We "Keep Quality Up"

Let us help you to do the same. You know the old saying, "It may cost a little more but it is cheapest in the long run." How much cheaper must it be when you get A1 quality at practically the same price and sometimes a little less than the inferior article. The best is none too good for our customers and friends. Call and be convinced.

YOU and your home have got to be pretty close companions for the next eight months.

Is this close companionship to be a bright and happy one, with every part of the house gleaming with good cheer and reflecting your good taste in home decoration.

Look ahead. Picture the dreariness and darkness of winter.

Then picture your home when the walls are beautiful with Flat Tone, when the floors shine with Marmot or Floorlac, when the woodwork and furniture stand proudly forth in their new coats of Excella, when the bathroom is snowy white with Sherwin Williams Old Dutch Enamel and the whole house protected with S. W. P. (Sherwin Williams Paints Prepared.)

Rockford

(Too late for last week)

Mr. Frank Smith of Tyrrell preached a very interesting sermon Sunday evening in the absence of our pastor who is holidaying.

Mr. Wride and family returned home from their motor trip last Friday.

Mr. Harry Paskins and family motored to Lyndoch on Sunday last.

Miss May Voemans of Simcoe is visiting at Mr. Geo. Wymers.

Charlie Smith and wife and Miss Cocking of Simcoe spent Sunday at Mr. Arthur Smith's.

Mrs. James Priest and Bud motored to Buffalo on Monday to see her brother who is seriously ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay Irwin motored to Brantford on Saturday last to attend the Conservative picnic.

We are sorry to report that Mrs. John Phillips' condition is more serious. The doctors held a consultation on Sunday and she was taken to the Brantford hospital on Monday. We hope that she may speedily recover.

Mr. Garnet Woolley has sold his farm to George Nemchuck and has bought a place in Waterford. George is a good fellow and we wish him every success in undertaking.

Sandusk

Rod and Gun

A splendid series of photos of Canadian Nature Life are now running in ROD AND GUN IN CANADA. The first of these shows a male loon and appears in the September issue which is now on sale at the news dealers. "Our Old Elusive Friend, The Black Duck" is the title of Bonnycastle Dale's splendid article that appears in this issue. Other valuable stories and articles are entitled: "Three Men and Three Women," by M. Parkinson, "The Making of a Shooter," by Edward T. Martin, "The Black Bass," Archie P. McKishnie, the well-known Canadian writer, Dr. William T. Hornaday, Director of the New York Zoological Park is the author of a thought compelling article on Conservation dealing particularly with the rational utilization of game. The Departments of the magazine dealing with the various outdoor activities of rod and gun are up to their usual high standard. A splendid picture of Joe Jennings of Toronto winner of second place at the Chicago International Tournament appears in the Trap Department. Rod and Gun in Canada is published monthly at Woodstock, Ont., by W. J. Eaylor, Ltd.
