Simcoe Business Man Dead

Simcoe, Dec. 20—George O. Werrett, one of Simcoe's best known and most progressive business men, passed away this afternoon after an illness which had prohibited him taking any active part in the conduct of his retail grocery business for the past year. He was a son of the late George Werrett, of Simcoe, who, like his son, took an active interest in the public life of the town. Deceased was secretary of the Retail Merchants' Association and was recognized as a leader in matters of interest to the trade.

Phonographs

The McLagan is a modern Phonograph in the truest sense of the word, built to give lasting and ever increasing pleasure.

As a real musical instrument as well as an artistic piece of home furniture its possibilities for giving thorough enjoyment are unlimited.

Every instrument is guaranteed to give the satisfaction that every purchaser has a right to expect.

Parties contemplating the purchase of a Phonograph as Xmas Present should not delay in seeing and hearing this instrument to avoid disappointment as the demand for this instrument is very great.
