U. S. SENATE'S COURSE STIFFENS THE GERMANS

Complete Transformation of Feeling Since Refusal to Ratify, and Now They Refuse to Sign the Protocol

Paris Cable — Germany has decided not to sign the protocol presented her by the Allies as a condition for putting the peace treaty into effect, the Peace Conference has been notified.

It was learned to-day that Baron Kurt von Lersner, head of the German delegation here, called on Secretary Dutasta, of the Conference, on Monday, and told him that Germany had made such a decision.

This attitude is taken as confirming the reports of a sharp reaction in Germany within the last fortnight. Trained observers of German developments have expressed to members of the Peace Conference the view that there has been a complete transformation of the situation in Germany, brought about, in their opinion, by the failure of the United States Senate to ratify the peace treaty.

These observers declare that while the vast majority of the Germans, before the Senate's adjournment, desired the peace treaty ratified as soon as possible, they are now supporting the Government's attitude in resisting the demands of the Allies for indemnity for the sinking of the German fleet at Scapa Flow, recompense for which was provided for in the protocol.

The question upon which the German representatives here, however, upon the trial of German officers accused of the commission of crimes in France and Belgium.

Thus far, it is stated, no indications have reached Paris of any disposition on the part of the Germans to modify their attitude.

The Supreme Council to-day addressed a note to Germany protesting against the increase of Germany's armament contrary to the provisions of the peace treaty.

Misquotations.

No book has contributed more to the general stock of misquotations than the Bible. No book exists in such a multitude of forms, which may account for some of the popular departures from the wording of the King James Version. But it is not easy to supply reasons for most people's habit of saying "In the sweat of thy brow" when the text reads "In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread." Why "the parting of the ways" "Bone of my bone, and flesh of my flesh" may be due to the desire for perfect parallelism. And the same explanation may hold for "Thus far shalt thou come, but no further," instead of "Hitherto shalt thou come." But why the general preference for "better part" when we are expressing told that "Marry hath chosen that good part?" The Vulgate, for whatever reason, says "the best part" — optimum part — often cited in the Middle Ages in proof of the superiority of the contemplative life, as represented by Mary, over the active life, symbolized by Martha. But apparently no such contrast was originally intended. Why, again, "a multitude of sins" when it is said of charity that it "shall cover the multitude of sins"? Perhaps there is no other reason save that the tongue is an unruly member, such at least the world agrees in calling it, though the Biblical text describes it as "an unruly evil." — Harry Ayres in the Review.

REPATRIATION ALL PRISONERS

Urged by Swiss Federal Council for Safety.

Social Danger If Men Not at Once Freed.

Berne cable says: An appeal for the repatriation of all war prisoners as yet held by the belligerents has been addressed to all nations which participated in the war by the Swiss Federal Council. Special reference is made to prisoners still in Siberia and in France, and also Russian prisoners remaining in Germany.

Recalling the work done in Switzerland during the war, looking to the alleviation of the condition of prisoners and the sufferings of all nations during the struggle, the Council's appeal says:

"It would be a social danger of the hundreds of thousands of prisoners still in captivity were allowed to remain prisoners any longer. It has been a whole year since the armistice was signed, and the state of mind which these men might be in when returning to their former homes might make them a menace to society, if their imprisonment is prolonged."

It urges that all the belligerent Governments immediately repatriate the war prisoners, so that, as far as possible, they may spend Christmas at their homes.

Cardinal Gasparri, the Papal Secretary, has replied to the Swiss Government, accepting the invitation, and promising to send a note to this effect to all the heads of the Governments concerned, including the King of Italy.

CHANGED TYPE OF LIVE STOCK

Canadians Expect to "Clean Up" in Sheep.

Chicago despatch: Live stock exhibitors at Canadian shows might well take a leaf from the book of their southern neighbors in connection with the preparing of live stock for exhibition. Although the bulk of the animals showing at the International Fat Stock Show here are no better than the average seen at Guelph or Ottawa with few exceptions, a great deal more care has been taken in preparing the beasts for the ring. This is particularly true in the case of the large class of Percherons and Belgian horses exhibited to-day. The animals, though many were off type from the breeders' standpoint, were all in pink of condition, fat and well groomed. The manes and tails were done up in ribbons and bamboo pins with more care than the ladies take with their hair. As pointed out by several live stock authorities from Ontario, this "fixing up" would be the deciding factor in a case where two animals were evenly matched.

According to J. J. Cridlan, of London, England, judging grade and cross-bred cattle, the Chicago International exceeds anything of a similar nature held in the old country as far as numbers are concerned, but in his opinion there is too much common stuff in the cattle line for an event of this kind.

"However," explained Mr. Cridlan in a short interview I had with him this morning, "there are some remarkably good toppers here also. The grade Hereford steer that won the Grand Championship yesterday, for instance, is one of the sleekest animals I have ever laid hand on."

Mr. Cridlan's opinion is also held by many visiting stockmen. Undoubtedly this is the largest live stock show yet held at Chicago. All classes are remarkably well filled, but it might improve the show to call out more of the poorer stuff by a system of feeders to the International before the latter opens.

There were some disappointments among the exhibitors when the prizes were awarded to-day. Men whose beasts have carried off many honors formerly were left out here. The only reason given is the changing of the type. Of course, there is some individual preference for different types on the part of the judges, but about all there is a distinct general change in many breeds. Take, for instance, the Belgian or Percheron breed of horse. It is a short talk with the Secretary of the Belgian Horse Society of the United States and Mr. G. G. Good of Guelph, Iowa, a noted breeder of Belgian horses, on this side of the "big," I was convinced that the type that had developed here are bigger every way and snappier than the horses being bred in Europe and are so superior to the imported animal that it is very doubtful whether there will be any more importations of these breeds from Europe.

Hogs, too, are changing. The old, low set, fat type of animal is meeting with disapproval at the modern show. Hogs which are carrying off the ribbons this year are those of the higher and longer type. It looks before long as if the bacon hog will be as popular in the States as in Canada.

About the only prize of interest to Canadian exhibitors to-day was the winning of fifth place in the aged shorthorn bull class by "Cam-paigns," owned by Robert Eastwood, of Long Branch, Ontario.

Sheep men will do well, according to Mr. Will Dryden, of Brooklyn, but no prices are known yet. The authority on sheep and cattle after carefully looking over the

REPORT VILLA IS HELD FOR REWARD

Juarez, Mex., Despatch. — Francisco Villa has been captured by a force of his own men, and is being held for a reward from the Mexican Government, according to advices received here late to-day by Superintendent Caballero, of the Chihuahua Division of the National Railways of Mexico.

Two Villa rebels are reported to have presented themselves at the Federal headquarters at Parral and notified the commander there that Villa had been captured and was being held for surrender to the Carranza forces. The State of Chihuahua has already offered 50,000 pesos as a reward.

"The river of Parana," declares the prospectus of a real estate agent in Parana, Brazil, "is the most watery in the world, it is the most extended in this state for ships of great profundity; it is also sufficiently fishy." The same cheerful chap it is who further asseverates that "the vegetable regin is excessively represented by resinous, oily and gummy plants."

The noblest motive is the public good. — Virgil.

SEEN PROTOCOL WHEN AMENDED

Huge Want Scapa Flow Referred to Hague.

Object to Paragraph Which Allows Invasion.

Paris Cable — Germany is willing to sign the protocol putting the peace treaty into effect, the moment certain clauses objectionable to her in the protocol are eliminated. Baron Kurt von Lersner, head of the German delegation here, told the Associated Press this afternoon.

When German plenipotentiary was shown the amended version this morning, that on Monday he had informed Paul Dutasta, secretary of the peace conference, that Germany had decided not to sign the protocol, Baron von Lersner said:

"I have full powers to sign the protocol, and am ready to sign it at any moment when the question of Scapa Flow is eliminated, and referred to The Hague, and when there are also eliminated the paragraph relating to the evacuation of Lithuania, which we consider already settled and final, and the paragraph which would permit the invasion of our country by armed forces in times of peace on any trivial pretext."

Baron von Lersner pointed out that this was the first time he had reached a newspaper correspondent here. He said he was consenting to talk in this instance only because he thought that an erroneous impression was being created by a misinterpretation of Germany's intentions.

"We have represented to the Supreme Council," he continued, "what we consider ample proofs that the German Government is not responsible for the sinking of the ships at Scapa Flow, and yet in order not to delay the final conclusion of peace we will submit the matter to The Hague tribunal."

The German plenipotentiary pointed out that the paragraphs of the protocol to which his Government objected were additions to the protocol as provided for in the Peace Treaty. While it was not true, he said, that Germany was seeking to profit from any circumstances to deny making the peace effective, she did not consider it possible to sign the additional clauses to the protocol unconditionally.

A Personal Question.

"Person," in the dictionaries is described as "an individual human being." But it is not so in England from a legal standpoint, as women do not come within the class. This was revealed recently when the Royal Astronomical Society of London decided to admit women as fellows of the council. The plan was found to be impossible until the society had its charter altered.

Eligibles for election in the society's by-laws were described as "persons" and when legal opinion was obtained it was decided that a "person" was strictly of the masculine sex. The change was made in the charter, and the clever women who had distinguished themselves in star science were admitted to the society.

ASK BOTH LAND AND INDEMNITY

Why Jugo-Slavia Has Not Signed Treaty.

Prince Regent Gives Views in Paris.

A Paris cable says: Prince Regent Alexander of Serbia, who came to Paris yesterday in connection with the situation over the Austrian treaty, which the Jugo-Slav state has not yet signed, declared to-day that the allies ought to see that his nation should not be asked to sign new engagements without the last moment.

He was referring to the annex to the treaty submitted for signature, which contained a provision setting off the debts of the new parts of the kingdom against the indemnities due Serbia. This, Prince Alexander declared, was incontrovertibly a new provision. "We are obliged to make this declaration," said Prince Alexander, "while holding sentiments of the utmost devotion to our friends and allies, but conscious of our responsibility toward our people. They desire to be useful members of the society of nations, and they will be such if we and our friends alike bear in mind the principle, 'No one can be compelled to do the impossible.'"

Blow of a Whale's Tail.

Ask ten persons what is the strongest animal force in the world and nine will reply that it is the blow of a lion's paw. The tenth man may express the belief, based on experience, that it is the kick of a Missouri mule.

As a matter of fact, the blow of a whale's tail is incomparably the strongest animal force. A blow delivered by a full grown whale placed at just the right distance would smash in the side of a wooden ship as though it were an eggshell.

The second strongest force is the kick of a giraffe, and this terrible kick is adequate protection to these otherwise helpless animals. The stroke of the lion's paw comes third on the list.
