Nanticoke Notes

Two weeks more frosty weather as indicated by the shadow cast by Old Bruin.

We are glad to report that Mrs. M. Walker, who has been very ill, is convalescing.

A certain young man who is a member of the "Mid-night Sandwich Club," won a silver medal at the game of "Sevens."

Miss Alice Wicks spent the week end at the home of Mrs. John Henning.

Several of the W. A. members met at the home of Mrs. Thos. Snowden last Wednesday. The meeting was held in the form of a quilting.

We are pleased to learn that Miss Frances Evans is recovering after a severe illness of influenza.

Mrs. S. A. Thompson visited relatives in Simcoe last week.

Oscar Wilde and family passed through the village last week.

The young people of this burg regret very much that their open-air pavilion has become thoroughly delapidated thru recent wind storms.

This school was re-opened on Monday after being closed for two weeks.

The Sandusk Women's Institute meeting will be at the home of Mrs. James Hewitt on Thursday, March 11th.

Rockford

(Too late for last week.)

Mrs. Margaret Richards has returned after spending a week with her sister, Mrs. Glover, of Scotland.

Miss Myrtle Petheram, while visiting in Hamilton, was taken sick with the "flu." We are glad to report she is recovering.

Mr. Henry Lemon spent Saturday in Brantford.

Miss Enid Paskins spent Sunday afternoon with Miss Ruth Hamby.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sanderson and children spent Sunday with Mrs. Golding's.

Born—On Wednesday, Feb. 18th, 1920, to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kenney, a daughter.

Married—In Hamilton, on Saturday, Feb. 14th, Agnes, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Smith of Rockford, to Mr. Robert A. Smith of Villa Nova.

Our young people did exceedingly fine in the play entitled "The Time of His Life," given at the Park and Bean supper on Feb. 13th. These present certainly enjoyed themselves as it was very amusing.

Renton

Lots of snow yet, and winter is still with us.

Mrs. Bruce Steinoff is improving slowly. Mr. Nasty Walker had a saw-bee on Monday last.

Wiggins school re-opened last week after being closed on account of illness.

Mr. D. Secord was the guest of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Gilbert, near Ambrose, Walsingham, one day last week.

Miss Eva Secord is stopping with her sister, Mrs. John Rowatree, near Nelles Corners.

School Section No. 10, Townsend, opened this week after being closed on account of the flu.

Mr. Allen Graves is quite sick at time of writing.

While working at the saw mill of Mr. H. Austin, near Nixon, one day last week Mr. Hugh Newell met with a painful accident. In the slipping of a cant-hook while endeavoring to turn a large log, he fell, breaking his leg above the ankle. At time of writing Mr. Newell is improving nicely.

A large number of the farmers attended the new creamery meeting at Renton one day last week. The speaking was excellent, the patrons being treated to ice-cream and cake.

Renton is becoming some chipping centre. During the month of February some 11 or 12 car loads of hay and several cars of live stock were shipped, besides the loading and shipping of saw logs every day except Sunday. Renton is the place to go to for a square deal.

Mr. Fiebig has sold his farm near Norder to Robert Martin.

John James Edward, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Feeney, of Oneida, passed away on Wednesday, Feb. 25th, of pneumonia. The remains were interred in the R. C. cemetery, Caledonia, on Feb. 28th.

The Rockford Dramatic Club will present that laughable comedy entitled "The Time of His Life" in Chambers' Hall on Thursday evening, March 4th. The proceeds will be used in aid of church work. Entertainment commences at 8 o'clock. Admission 25c, reserved seats 35c. If you want to laugh don't miss it.
