The Sultan's decree, according to the version received by the French authorities, outlines a policy which appears to embody an endeavor to each an understanding with the Nationalists.

According to the Intransigeant, the esignation of the Cabinet of Damad Ferid Pasha was the result of the iltimatum from General Mustapha Kemal, the Nationalist leader, who nas set up a new Government at Erzerum, and has issued a call for elections to a new national Parliament to meet at that place, away rom the influence of the Entente. following the occupation of Konieh, n Southern Asia Minor, which is connected by railroads with Constantinople (Asiatic side), and smyrna, Mustapha Kemal called upon Damad Ferid to resign with his entire

The capture of Konieh and the etirement of Damad Ferid's Cabinet n response to the ultimatum, will, it thought, give fresh impetus to the Nationalist movement and increase he dangers of the situation, even hough the country may not be able lo support important military operaions. Some papers believe that massacres are almost sure to follow the present anarchy, and that even the brone is threatened by latest developments in Turkey.

The noon papers regard the Cabinet change as a last warning to the Supreme Council, and will ask wheher it is time for a superficial invesfigation as to the will of the populaion of Asia Minor.

The new Grand Vizier is All Riza

The reseript of the Sultan defines the mission of the new Cabinet as deing to arrange for the holding of elections and convene the Parliament.

TIRED MOTHER'S TERRIBLE DEED

Sends Her Two Children to a Slow Death

And Watches Effect of Deadly Drug.

Pontiac, Despatch.—Giving as a reason for her act that her two golden-baired little girls, Snirley, aged eight, and Edna, six, "worried" her, because she feit too tired to attend to their wants at bedtime, Mrs. Hazel Leukart, aged 29. who, with her husband, lives on a small place between the village of Royal Oak and Pontiac, poisoned them both. In capsules she forced each to swallow a slow, insidious poison that paralyzes its victims and steals with slow march upon the heart, which it finally stills. Those so doomed to die feel no pain, but a great lassitude. They retain consciousness to Shirley, the elder, is expected to die within a few hours. Eda has but three or four days to live, declare the doctors. Mrs. Leukart was arrested to-day and taken to Detroit after she had made a ful confession to the assistant prosecuting attorney of Oakland county. She told the prosecutor she had had the poison in her house for a fong time, and was aware that it would bring slow, lingering leath to those who took it. On the morning of September 28 it came to me like a flash from hell that the best way for the children was to put them where they could not bother me any more," said the woman in her confession Then I went to the medicine cabinet and took the poison and gave it to Shirley and Edna. They vomited it up the first time, but I put four of the pellets in capsine, but I put four of the penets in cap-sures so they could not taste them, and then gave them some milk to wash them down with. All that night I watched them and prayed that they would die. I them and prayed that they would die.

If the property is the morning I realized what I had done, but there was no help then. I told a neighbor what I had done, and then the doctor came."

From September 29 until yesterday, when the continued illness of the two children and their refusal to yield to the ordinary course of treatment caused the attending physician to become suspicious, the little victims each day became Sharp cross-questioning established the fact that the mother was aware of the nature of the trouble. She had, at first, declared both girls had eaten green pears and it was for this they had been treated by the physician.

LOST INDIAN TRIBE

Spain.

When in 1494, on his accord voyage. Columnus discovered the island of Jamalea, it was populated by the Arawak Indians, who, asthough at first hostile to him, became friendly on his giving them clothing and other articles hitherto unknown to them. the Island they forced the Indians not only to do agricultural work in their own island, but, to labor in the gold manes of Hayti. So hard were the Spanish taskmasters that by 1558 the whole Arawak nation was extermin-

During the past eight years efforts have been made, under the auspices of a scientific society, to recover all possible traces of the lost race. To that end explorations have been made in the old kitchen middens, or refuse heaps, of the Arawaks, in which there have been found, besides shells and pottery and fish, turtle and cony cones, many celts, or rude chizels, grinding stones, stone pendants and axes-1,500 objects in all, whichh have been given to the American Museum of Natural History in New York city. To the anthropologist the most interesting objects are the cylindrical stone pendants, which are fashioned with sand and stone and endless rubbing. Pendants of exactly the same sort are worn to-day as insignia of office by chiefs or headmen or tribes in northern South America.

Women and Asthma. Women are numbered among the sufferers from asthma by the countless thousands. In every climate they will be found, helpless in the grip of this relentless disease unless they have availed themselves of the proper remedy. Dr. J. D. PLOWING NOW WELL ADVANCED Comparatively Large Acre age of New Fall Wheat.

Toronto despetch -The following is a summary or reports made by Agricultural Representatives to the Untario Department of Agriculture; -

Plowing and other fall work is more advanced than usual, as timely rains caused the land to work up nicely, and the weather generally has been remarkably open for field activities generally.

The new fall wheat has a comparatively large acreage, and is looking well. That sown late has been favored with suitable weather for a good start.

Roots are making great growth with moist and warm weather. Pastures have revived greatly with the recent rains, but rather too late to have much effect upon the milk

Feed will be comparatively scarce this coming winter, and this, with the siump in prices, has resulted in a coasiderable number of cattle and hogs being put on the market in an unfinished condition. Oxford points out that hogs in that county have dropped in value from $24.25 to $16.50 a cwt, in less than eight weeks. Little pigs have also fallen off greatly in value. Oxford ans fifty per cent., while Lennox and Addington state that six and eight week old pigs are offering at $4 each. Less grain is being marketed Lambton than usual, and the representative is of the opinion that met of the barley and oats will be kept on the farm for feeding purposes. Peel reports that three more tractors have gone into the township of Chinguacousy during the week.

If Miller's Worm Powders needed the support of testimonials they could be got by the thousands from mothers who know the great virtue of this excellent medicine. But the powders will speak for themselves and in such a way that there can be no question of them. They act speedily and thoroughly, and the child to whom they are administered will show improvement from the first dose.

Some Yukon Flowers.

Pot plants, such as geraniums. sauseveria, fuchsias, agapanthus, begonias, plams, asparagus ferns or nanus plumosa and sprengeri thrive luxuriantly set out in some sheltered spot or kept in pots on the verandas. Tea and hybrid tea roses grow and bloom splendidly when planted out in the open ground. Tardescantiawandering Jew-a native of the philippines, grows profusely in hanging baskets on our porches, and, instead of the bleak and dreary country we expected, we have a country and a climate in which any plant or flower will grow luxuriantly. We of Yukon should thank the Guide of our destinies that our lives have fallen in pleasant places, for our flowers are part of the lure of the North .- Dawson Daily News.

WHAT HE PRI FERRED.

The second course of the table d'hote was being served. "What is this 'leathery stuff'?" demanded the diner. "That, sir, is fillet of sole," replied the waiter. "Take it away," said the diner, "and see if you can't get me a nice tender piece from the upper part of the boot, with the buttons removed."

> Eighteen Models Appeared Peasible.

London Cable—"It is impossible? to say that this or that man invented the tank," Winston Spencer Church Secretary for War, testified in this wise to-day before the Royal Coms sion on Awards to Inventors, which is leading with the claims of eleven men who are seeking the honor and bounties attached to the invention of this formidable instrument of war.

The testimony and the stateme of the attorneys indicated that the tank was a sort of middle ground be tween armored motor cars, which wide trenches rendered ineffective,and the huge steam rollers planned to batter down barbed wire and other ob-

Mr. Churchill testified that from the beginning of the war numerous plans of various types of land ships had been submitted. Eighteen of these appeared so feasible that models were constructed and trials were made, and it might be said that the original tank, first used in the Somme offensive in 1916, was the result of the experience gained at the trials of each of these 18. Armored cars had failed, said the secertary, because they could not get over or around the trenches, whereupon he had called into conference Vice-Admiral Sir Reginald Bacon, the ordnance expert. Admiral Bacon built a motor with bridge to be laid across a trench on the approach and picked up on the return; but this failed to get over a double line trench. Then came tests of machines with huge wheels able to span a wide space, but these are discarded. Finally, the caterpillar tractor scheme wsa adopted, bringing on extended dis-cussion as to whether they should be constructed to transport troops through fire-swept areas. Out of these discussions came the trials of the Mark tank, with which the inquiry dealing. But the caterpillar plan was once abandoned by the War Office, Major-General Ernest D. Swinton, one of the claimants, testified. It was kept alive in the Admiralty because, according to statement by one of the attorneys. of Mr. Churchill's belief in the necessity of producing some machines to override the trenches, Gen.
