BANFF IN CARNIVAL TIME

playground. In one aspect the visitor will find the amusement of both combined in the hot sulphur springs, which gives one the privilege of swimming out in the open with the thermometer above, or twenty below zero, in hot liquid, but warm water. The spirit of the Carnival will again have full sway throughout the town, and those who arrive at night will feel the pages of many books have at last become a part of their lives; for they are in a veritable tiny miniature fairyland. Colored lights are to be strung across the streets, down the toboggan slide, and on the rinks in thousands, giving the gala affect so desired.

The ice palace will as usual be the centre of attraction. The style is one which will be admired by all who see it. Hundreds of lights shining through the blue green of enormous blocks of ice, produce an effect that can readily be imagined to be very lovely; and most harmonious with the dark pines around, the clear blue sky and the mountains in the background.

Those only in town a few moments will suddenly be attracted by bells, shouting, singing, etc. When their eyes follow the sound, another spot of this Fairyland will be revealed. Two rows of many colored lights and flaming torches mark the route of the toboggan slide.

The list of amusements is a long one. There are the hockey and curling matches, toboggan races, snow shoe and ski races. The ski jump, which this year promises to be one of the best, will be a real jump, and the toboggan slide, which is being improved, will again be claimed as Canada taking part in the competitions. The Peay Ski races are, of course, on the programme, and will no doubt create the usual excitement. Snow shoe tramps equally as interesting as last year have been planned where lunch will be served at Game Warden's Cabin. These tramps are conducted by men who know every inch of the country. Masquerade balls bring the items on the programme to a close.

Those who imagine the world in the mountains to be a dead one in winter, will have a pleasant surprise. Rivers, brooks, cataracts and falls are all pursuing their merry course, as in summer, except in perhaps very occasional spots. The animals are not huddled up inside their burrows or seeking shelter away from the world to escape "this awful winter," but roam around as in summer (except the bears) deer, goats, Rocky Mountain sheep, and coyotes are to be seen, also winter birds of several varieties. Banff dead in winter? No, indeed, and very soon it will be more alive than ever, for instead of hundreds there will be thousands come to see the "Top of the World" in winter. Let those who come this winter enjoy Nature in all the beauty of her winter garb—or enter into any of her competitions for the many lovely prizes the residents of Banff are giving for the true sport and joy amusement; and those same who will again be claimed as other Carnivals.—E. C. M.

BANFF will again be a fete for its for the Mardi Gras, Pasadena for the Carnival, and Rio de Janeiro for the Tournament, or Continental Carnival, or the 1924. These cities and towns when they are on the programme to visit Banff, the National Resort, will find Banff the centre of winter sports, and the most harmonious with the dark pines around, the clear blue sky and the mountains in the background.
