Fire at Simcoe

The Farmer's feed barn, owned by the E. Edmonds estate, and office of William Jaques & Sons, wool wholesalers, were burned last Wednesday afternoon.

The fire started in the barn and spread to the surrounding building, Challen's carriage shop escaped with damage to the extent of about $1,000.

Mr. Jaques' loss is estimated at about $20,000 on building and stock, with insurance in the neighborhood of about $7,000.

The Late Mrs. Evans

On August twenty-second there passed away at the City Hospital in Hamilton one well known to most of the residents of Walpole, in the person of Mrs. Robt. J. Evans of Nanticoke.

Anna Melissa Janson was born in Walpole, near Varenay, in the year 1863. In 1884 she was married to Robert Jeffrey Evans of Nanticoke, who survives her.

To this union were born six children—Wilfred, Julia, Ira, Harold and Margaret, who live at Nanticoke, and Ralph who died in infancy, thirty-five years ago. She had four brothers, Mark, Peter and John, who came from their homes in Michigan to pay their last respects to their departed sister; William, who lives in Alabama, was unable to attend the funeral. Her only sister, who was Mrs. Wm. Butcher, formerly of Nanticoke, died in Michigan during the past year.

About three weeks before her death she went to the Hospital at Hamilton for the treatment of an ailment from which she had suffered for many years. On Saturday, August twenty-first, she submitted to an operation, but on account of her greatly weakened condition, owing to long suffering, she was unable to survive and passed peacefully away about 1.10 o'clock Sunday morning.

The funeral, which was very largely attended, took place from her late residence at "Hickory Beach" to Christ Church, the service being conducted by her pastor, Rev. Mr. Brand. The pallbearers were Stanley Field, Frank Jackson, Thos. Hallam, Abraham Hoover, Moses Walker and Frank Walker.

Mrs. Evans was a member of Christ Church (Anglican), Nanticoke, where she had been an enthusiastic and consistent worker for many years. She was always ready to help in times of sickness, and by her death the community of Nanticoke loses one who was a real friend in any time of need. In the church and the neighborhood she will be greatly missed, but even more so in the home where she was always alert to the needs of a loving husband and family, to whom the warmest and most sincere sympathy goes out from a multitude of relatives, friends and neighbors.

May our heavenly Father sustain them in their sad bereavement.

Hagersville News.—The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson, Walpole, had her hand severely injured on Monday last. The little one was playing around the barn and in some way got her hand caught in a pulley used for drawing up the grain and the member was severely lacerated before she could be extricated. Dr. Quance was called and dressed the wounds.

Mr. Arthur S. Brunt, of Dunnville died at the Military Hospital at Burlington on Aug. 22nd. Deceased was in his 60th year and was one of the best known and most popular citizens of Dunnville. During the war deceased enlisted as a member of the 114th Battalion, but did not accompany it overseas, being attached to the headquarters staff of Military District No. 2, with the rank of Sergeant. The funeral was held on Wednesday last with military honors. He leaves a widow and two sons.

WOOL PRICES ADVANCE

Value of Co-Operative Marketing Demonstrated.

Local members of the Ontario Sheep Breeders' Association, having shipped wool to Guelph for grading and sale, will be glad to know that the wool market has taken on a much stronger tone at least in so far as this organization is concerned. During the past six weeks we have sold slightly more than 1 1/2 million pounds of the 1920 crop at prices that should prove very satisfactory to the sheep raisers of Canada. These sales have been about equally divided between Eastern and Western wools and over half of the quantity has been supplied to Canadian Mills. Prices on the above sales have ranged approximately as follows:

Eastern Wool:—Fine Medium Staple 58 to 60 cents per lb.; Medium Staple 52 to 55 cents; Low Medium Staple 40 to 45c; Low Staple 30 to 35c; Course 24 to 25c.

Western Range Wool: Fine Staple 51 to 53c, per lb.; Fine Clothing 48 to 52c; Fine Medium Staple 58 to 60c; Fine Medium Clothing 54 to 57c; Medium Staple 43 to 46 cents.

These prices secured are certainly much better than offerings made at country points this season and should clearly demonstrate to wool growers the real worth of co-operative marketing. One very encouraging feature about sales made up to date is the fact that many of the buyers are old customers of 1918 and 1919. This goes to prove two things, First—The sheep owners of this country are gradually learning to put their wool up in a style that appeals to the mill man, properly shorn and rolled, tied with paper twine and free from all foreign matter. Heretofore Canadian Mills have been prejudiced against Canadian wool looking upon it as an unknown quantity. Second—Proper grading is teaching the farmer that he can expect exactly what his wool is worth. Furthermore the grading system now established is gaining the confidence of Canadian Mills. They know that the grades will run true to standard and that when shipment is made it will be in accordance with sample submitted. There can undoubtedly be built up right here in Canada amongst Canadian Mills a demand for Canadian Wool.

Solvency

Take this advice: Don't go in debt; your solvency's your one best bet. Far better drive a Henry car, that breaks a sput at every jar, that backs when you would have it pull, and when it's yours, paid for in full, than journey in a sedan that's bought on the installment plan. Far better wear a suit of duck, on which you've paid the final pucker, than go around in brave array while tailors clamour for their pay. Far better in a cabin dwell, in some remote secluded cell, than occupy a gilded hall where bailiffs with their warrants call. There naught contributes, you will find, more strongly to your piece of mind, than being in a place to say, "No man can dun me for his pay; I owe no koopecks, far or near, my bills are paid, my record clear." I've tried both plans, so now I know; all kinds of bills I used to owe, and lawyers chased me through the town, and stern collectors ran me down. And life was then a sad affair, of walking floors and tearing hair. But now I pay off bed and board, and buy no junk I can't afford, and life is like a pleasant dream, or like a shortcake soaked in cream.

Warning to Motorists

According to the new legislation as passed by the last session of the Ontario Government, the penalties for violating certain sections of the Motor Vehicle Act have been made more severe, especially Section 14 which reads as follows:

"No intoxicated persons shall drive a motor vehicle."

The penalty for violating this section provided by Section 24a which in part reads as follows:

"Every person who violates the provisions of Section 14 of this Act shall for the first offence be imprisoned for a period not exceeding thirty days and not less than seven days. For a second offence for a period not exceeding three months and not less than one month."

The magistrates have no option in the matter, they must send the person convicted to jail, whereas formerly a fine of fifty dollars or less might be imposed.

Last Thursday Fred Graves, of St. Catharines, was seriously injured and a companion suffered painful cuts and bruises, when a party of bowlers from that city, on their way to attend the journey at Caledonia, met with a motor accident two miles from Caledonia. Mr. Graves is now in the Hamilton hospital with a badly hurt spine. His three companions were also injured but were able to return to St. Catharines the same night.
