One of the most successful concerts ever held by Knox Sunday School was that of Friday evening last, The great regret of the committee is that many could not | For the gain admission owing to the lack of accommodation.

The main feature was the play "Blundering Billy" which was staged by the Hagersville High School Dramatic Club. The cast of characters was as follows :-Ezra Tuttle, Harold Davidson; Dorothy Tuttle, Jean Forsythe: Clarissa Burnham, Grace Jennings; Blundering Billy James Porcer; Hank Dibble, Continey Porter; Woyo, Laura Christie; Sing Foy, Stanley Douglas; The Lieucenent, F. Dusty; Stage Manager and Prompter. Miss Blain

It was indeed one of the best amateur ropaction ever staged in Jarvis and showed careful study and training. All the participants did their parts splendidly Two excellent piano duetts were given by Misses Miller and MacMurchy and Messrs. Porter and Walter, Chorus, dem, scout song and recitations by the ttle tots made up a most enjoyable even ing's entertainment. Mr. F. Lishman Principal of the Hagersville High School filled the chair most acceptably.
