Roots are now doing fairly well, except turnips, which in several counties are suffering from the attacks of aphis.

Corn cutting is proceeding actively, and generally speaking the crop will be a fair one. Si:o filling has begun, and the indications are that nearly all the corn will be well matured and make good silage.

Pastures generally are only fair, and many farmers are doing some feeding. Norfolk, however, claims that alfalfa is giving good pasture.

There is a good supply of hay on hand, but there will be less grain for feeding than last year; and straw will be relatively scarce. Haldimand states that co-operative clubs will that co-operative clubs will engage in the sale of their hay, and are already looking to increasing their supply of concentrate stock feeds.

AWAITS SPEECH BY LLOYD GEORGE

Britain Keenly Anxious as to His Words

At Brotherhood Congress To-night.

ated Press Premier Lloyd George's while street markets are increasingly return to England last night from his instituted in the crowded districts. vacation at Deuville, France, and a brief visit in Paris, will be followed to-night by an address, which will be delivered at the London City Temple, and which, in view of the extreme political and economic unrest prevailing in the country, is awaited with keenest curiosity and interest.

Among the many topics which the public is eager to hear the Premier discuss are the Russian tangle; Ireland; the reduction of national expenditures: industrial developments; the probable dissolution of Parliament, and a general election. An election would be particularly welcomed, but it is doubtful if the Premier will speak on that subject to-night, it being suggested that he will probably avoid controversial topics as far as possible. In view of the fact that the speech will be addressed to the International Brotherhood Congress, Mr. Lloyd George will probably confine himself mainly to elaborating his recent appeal to the nation to co-operate in the establishment of a new world order. leaving other matters for addresses he has promised to deliver eisewhere.

Squash Recipes

Squash, writes Mrs. Hazel Blair Dodd, is regarded as an insipid vegetable by many, but if prepared with generous seasoning it makes an appetizing accompaniment to a mest or vegetable dinner, and is a pleasant change from starchy vegetables.

In addition, squash may be prepared as a dessert for luncehon, or, best of all, converted into the always welcome

BAKED SQUASH. Baked squash is a good vegetable accompaniment to heavy meats like steak, beef, etc. It is simple to prepare. The squash is cut to about the disc of potatoes, seeds and stringy portions are removed, and then set to halfe in over for about forty minutes. It is served in a not dish, just like PEACE CONFERENCE HAD baked potatoes.

SQUASH SALAD.

Quarter two tender, but well-grown, crook-neck or marrow squashes, and boil twenty minutes. Drain thoroughsool and cut the solld part in cubes, rejecting the seed. Season with shavings of onion and serve in tomato shells or sweet pepper cups with any good cooked or cream salad dressing.

EGGLESS SQUASH PATTIES. Two cups cooked and sifted squash 1-2 teaspoon lemon extract. Mix cugar, salt, sifted bread crumbs and lemon cially on clay fields, as the land has extarct together. Line patty pans been getting dry again, say representatives of the Ontario Department of in hot oven about 25 minutes.

SQUASH CUSTARD. Two cups mashed squash, 2 eggs, 1 squash and well-beaten egg yolks are mixed together. Sait and pepper are added, and then the stiffly-beaten whites are folded in. The mixture is then poured into custard cups and placed in a pan of water, in oven, until baked firm.

British Government Will Crush All Such Vermin.

Prices There.

London Cable - Charles McCurdy, Parliamentary Secretary to the Food Minister, declared yesterday that the Government classes the profiteers with rate and other vermin, and is determined to stamp him out. Mr. Mc-Curdy was speaking at the opening day of the administration of the new Profiteering Act and allude to the new Canadian statute dealing with a similar evil.

Criticism against the English act is mainly on the ground that it will never ecotch the big profiteer, but Their establishment is frequently followed by a drop in prices at the neighboring shops. The lack of housing accommodation is certainly as vital problem as profiteering.

world. "The covenant would not bind the United States to assist in putting down rebellion in any foreign country," he asserted, "nor would it limit the power of this country to recognize the independence or any people who seek to secure freedom."

He said Ireland's case was not heard at Versailles because it did not come within the jurisdiction of the Peace Conference.

The President's statement was in reply to a series of questions sent to him by the Sau Francisco Labor Council. It is understood that within a few days he will reply similarly to the questions put by other labor bodies regarding Shantung and the representation of the British dominions in the League Assembly.

Answer: "It was not possible for the Peace Conference to act with regard to the self-determination of any territories except those which had belonged to the defeated empires, but in the covenant in the League of Nations it has set up for the first time in article 11 a forum to which all claims of self-determination which are likely to disturb the peace of the world or the good understanding between nations upon which the peace of the world depends can be brought. "Answer: The case of Ireland was not heard at the Peace Conference because the Peace Conference had no iurisdiction over any question of that sort which did not affect territories which belonged to the defeated empires.
