Faith.
We had a new experience the other day when we picked up two boatloads of survivors from the torpedoed without warning. I will say they were pretty glad to see us when we bore down on them. As we neared, they began to paddle frantically, as though fearful we should be snatched away from them at the last moment. The crew were modestly Arabes and Lascars, and the first mate, a typical comic-magazine Irishman, delivered himself of the following: "Sure, toward the few, some of them haythins gits down on their knees and starts calling on Allah; but I sez, sez I: 'Git up before I swee ye wid the az-handle, ye heighthin haythins; sure if this big boat gits saved 'twill be the Holy Virgin does it or none at all, at all! Git up, sez I.'—An American Officer, in the Atlantic.

Peculiar Properties of Musk.
The musk of commerce comes from the greater part, from Tachieniu, a town in China, that is known as the "Gateway to Tibet." Three thousand pounds of this odorous substance is exported annually. The bulk of it goes to France, where it is used to manufacture perfume. Musk is an essential ingredient of almost all perfumes.
Musk has certain radioactive properties that cause the odor of the perfume to be carried through the air in a very extraordinary way. The radioactive property of musk affects the natives who carry it to market very strangely. If a package of musk is held close to the body for any length of time it produces sores that

BABY'S OWN TABLETS
Mrs. Alfred Naud, Natagira River, Que. writes: "I do not think there is any other medicine to equal Baby's Own Tablets for little ones. I have used the mfor my baby and would use nothing else." What Mrs. Naud says thousands of other mothers say. They have found by trial that the Tablets always do just what is claimed for them. The Tablets are a mild but thorough laxative which regulate the bowels and sweeten the stomach and thus banish indigestion, constipation, colic, colds, etc. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

MOULD IS LOVELY.
That On Preserved Fruit, Under Microscope.
Mould over jelly or preserved fruit is justly regarded as a pest; yet scientists who have studied it under the microscope declare that the mould plant is a most lovely creation. These plants are associated in our minds with death and decay, and so an unreasoning prejudice has developed against them. In many cases they do accompany decay, but as the lily rises above the roughest pond, so a mould may develop its frostlike sameness and cleanliness, its exquisite coloring, in the midst of putrefaction. Mould plants will thrive also in the cleanest soil, and they are wholly harmless.
The most common of the moulds is the Penicillium glaucum, well known to housekeepers as the fungus against which a fight is made at canning time. It first forms a greyish green mat and, if removed, gives forth a fine, powdery dust. Under the microscope it is a wonderful thing, but housekeepers are probably less interested in its form than in methods of combating it.
In their struggles for existence the plants are very hardy and obstinate, and nature has provided them with a way of upsetting the most careful plans for their undoing. The spores, which take the place of seeds, some times for a reason thus far unknown to science, pass into a resting stage. Instead of sprouting at once, they lie dormant for an indefinite period and germinate apparently at their own will. One scientist has found that a spore may lie quiescent for two years and then, under favorable conditions of heat and moisture, develop into a sturdy growth.

Islands in Pawn.
The Orkney Islands do not really belong to Great Britain in the sense that they were ever ceded by treaty or acquired by conquest. They were simply transferred by Denmark to Scotland in 1468 in pledge for the payment of the dowry of the Princess of Denmark, who was married to James III, King of Scotland.
In the deed of transfer, which is still in existence, it is specially mentioned that Denmark shall have the right to redeem them at any future time by paying the original amount of the dowry with interest to date.
There is no likelihood, however, that Denmark will ever attempt to exercise her right of redemption, because 60,000 florins, the original amount of the dowry, would amount to perhaps a trillion of pounds sterling, and that is a bit more than the

Specially Good Sandwiches.
Try mint and cucumber sandwiches. Dip thin slices of cucumber in French dressing.
Put these on slices of buttered bread; sprinkle with chopped fresh mint.
Fig sandwiches are tasty and wholesome and may be made with fig paste. To prepare the paste, use one-half pound of chopped figs and one-quarter cup of granulated sugar.
And water barely sufficient to cover; cook in a double boiler, and when done add one tablespoon lemon juice.
Delicious fillings for sandwiches are made by mixing orange marmalade, chopped nuts and cream cheese; or by chopping a small bottle of stuffed olives, two sweet peppers and one-quarter pound English walnut meat, and adding to cream cheese.

The First American Cent.
Vermont was the first state to issue copper cents. In June 1785, she granted the authority to Reuben Harmon, Jr., to make money for the state for two years. In October of the same year, Connecticut granted the right to coin 10,000 pounds in copper cents, known as the Connecticut cent of 1785. Massachusetts, in 1786, established a mint and coined $60,000 in cents and half cents. In the same year New Jersey granted the right to coin $10,000 at fifteen coppers to the shilling. In 1871 the continental congress directed Robert Morris to investigate the matter of Governmental coinage. He proposed a standard based on the Spanish dollar, consisting of 100 units, each unit to be called a cent. His plan was rejected. In 1874, Jefferson proposed to Congress that the smallest coin should be of copper, and that 200 of them should pass for one dollar. The plan was adopted, but in 1786, 100 was substituted. In 1792 the coinage of copper cents, containing 264 grains, and half cents in proportion, was authorized their weight was subsequently reduced. In 1863, the nickle cent was substituted and the half cent discontinued and in 1864 the bronze cent was introduced, weighing forty-eight grains and consisting of 95 per cent of copper, and the remainder of tin and zinc.

Worth Remembering.
When an express package is to travel a long distance it is a good idea to sew it up in unbleached cotton before wrapping it.
Rubbing the eyebrows with a very little vaseline, following the lines of the brow, will increase their growth.
A little turpentine is a good thing to remove stains from ivory knife handles. Use a few drops on a bit of flannel, rub firmly, then polish.
When the white of an egg refuses to stiffen in making cake, stir in a little powdering.
Buttermilk with freshly grated horseradish will remove a light case of freckles.
Clean your brass bed with a little kerosene then polish with a little whiting, using a chamois for the purpose.
When the white of an egg refuses to stiffen, in making cake, stir in a little baking powder.
Buttermilk with freshly grated horseradish will remove a litge case of freckles.
An easy way to wipe down walls is to take a good-sized roll of cotton batting and fasten it on the end of a long stick. As the cotton becomes soiled, it can be peeled off and the work continued without delay.
Heating the House.
The proper temperature for various rooms of the home are as follows: The living room should be 70 degrees, no more. It does not become close, but the doors should be kept closed into the hall. The dining room and kitchen should be heated to 65 degrees. Most kitchens rise higher than that. The bedrooms should be heated not at all, except for the little time that the occupants use them for dressing. The bathroom should be made as warm as you choose and the halls should be given no special heat, as we are always exercising when we are going through them.
From no place can you exclude the Fates.—Martial.
