All accounts against the Walpole Agricultural Society should be handed in to the Secretary this week.

A large number from this section attended the Simcoe Fair. There was an immense crowd the last day.

The Jarvis Women's Institute will meet at the home of Mrs. John Wadham on Wednesday next at 3 p.m.

An error in the list of prize winners occurred in Class 2. Agricultural Fowl, should read 2nd, George Mitchell instead of Ed. Miller.

Mr. Wm. Abraham is in the hospital in Hamilton, having undergone an operation this (Wednesday) afternoon on account of a rupture.

The W.M.S. of the Simcoe District will hold their annual convention in the Methodist church here on the morning and afternoon of Oct. 14th.

With the change in the train service this week the citizens miss the evening mail. The train from Hamilton now arrives here about nine o'clock.

Anniversary services will be held in the Methodist church next Sunday at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. Rev. D. A. Moir, B. D., of Simcoe will preach.

Mr. Andrew Rodgers went to Toronto on Monday evening to attend the funeral of his brother-in-law, Mr. John Marks, who died on Sunday.

We are pleased to learn that Mrs. Stephen Allen, who suffered a slight stroke a week ago, is improving nicely, and hope for her a speedy recovery.

We have received a card from Mr. Abe Fallis, who with his sister are at present at Lake Louise, Alberta. He reports that the scenery there is simply grand.

Mr. Burt Brock, of Saginaw, Mich., has been spending a few days at the home of his cousin R. B. Brock. He and his sister will return to their home the end of this week.

Miss Walker, of Nanticoke, and Mr. Nelson of Vancouver will assist in the singing and sing solos at the anniversary services in the Methodist church on Sunday next, Oct. 10th.

The anniversary services at Garnet on Sunday, the 3rd, were well attended. Two large congregations listened to helpful and inspiring sermons by Rev. H. B. Christie, of Brantford. A fee of $150 was placed on the plate in response to a request for $75.00 for running expenses.

John O'Donnell, of Balmoral, narrowly escaped a bad accident when he backed over the west bank of the Grand River on his way into Cayuga. His car fell on top of him, but in such a manner that the horn kept up a high "hoot" and help came readily and in large numbers. Mr. O'Donnell was unhurt, but the car was badly smashed.

Lantern Lecture on Flowers

On Tuesday evening next a lecture will be given in the St. Paul's school-room at 8 p.m. by the Rev. G. Tebb, Rector of Burlington, entitled "In my Garden with a Camera." It will be profusely decorated with a beautiful series of colored slides and as Mr. Tebb is well known in this diocese as an eloquent speaker, a crowded attendance is expected. Tickets, 25 cents adults and 10 cents for children may be obtained at the doors, or from any member of the St. Paul's Young People's Association.

Slack-Thompson

A very pretty wedding took place Thursday last at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Thompson on Calhoun street, when their only daughter, Isabel Brown Thompson, was married to Gordon Wakefield Slack son of J. O. Slack, Springfield.

The bride was very becomingly attired in a gown of white silk georgette, with a veil of Brussels net and orange blossoms. She carried a beautiful bouquet of Orphelia roses. The bridal march was played by Miss Meta MacMurchy, and the ceremony was performed by the Rev. N. D. MacKinnon.

After the ceremony about 25 guests partook of a beautiful wedding breakfast, and the happy couple were escorted to the appropriately decorated auto that bore them away. They will visit friends in Buffalo and Michigan before returning.—Sachem.
