Cayuga Boy Honored

Pte. Alwyn A. Kerr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Kerr, formerly of Cayuga, now residing in Detroit, has been awarded the Distinguished Service Cross and the Croix de Guerra (Italian Cross) for extraordinary heroism in action in France. Pte. Kerr won his honor at Bois de Ormont on October 13, 1918, while holding front lines he saw a number of the enemy approaching through the thick fog. Without hesitation he gave the alarm, charged them, capturing the entire number after determined resistance. Pte. Kerr saw thirteen months service in France. He was wounded and gassed the day he performed the deed for which the citation was awarded him. A brother, Sgt. Norman E. Kerr, is now with an aviation unit in France.—Haldimand Advocate.

YOU and your home have got to be pretty close companions for the next eight months.

Is this close companionship to be a bright and happy one, with every part of the house gleaming with good cheer and reflecting your good taste in home decoration.

Look ahead. Picture the dreariness and darkness of winter.

Then picture your home when the walls are beautiful with Flat Tone, when the floors shine with Marmot or Floorlac, when the woodwork and furniture stand proudly forth in their new coats of Excellence, when the bathroom is snowy white with Sherwin Williams Old Dutch Enamel and the whole house protected with S.
