Mr. and Mrs. Highwood and Miss Dorothy of Hamilton visited at Prospect Farm on Monday last.

Mr. Geo. Seord spent the week end with friends in Windsor and Detroit.

Mr. Bruce Steinloth has purchased a new hoggie for his son. Look out for the Mad George.

Some of the farmers are talking of starting seeding in a day or two. May 28th, 1919. Paste that in the top of your hat for history!

Shrubs and plants can be set or transplanted on days to wet to work on the land. Beautify and clean up the surroundings and make the dwelling a real home. That's what D. Seord and sons are doing at "Prospect Farm".

We understand at time of writing that Mr. Ira Vail has purchased a farm near Lyndale and expects to move soon.

Pte. W. E. Seord who is spending a few weeks in Hamilton spent Monday at Prospect Farm with his parents.

D. Seord received a letter on Monday last from Sapper Lea M. Porter.

Satford Camp, Sussex, Eng., May 12th. Dear Friend and Brother,

I now take the pleasure in trying to write a few lines to-day as I have been a bit puzzled just what to do to put in the time. Well Dan, I am still roaming around England as yet but expect to get away from here this month. expect sailing to Canada sometime in June. I hope I can get back so as I can have 1st of July in Canada again.

I have been in camps here since the 2nd of February and am getting well fed up with it by now, but still we have to take of course. I suppose you will know by now that I have tied the knot or married, if it had not been for that I would have been back in Jarvis before now but you know a fellow does some foolish things at times.

I suppose George is on the Wabash so remember me to him the next time you see him. I suppose the rest of them are growing up pretty rapidly. Well Dan I am glad to say that I have come through this war without a scratch. So far there are still riots going on over here in the Canadian camps the cause of it has been on account of not getting the men home soon enough. Well Dan please excuse these few short lines as news are pretty scarce at present so remember me to the boys of the C.O.F. and the family as well. Will have to ring off, hoping you are well as it leaves me O. K. I remain as ever, your friend and brother,
Sapper Lea M. Porter.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Anderson spent from Friday till Monday with relatives in Brantford.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith and children spent Sunday at Mr. Elgin Mason's.
