Easter Readiness in the Millinery Department

During our Opening Days our rooms were thronged with the fair sex, and expressions of delight was the general sentiment. Only a few more days till Easter, and if you have left your choosing until now we invite you to inspect our display, which this season is under the management of Miss McIntyre, who you will find ready to comply with all your needs, either in preparing or retrimming.

We have at present a nice display of Figured Voiles, ranging from $1.00 to $1.50.

SILK POPLINS in shades of Navy, Copenhagen, Old Rose, Green, Browns and Black, at $2.00 per yard.

Also a lovely line of Taffeta, Paillette and Daches Silks, in all the leading shades, at $2.00, $2.50, $3.50 and $4.00 per yard. What could be better for the all important Spring Suite.

Nanticoke Notes

Miss Alice Wicks is spending her Easter holidays at her home near Dresden.

The W. M. S. held their annual meeting last Monday at the home of Mrs. George Vokes. An Easter program was prepared. After the election of officers a dainty lunch was given by the hostess.

Miss Ina Vokes celebrated her thirtieth birthday last Friday in the form of a party, composed of all the Nanticoke school girls.

Mr. George Walker and family, of Hamilton, spent the week end under the parental roof.

Messrs. Jim Hailam, Archer Brand and Clifford Walker spent Easter in this burr.

A number of friends gathered at the home of Mrs. M. Walker last Saturday evening to celebrate the 75th birthday anniversary of her mother, Mrs. Winger. A very pleasant evening was spent in music and games. This was brought to a close by the singing of "Auld Lang Syne."

Our village poet, Mr. T. Batcher, has composed and recited about twenty poems. Just recently he has gone into the song business. You should hear him sing. The latest song that he has composed is entitled "Fifty." The following verse was composed by him just recently:

"Some folks are finding fault
And giving me many a roast,
But of my great honesty
I never yet did boast;
But I am a jolly fellow,
As jolly as any you see,
I never get into a stew,
But a stew gets into me."

Mr. S. A. Thompson spent Saturday in Cayuga attending the Criminal Justice Audit Board. The board is composed of His Honour Judge Hopkins, C. J. Smelser, Reeve of Rainham, and S. A. Thompson, Clerk of Walpole.

Lake Erie was never known to be so low as it was on Sunday. The lake was dry beyond the old schooner wreck. One could step across the mouth of the creek. Captain Bob said "It was a great sight."

The Easter services at the Methodist Church were a grand success. The congregation was held spell-bound by the music and singing rendered by Miss Walker and the choir. It was one grand selection after another from a cantata of ten beautifully chosen Easter songs. The church is wonderfully improved in the remodelling of the choir stand and pulpit, which seems to add new interest to everybody present. Mr. Mercer gave a short but appropriate address, expressing his appreciation of the change which has taken place. We sincerely hope that the good work commenced will continue to the honor and glory of our risen Savior.

Miss Mildred Banfield of Buffalo, N. Y., is home for the holidays.

We are glad to see Mrs. Albert Dougherty able to be out again.

Mr. Harold Marshall is back for the summer.

We are glad to learn that Mr. Cecil Barker, who has been seriously ill, is improving.

The farmers on the Lake shore are boasting that their farms are increasing in size. The beach in some places is a couple of rods wider than last year. The assessor ought to get wise.

Varency

It was hard on the Easter bonnet. Motor lights are once more in evidence on the side lines.

Mr. Earl Marr arrived home from Gaelph last week.

Miss Campbell, of P. S. No. 17, Walpole, attended the meetings of the Educational Association in Toronto this week.

Nurse C. McKenzie of Winnipeg is visiting at the home of her brother, J. B. McKenzie.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson Keith, of Hamilton, spent the holidays in this vicinity.

Miss Arelita Parkinson visited friends in Toronto and Hamilton during the past week.

The general strike throughout the frog ponds did not tie up business completely in the suburbs.

The Income Tax nightmare and the search for engine numbers are still going strong.

Renton

Sunday was rather an ugly day, especially for the new Easter hats.

George and Sidney Secord of Windsor, motored down and spent over the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Secord.

Mr. Topping of Toronto was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kniffen over Easter.

Mr. D. Secord attended the funeral of his aunt, Mrs. Almas, in Hamilton on Wednesday of last week.

Miss Ethel Butler, who is teaching school east of Toronto, spent Easter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. Butler.

Miss Ethel Stitt of Toronto spent Easter with her mother and brothers.

Mr. Dan Secord and Mrs. Dan and the whole Dan family motored to Hamilton and spent Easter with his brother and Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Secord.

Miss Carrie Andrews of Hagersville spent Easter with her father, Mr. Fred Andrews.

D. Secord and family spent one evening last week with their daughters, Mr. and Mrs. John Rountree, near Nelles Corners.

The Grange held a meeting in their hall one evening last week, three officers of the High Court were present.

Miss Elsie Peace is visiting her sisters, Mrs. Arthur Gifford near Dunnville and Mrs. Fred Gowling, Canfield.

Commenting on those weekly papers which apologize for raising the subscription rate to $1.50 or $2, The Bowmanville Statesman says: "Whoever heard of producers apologizing for asking $6 a barrel for apples they used to sell at $2; 70c. a pound for butter they used to sell at 10c; $3.60 for wheat they were once glad to get a dollar; and $1.50 for a fat chicken that sold for 90c; or a merchant asking $75 for a suit of clothes that sold at $25, and so on. No apology necessary, Brother Publisher. At any rate white paper has been advancing at such a pace since 1920 began that all weeklies will be compelled to advance their price to $2 or $2.50 a year before many moons.
