BUSH-FRUIT AND THEIR CULTIVATION IN CANADA

Descriptions of Varieties of White Currants.

Large White.—Fruit medium to large in bunches usually about half filled; pale yellow; bristly subacid; quality above medium, better than most. Season early. A strong, upright grower and productive. One of the best.

White Cherry.—Fruit above medium in size in well filled bunches of medium length; pale yellow; acid; medium quality. Season early. A strong upright grower and one of the most productive.

White Grape.—Fruit medium to above medium in size in bunches of medium length about half filled; pale yellow; subacid, pleasant flavor; quality good. Season medium. A strong, moderately spreading grower, productive and one of the most reliable white varieties.

White Kaiser.—Fruit medium to large in medium to large bunches about three-fourths filled; pale yellow; subacid, pleasant flavor; quality good. Season medium. A strong upright grower, better in quality than most.
