WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

A very pleasant afternoon was spent at the home of Mrs. James Bush where the December meeting of the Sandusk Women's Institute was held. At this meeting we planned to have a chicken supper for our January evening meeting. Mrs. L. Dougherty, our delegate to the Institute Convention in Toronto, gave a splendid report which interested us all very much, a vote of thanks being given her. Miss S. Werner favored us with an instrumental solo, after which Mrs. J. Walker gave a splendid paper on setting the table and serving the meal, which should be a help to us all. Our meeting was closed by singing "The Church in the Wildwood." A social hour was then spent, during which the hostess served lunch.

Rockford

The severe wind and snow storm on Sunday prevented us having our usual Sunday School, which is the first time in many years that the weather has prevented. There was a small attendance at church in the evening.

We are sorry to report that Henry Smith has been dangerously ill with pneumonia for the past week. Dr. Leathdale of Jarvis and two nurses, Miss Ellen Thomson and Miss Nellie Perkins are in attendance. We are glad to say that at time of writing there is a little change for the better.

Miss Moyer and the children are having a Xmas tree at the school on Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Martin Anderson had a cross-cut sawing bee in Mr. Davis' woods on Friday last.

Mr. John Phillips has sold twenty-five acres off his farm to Martin Anderson.

Bring your presents to the church and have them put on the Xmas tree Friday evening.

Renton

Last Sunday was a real winter's day—snowing and blowing—the wind doing considerable damage to fences and trees.

Several from here attended the I. O. F. Banquet at the Norfolk House by Simcoe Court No. 68. A very enjoyable evening was spent.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rowntree and son Leonard, of Nelles Corners, spent one day last week at "East Lynn Farm" with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Seord.

The farmers are busy drawing out manure, cutting wood and other odd jobs.

Mr. Jacob Gee of Woodstock spent a few days with his daughter, Mrs. Walter Warner.

Why are the pages of the Jarvis Record like the days of man? Because they are all numbered.

A Sunday School entertainment was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Trinder one evening last week. A good program was provided and a very enjoyable evening was spent. Old Santa Claus was in attendance.

Mrs. Elsie Lishman and Miss Bina Lishman, of the Scotch Elm, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. Seord one day last week.

Annual school meeting next week. All are invited to turn out—it's your duty.

At time of writing, Mr. and Mrs. Nat Tisdale are in Hamilton at the hospital with their little boy, who is undergoing an operation. We hope for a speedy recovery.

Nominations next Monday for Reeve and Councilors. Be careful who you put in.

Your old cotter wishes all who read these items in the Jarvis Record a Merry Christmas.

General Sessions and County Court

There was only one action entered for trial at the general sessions which were to have opened at Cayuga on Tuesday last. This case has been adjourned until Jan. 19th. There was no criminal business, and the grand and petit jurors were notified not to attend court.

The case entered was Sanyi vs. Dobbin, an action arising out of a collision of a bicycle with an automobile, on the road at the south end of Caledonia bridge. On account of the illness of one of the witnesses for the plaintiff, it was arranged that the hearing be postponed until Jan. 19th.
