The same little book had in it some other lines of kindness. Now kindness and helpfulness go hand in hand. To be a really true Helper one must have the spirit of kindness in one's heart. This is Christmas time and you know what a wonderful spirit Christmas brings with it. Everyone seems so much kinder and more thoughtful at this season of the year. The spirit of kindness is everywhere, but what a pity it is if we do not keep the same Christmas spirit all through the year. Why don't we do this? We can. The best way be can do it is to all be Helpers of one another. I am sure you would like to feel that you could always make every one you love just as happy and day in the year as they are at Christmas time, and this you can do. Read what the little book said

I go to school every day and I am in grade seven. I live on a farm five miles from Manitou. Well I will be a faithful member of your club if you will send me a badge. At night when I come home from school I have to watch my little brother and sister, wash the dishes and do several other things. This is all for this time, wishing your club every success. · I am twelve years old.

MARGARET O. MITCHELL. You have started your faithful helping well, Margaret, in helping mother so much. I am delighted to hear from you. I have been in Manitoba, but do not know the district in which you live. Perhaps you will write again some day and tel l me about your farm and what kind of animals you have. I hope you will have a happy holiday.

Origin of "Emerald Isle."

Ireland was first termed "the Emerald Isle" in a poem called "Erin," by Dr. Drennan, who lived in the latter half of the eighteenth century.

It Testifies for Itself-Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil needs no testimonial of its powers other than itself. Whoever tries it for coughs or colds, for outs or contusions, for sprains or burns, for pains in the limbs or body, well know that the medicine preves fiself and needs no guarantee. This shows why this Oil is in general use.

only asking for your advice, as my parents are constantly worrying me about this question. I have been keeping company with a young man it will interest many other girls to of eighteen for about three or four months. There is something about this young man I detest, in other words he thinks himself too smart. When we come home from shows, he will want me to stand on the verandah and talk with him. He will kiss me often. I have told him not to, but all in vain. He is thinking too much about love, and I am too young yet to be thinking of it. There are two girls who live across the road from him. He takes them out to shows quite often, and then comes to
