

by the Sth Regiment of Royal Highlanders of Canada (the "Black Watch") for service overseas. They were part of the original First. Regiment of Royal Englianders of Ganada (the Black Water) for service everseds. They were part of the original First seguificant welcome home in Canada.

Medair, Capt. G. E. McCuaig, Lt. W. S. M. MacTier, Capt. G. M. Drummond, Lt. E. M. Sellon, Capt. K. M. Perry, Lt. C. B. Pit-

G. Cameron, Capt. L. W. Whitehead, Capt. C. N. McCuaig, Capt. H. F. Walker, Lt. J. G. Ross.
C. Norsworthy, Lt.-Col. F. O. W. Loomis, Major V. C. Buchanan, Capt. T. S. Morrisey, Capt. W. H. Clark-Kennedy, 1. Officers 13th Canadian Battalion, encamped on Salisbury Plain in 1915 before leaving for France.

mond, of the 13th, arriving at Valcartier in 1914. 7. One of the Field Pieces in Action in Flan-8. Group of 13th Battalion N. C. O.'s with the Regimental Mascot, "Billy." Royal Highlanders of Canada, were time.

> thaction and one has gained promotion to command of a brigade. One commands a division. Many more, with names that are household words in Canada's commercial capital, have in Canada's commercial capital, have teenth ild some splentid work in occupying and consolidating four teenth ild some splentid work in occupying and consolidating four time or ators which straightened at their objective thousand its teenth ild some splentid work in occupying and consolidating four time work at Viny Ridge was to be the next eduction of the Thirteenth. For eachs up to that April day of Victorial Control of the Cont The mud of Salisbury was sood training for what was in store for them in France and Flanders. In November the battalion was inspected by the King and Queen and by Lord Roberts and Lord Kitchener. "Bobs" admiration of the Highland-research by the King and Lord Kitchener. "Bobs" admiration of the Highland-research by the King and Lord Kitchener. "Bobs" admiration of the Highland-research by the King and Lord Kitchener. "Bobs" admiration of the Highland-research by the King and Lord Kitchener. They could be accompanized to the Highland-research by the King and Lord Kitchener. "Bobs" admiration of the Highland-research by the King and Lord Kitchener. "Bobs" admiration of the Highland-research by the King and Lord Kitchener. "Bobs" admiration of the Highland-research by the King and Lord Kitchener. "Bobs" admiration of the Highland-research by the King and Lord Kitchener. "Bobs" admiration of the Highland-research by the King and Lord Kitchener. "Bobs" admiration of the Highland-research by the King and Lord Kitchener. "Bobs" admiration of the Highland-research by the King and Lord Kitchener. "Bobs" admiration of the Highland-research by the King and Lord Kitchener. "Bobs" admiration of the Highland-research by the King and Lord Kitchener. "Bobs" admiration of the Highland-research by the King and Lord Kitchener. "Bobs" admiration of the Highland-research by the King and Lord Kitchener. "Bobs" admiration of the Highland-research by the King and Lord Kitchener. "Bobs" admiration of the Highland-research by the King and Lord Kitchener. "Bobs" admiration of the Highland-research by the King and Lord Kitchener. "Bobs" admiration of the Highland-research by the King and Lord Kitchener. "Bobs" admiration of the Highland-research by the King and Lord Kitchener. "Bobs" admiration by the King and Lord Kitchener. "Bobs" admiratio holding back the Huns. By March war to celebrate Christmas. port for a time. On the 24th the F. O. W. Leomis was promoted to tured German howitzers and had a Highlanders relieved a Reitigh hat. F. O. W. Leomis was promoted to marry plents fining at a large relieved. Highlanders relieved a British bat- Brigadier, and Major Buchanan was the flexing Cormon of the Plantage of of the French line held by Algerian While holding battalion sports troops. As the Germans showed litter word came that the line had broken, the signs of activity, the merning of and, hustling into their equipment, were again in a heavy attack. nan infantry in dense masses. The went turtner torward in dangle copies (Cite St. Elizabeth and held on while, yellow cloud proved to be chloride and until June 7 held their posts in other Canadians completed the vicgas, hitherto barred from civilized that wood of death against many attorious operation which gave us anwarfare, and under this new and done. After a sucrementary again other mile of enemy defences and terrible scourge the Algerian line were in a great counter-attack, this closed in tighter the pincers that groke, leaving the Thirteenth flank time on June 13. The Thirteenth ripped Lens. Four German diviexposed. The position was in any was held up for a considerable time tions were put out of action in that exposed. The position was in any was need up to a constant finally fight and the enemy's later vain versed by the Poelcapelle Road, and won their objective near Hill 62. The counter-attacks. The losses of the the Germans actually penetrated to battalion took hundreds of prisciners ucky Thirteenth were less that the Germans actually penetrated to many in hard bayonet our hundred killed and wounded. cived by dawn, when a skilful retire- become famous. After another tour suited in the capture of Pascherment was effected towards the right of the trenches, this time at Mount daele the Thirteenth did not have the ment was effected towards the right of the battalion, with its brigade, breavy share. They were continually St. Julien and the original front. A Their adventures there began with day of terrible shell fire followed, the capture of the ridge which ran notable for deeds of magnificent north-west of Courcelette to the famheroism, including that of Lance ous Schwaben Redoubt. To get to Corporal Fred Fisher, which wen the their positions through the fire-Canadian during this war. Three one of the most cruel and discommendate of fighting had passed before went through. Those rainy nights the communication of the communication of the most cruel and discommendate and valer form the days of fighting had passed before went through. Those rainy nights first Victoria Cross recorded to a raked communication trenches was Regarded as the doyen of Canada's will a very weak, though untamed was not easily held, and the This tions of the Old Country's famous and reinforce. Nova Scotia and It was on this night that Lieut:-Ca.

2. Camouflaged Gun captured from the Ger-

5. Brigadier-General (photo taken when he

6. Lt.-Col. (now Major-General) F. O. W. oomis, Capt. G. E. McCuaig, Capt. Guy Drum-

nans by the 13th Battalion, R. H. C. . 3. The Men "Over There." 4. Col. D. Rybert McCunig.

was Captain) G. E. McCuaig.

full share of honors gained, include est fighting. They came up under ing four Victoria Crosses, and a heavy shell fire from Indian village, took ever command. proud record won in every action followed through the Sixteenth who had won the fringe of the orchard in the afternoon charge, cleaned out the remaining. Some of their original officers have won distance and one has gained promotion to command of a brigade. One the properties of the care Placesteert and its took ever command.

In October the battalion went to the Warloy sector and were in the warloy sector and were in the tremaining machine-gun nests of the remaining machine-gun nests of the remaining through with their original officers have won distance of the original officers have won distance of the original officers have won distance of the original officers have went distance of the warloy sector and were in the warloy sector and were in the visit of the warloy sector and were in the visit of the warloy sector and were in the visit of the warloy sector and were in the visit of the warloy sector and were in the visit of the warloy sector and were in the visit of the warloy sector and were in the visit of the warloy sector and were in the visit of the warloy sector and were in the visit of the warloy sector and were in the visit of the warloy sector and were in the visit of the warloy sector and were in the visit of the warloy sector and were in the visit of the warloy sector and were in the visit of the warloy sector and were in the warloy sector and were in the visit of the warloy sector and were in the visit of the warloy sector and were in the visit of the warloy sector and were in the visit of the warloy sector and were in the visit of the warloy sector and were in the visit of the warloy sector and were in the visit of the warloy sector and were in the visit of the warloy sector and were in the visit of the warloy sector and were in the visit of the warloy sector and were in the visit of the warloy sector and were in the visit of the warloy sector and were in the visit of the warloy sector and were in the visit of the warloy sector and were in the visit of the visit of the visit of the visit of the v

They are now returning with their Thirteenth were again in the thick-death after the explosion. Major G.

ed by men who served under them, and I have been told that the Thirteentage of men who gained commissions on the field of any Canadian battalion.

mine crators which straightened out in the of the Thirteenta. For machine the line.

Christman their first in the war, tory the battalion was hard at work came and the field of any Canadian battalion.

The Highlanders who before the attack they marched to were now in the Steenbook sector, their positions. The Highlanders hear the Germans sin ing Christmas runneled in thousands of dazed prints was expressed in a special order hymns to the accompaniment of a chers. Several companies were sent wailing cornet which some homesick up to the help of the Four's ruary, after a farewell by the King, the division embarked for France. Hun was playing. Another party which found Davarian Guards operated the division embarked for France. Wulverghem road but was not so lighting they turned the scale to them. A swift, business-like inspection by Lord French, then Commander-in-Chief, and they were swept forward to the brown line that was only just holding back the Huns. By March rades who had fought so well and though the Thirteenth was in support for a time. On the 24th the On the night of April 21st, the sight and trench raids were the lot line from Farbus they could see that the Sector at Ypres immession and Hooge.

Drigames, and trench raids were the lot line from Farbus they could see into Lens and Avion, where the later spent many months in that great seige the Canadians keepsilon.

the 22nd (a bright, sunny day), was spent in repairing the trenches. Suddenly at about 3 o'clock, a terrific although dead tired, volunteered for learning shell fire deligration. The state of the stat dealy at about 3 o'clock, a terrific although dead tired, volunteered for went across No Man's Land in the decay and Canadian lines. A greenish yelloway artillery fire at the famous prisoners with very light casualties.

In the counter-atand Canadian lines. A greenish yel- heavy arthery the at the familiar prisoners with very light casualties. low cloud floated along the ground Manor House. In the counter-atThen they plunged into the little. low cloud floated along the ground blanor House. In the counter-at-lowards the former, followed by Geriack of the next day the highlanders groups of workmen's cottages of the man infantry in dense masses. The went further forward in Maple Copse Cite St. Elizabeth and held on whilegas, hitherto barred from civilized that wood of death against the same torious operation which gave us and warfare, and under this new and acks. After a short rest they again other mile of enemy defences and in the support lines thee ran through: "ngemarch just under the ridge d did fine work in keeping open ommunications ov r that merass e. eath.

On the third day their division British reinforcements passed went through. Those rainy nights fresh German counter-attacks and through the sadiy thinned but still under heavy shell fire in the brick-fresh German counter-attacks and fields in front of Albert will never rushed several of those terrible cothrough the sadiy thinned but still under neary such like the sadiy thinned but still under neary such like the sadiy thinned but still under neary such like the sadiy thinned but still under neary such like the sadiy thinned but still under neary such like the sadiy thinned but still under neary such like the sadiy thinned but still under neary such like the sadiy thinned but still under neary such like the sadiy thinned but still under neary such like the sadiy thinned but still under neary such like the sadiy thinned but still under neary such like the sadiy thinned but still under near the sadiy thinned several of those terrible continues the sadiy thin the sadiy the sadiy the sadiy the sadiy the sadiy the sadiy thinned several of the sadiy t be forgotten by the survivors in the But the two other brigades of the eeeth.

After 2 few days' rest in divisional battalion. The attack on the Schwa- First Division shared the bulk of the reserve the battalion again went into ben began on September 26. The hard fighting and the Highlanders the line, suffering very heavy casupifteenth and Fourteenth Battallons came out of that costly had taken the Kencra Trench, but it considerable casualties.

end r reade: lake miles

> thirty illustre caught Real of the resides

Cranbe Club. Creabi buted: 12,000 mior 2,000 t