pens and pencils used by the Big Five in connection with the Peace Conference were sold by auction by Mr. George Grossmith at the Winter Garden Theatre, Drury-lane, in aid of King George's Fund for Sailors. They realized £253, the highest bid for M. Clemenceau's pencil being £125.

During the last quarter 20,357 rats' tails were received at police stations in Anglesey, and £127 was paid for them. Samuel Culling, of Borough Green, Kent, who lost his right arm at Loos, won the mile race (14 competitors) at the peace sports, the bullet passing through the head of Private Reginald Alfred Bell and both legs of another soldier. Bell was killed. At the inquest a verdict of accidental death was returned.

HAVE NO POWER TO SIGN TREATY

Surprise Sprung On Peace Conference by Austrians.

Must Take the Document to Vienna.

Paris Cable — The Austrian delegation told the Supreme Council today that it would be necessary for them to take the completed text of the treaty to Vienna and to submit it to the Assembly for approval before the delegates can sign it. This suggestion brought expressions of surprise from members of the Council, as it had been thought the Austrian delegation had full powers. The Council is urging the Austrians to make some arrangements to sign the treaty without taking it to Vienna.

The signing of the treaty, as a result of this unexpected development, it was said, may be postponed until well into September. The completed treaty text will not be given the Austrians, it is generally understood, for at least two weeks, and if the Austrians insist upon taking it to Vienna before signature, that may probably add ten days to the delay.

Premier Clemenceau, who has been on a brief vacation at La Vaudouze, is expected to return to Paris to-night, and to sit with the Supreme Council to-morrow. The Council is endeavoring to hasten completion of the Bulgarian and Hungarian treaties.

Whether man has had wealth or poverty, failure or success, counts for little when it is past. There is but one question for him to answer, to face boldly and honestly as an individual alone with his conscience and his destiny. "How will I let that poverty or wealth affect me? If that trial or deprivation has left me better, nobler, then poverty has been rich, failure has been a success."

FAILURE AS A SUCCESS.

Whether man has had wealth or poverty, failure or success, counts for little when it is past. There is but one question for him to answer, to face boldly and honestly as an individual alone with his conscience and his destiny. "How will I let that poverty or wealth affect me? If that trial or deprivation has left me better, nobler, then poverty has been rich, failure has been a success."

WEB FEET.

"I heard him call you 'Duckie!'" announced the small brother. "Well, what of it?" demanded his sister, defiantly. "Oh, nothing much," answered the small brother. "It was only thinkin' maybe it's because of the way you walk, but it ain't very nice of him."

WEB FEET.

"I heard him call you 'Duckie!'" announced the small brother. "Well, what of it?" demanded his sister, defiantly. "Oh, nothing much," answered the small brother. "It was only thinkin' maybe it's because of the way you walk, but it ain't very nice of him."

WEB FEET.

"I heard him call you 'Duckie!'" announced the small brother. "Well, what of it?" demanded his sister, defiantly. "Oh, nothing much," answered the small brother. "It was only thinkin' maybe it's because of the way you walk, but it ain't very nice of him."

WEB FEET.

"I heard him call you 'Duckie!'" announced the small brother. "Well, what of it?" demanded his sister, defiantly. "Oh, nothing much," answered the small brother. "It was only thinkin' maybe it's because of the way you walk, but it ain't very nice of him."

WEB FEET.

"I heard him call you 'Duckie!'" announced the small brother. "Well, what of it?" demanded his sister, defiantly. "Oh, nothing much," answered the small brother. "It was only thinkin' maybe it's because of the way you walk, but it ain't very nice of him."

WEB FEET.

"I heard him call you 'Duckie!'" announced the small brother. "Well, what of it?" demanded his sister, defiantly. "Oh, nothing much," answered the small brother. "It was only thinkin' maybe it's because of the way you walk, but it ain't very nice of him."

WEB FEET.

"I heard him call you 'Duckie!'" announced the small brother. "Well, what of it?" demanded his sister, defiantly. "Oh, nothing much," answered the small brother. "It was only thinkin' maybe it's because of the way you walk, but it ain't very nice of him."

WEB FEET.

"I heard him call you 'Duckie!'" announced the small brother. "Well, what of it?" demanded his sister, defiantly. "Oh, nothing much," answered the small brother. "It was only thinkin' maybe it's because of the way you walk, but it ain't very nice of him."

WEB FEET.

"I heard him call you 'Duckie!'" announced the small brother. "Well, what of it?" demanded his sister, defiantly. "Oh, nothing much," answered the small brother. "It was only thinkin' maybe it's because of the way you walk, but it ain't very nice of him."

WEB FEET.

"I heard him call you 'Duckie!'" announced the small brother. "Well, what of it?" demanded his sister, defiantly. "Oh, nothing much," answered the small brother. "It was only thinkin' maybe it's because of the way you walk, but it ain't very nice of him."

How Teddy Lost the Bear

They say a sore corn interfered with his speed. Always apply Putnam's Corn Extractor. For fifty years it has been known and wanted. Putnam's never fails. Use no other, 25c at all dealers.

The "Seckel" Pear.

G. D. Seckel Headman tells me: "The gentleman, for whom I was named, George David Seckel, brought a pear tree from France which he had planted on his farm and he named the fruit the 'seckel pear' after himself, as it was the first of the kind in this country. Mr. Seckel's city residence was on Walnut street below Fifteenth, where he died about the year 1860."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Queer Find at Pompeii.

A soap-beller's shop was among the things discovered in the excavation at Pompeii several years ago. The city was buried beneath volcanic ashes A. D. 79. It is said that the soap found in the shop had not lost all efficacy, although it had lain under the ashes more than 1,800 years. Soap making was quite a business in a number of the Roman cities at the time that Pompeii was destroyed.

It Will Cure a Cold.—Colds are the commonest ailments of mankind and if neglected may lead to serious conditions. Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil will relieve the bronchial passages of inflammation speedily and thoroughly and will strengthen them against subsequent attack. And as it eases the inflammation it will stop the cough because it always all irritation in the throat. Try it and prove it.

Failure as a Success.

Whether man has had wealth or poverty, failure or success, counts for little when it is past. There is but one question for him to answer, to face boldly and honestly as an individual alone with his conscience and his destiny. "How will I let that poverty or wealth affect me? If that trial or deprivation has left me better, nobler, then poverty has been rich, failure has been a success."

WEB FEET.

"I heard him call you 'Duckie!'" announced the small brother. "Well, what of it?" demanded his sister, defiantly. "Oh, nothing much," answered the small brother. "It was only thinkin' maybe it's because of the way you walk, but it ain't very nice of him."

WEB FEET.

"I heard him call you 'Duckie!'" announced the small brother. "Well, what of it?" demanded his sister, defiantly. "Oh, nothing much," answered the small brother. "It was only thinkin' maybe it's because of the way you walk, but it ain't very nice of him."

WEB FEET.

"I heard him call you 'Duckie!'" announced the small brother. "Well, what of it?" demanded his sister, defiantly. "Oh, nothing much," answered the small brother. "It was only thinkin' maybe it's because of the way you walk, but it ain't very nice of him."

WEB FEET.

"I heard him call you 'Duckie!'" announced the small brother. "Well, what of it?" demanded his sister, defiantly. "Oh, nothing much," answered the small brother. "It was only thinkin' maybe it's because of the way you walk, but it ain't very nice of him."

WEB FEET.

"I heard him call you 'Duckie!'" announced the small brother. "Well, what of it?" demanded his sister, defiantly. "Oh, nothing much," answered the small brother. "It was only thinkin' maybe it's because of the way you walk, but it ain't very nice of him."

WEB FEET.

"I heard him call you 'Duckie!'" announced the small brother. "Well, what of it?" demanded his sister, defiantly. "Oh, nothing much," answered the small brother. "It was only thinkin' maybe it's because of the way you walk, but it ain't very nice of him."

WEB FEET.

"I heard him call you 'Duckie!'" announced the small brother. "Well, what of it?" demanded his sister, defiantly. "Oh, nothing much," answered the small brother. "It was only thinkin' maybe it's because of the way you walk, but it ain't very nice of him."

WEB FEET.

"I heard him call you 'Duckie!'" announced the small brother. "Well, what of it?" demanded his sister, defiantly. "Oh, nothing much," answered the small brother. "It was only thinkin' maybe it's because of the way you walk, but it ain't very nice of him."

WEB FEET.

"I heard him call you 'Duckie!'" announced the small brother. "Well, what of it?" demanded his sister, defiantly. "Oh, nothing much," answered the small brother. "It was only thinkin' maybe it's because of the way you walk, but it ain't very nice of him."

WEB FEET.

"I heard him call you 'Duckie!'" announced the small brother. "Well, what of it?" demanded his sister, defiantly. "Oh, nothing much," answered the small brother. "It was only thinkin' maybe it's because of the way you walk, but it ain't very nice of him."

CROWN PRINCESS IS THE SMUGGLER

Who Tried to Send Big Sum From Germany

But Was Foiled by Police

London Cable — A Copenhagen despatch to the Exchange Telegraph says it is believed that the 20,000,000 marks, an attempt to smuggle which, from Berlin to Switzerland was frustrated by policemen in airplanes, belonged to the former Crown Princess. A highly-placed person has been arrested in connection with the attempt to take the money from the country.

Two women police agents recently learned, the despatch continues, that a person of high social position was drawing on the Berlin banks and endeavoring to get as much money in gold as possible.

The chief of police of Berlin, accompanied by Nuremberg police officials, have arrived by airplane at Weismann to report the case to President Ebert.

A Berlin despatch of Aug. 18 quoted the afternoon newspapers as saying that policemen in airplanes overtook an express train on which 20,000,000 marks were being smuggled out of the country, and arrested the smugglers at Nuremberg, Bavaria.

WEB FEET.

"I heard him call you 'Duckie!'" announced the small brother. "Well, what of it?" demanded his sister, defiantly. "Oh, nothing much," answered the small brother. "It was only thinkin' maybe it's because of the way you walk, but it ain't very nice of him."

WEB FEET.

"I heard him call you 'Duckie!'" announced the small brother. "Well, what of it?" demanded his sister, defiantly. "Oh, nothing much," answered the small brother. "It was only thinkin' maybe it's because of the way you walk, but it ain't very nice of him."

WEB FEET.

"I heard him call you 'Duckie!'" announced the small brother. "Well, what of it?" demanded his sister, defiantly. "Oh, nothing much," answered the small brother. "It was only thinkin' maybe it's because of the way you walk, but it ain't very nice of him."

WEB FEET.

"I heard him call you 'Duckie!'" announced the small brother. "Well, what of it?" demanded his sister, defiantly. "Oh, nothing much," answered the small brother. "It was only thinkin' maybe it's because of the way you walk, but it ain't very nice of him."

WEB FEET.

"I heard him call you 'Duckie!'" announced the small brother. "Well, what of it?" demanded his sister, defiantly. "Oh, nothing much," answered the small brother. "It was only thinkin' maybe it's because of the way you walk, but it ain't very nice of him."

WEB FEET.

"I heard him call you 'Duckie!'" announced the small brother. "Well, what of it?" demanded his sister, defiantly. "Oh, nothing much," answered the small brother. "It was only thinkin' maybe it's because of the way you walk, but it ain't very nice of him."

WEB FEET.

"I heard him call you 'Duckie!'" announced the small brother. "Well, what of it?" demanded his sister, defiantly. "Oh, nothing much," answered the small brother. "It was only thinkin' maybe it's because of the way you walk, but it ain't very nice of him."

WEB FEET.

"I heard him call you 'Duckie!'" announced the small brother. "Well, what of it?" demanded his sister, defiantly. "Oh, nothing much," answered the small brother. "It was only thinkin' maybe it's because of the way you walk, but it ain't very nice of him."

WEB FEET.

"I heard him call you 'Duckie!'" announced the small