Institute Banquet

Annual Event Was a Most Enjoyable Affair.

One of the most enjoyable events of the Jarvis social season was celebrated on Wednesday evening last, on the occasion of the annual banquet of the Women's Institute.

An opportunity opens the ladies' side to meet every great event. The above was no exception. The event was given a homey atmosphere, then the hospitable kindness of mine hosts, Mr. J. A. and Miss M. Fallis, in throwing open their spacious home. The guests were received by Mrs. E. A. McCarter, president, and Miss Fallis, secretary of the W. I. To do justice by way of description of the creations of the culinary arts of our hostesses would tax the vocabulary of the chef of the Waldorf Astoria. However, from mere man's standpoint, the good things provided would satisfy even the demands of the most critical of epicureans.

To pass on from the appealing wants of the inner man, we were given another treat in the feast of reason and the flow of soul by the Jarvis disciples of Cicero, in the persons of Reeve Miller, Wm. Parkinson, Dr. Jaques, and the three local divines, Revs. Smith, Wreford and Hare. Intermingled with these flights of eloquence pleasing vocal and instrumental numbers were rendered by the Misses Henning and McMurphy and Messrs. H. Guiler and Bruce Hair. The crowning speech of the evening was the touching and humorous little address of Mrs. Albert Meehan.

All in all the event was most enjoyable and we masculine recipients of such hospitality vote our hostesses most adorable Jolly Good Fellows. May such events soon return. The chair was most admirably filled by our esteemed townsmen, Mr. R. A. McCarter.

Llewellyn, tenor soloist, Hamilton; Grace Miller, reader, monologues and character songs; Georgina Wilson, cornet soloist; Miss Meta McMurphy, accompanist. Concert at 8 p.m. Admission 50c and 25c.

Horses Stomachs Contained Sand

George Lawrence of Rainham has had bad luck lately in losing two of his work horses, a third one sick, but now is getting better. The disease puzzled both the Dunville and Fisherville veterinarians, but after inspecting the horses' stomachs and finding nearly four quarts of sand, Mr. Lawrence feels convinced that the animals got the sand last fall when they were fed on the sand floor, before the cement was put in.

Inquiry Postponed

The Dunville inquiry, into the charges preferred against Magistrate Hastings, which was to have come up for a hearing in Cayuga, on Tuesday of last week, has, we understand, been postponed indefinitely. The enquiry was laid over a week by Commissioner Patterson, and then Mr. Lynch Stanton, who was to have looked after Mr. Hastings' interests could not be here this week with the result that the hearing has been indefinitely postponed.

Geo. L. Woltz Injured at Cayuga Last Thursday

The horses attached to Sam Brooks' bus ran away from the station and were met at the top of the hill by George L. Woltz, one of the recently elected councillors for Cayuga. He ran out to stop them and in so doing was knocked down and badly bruised on the leg and face, but fortunately, escaped a break. The horses were uninjured, but the bus had wiffetees and curtains demolished in being upset.

Galbraith, representative of the department of agriculture, has charge of the class, with lectures given by graduates of the O. A. C. A class on home nursing and first aid opened on Monday for two weeks, and are being conducted by Dr. Annabel McEwen of London.

Agricultural Society

Annual Meeting Held on Saturday—Name Changed to Jarvis Agricultural Society.

The Walpole Agricultural Society held their annual meeting on Saturday last in the Music Hall, Jarvis, with over fifty of the past year's members in attendance. The financial statement as presented by the Treasurer showed considerable deficit of that of a year ago, but had the admission fee been increased along with that of other district fairs, the result would have been entirely different and our handsome surplus of a year ago would have remained intact. However, we still have $800 to start the year with, and with the present bright prospects, and an enthusiastic bunch of Directors, we have every reason to feel that the coffers of our honored institution will be filled to overflowing at the close of our fair this year.

The following are the Officers for 1921:

President—J. A. Fallis.
1st Vice-Pres.—John Mitchell.
2nd Vice-Pres.—I. W. Holmes.
Gen. Supt.—William Parkinson.
Directors—E. T. Carter, Richard Parkinson, John Walker, John Parkinson, John Walker.
Honorary Directors—J. B. McMicken, R. A. McCarter, Jas. Falls, Dan Steele, J. L. Smith, Dr. Leatherdale, J. F. Ivey, G. S. McCarter, A. H. Langford, John Brown, W. J. Hodge, R. W. Smith, Thomas Harris, W. J. Saunders, Oril Williamson, W. G. Clark, Carl R. Smith.
Auditors—J. A. Burwash and C. G. Allen.
Delegate to Fairs Association—J. A. Fallis.

It was decided to hold a one day fair and make that one day a humor, full of thrills from early morn until the setting of the sun. Saturday, October 8th, was the date decided on for the fall fair providing that date did not conflict with any other fair in the district.

A resolution was passed changing the name from "The Walpole Agricultural Society" to "The Jarvis Agricultural Society."

The Directors and Officers will meet in the Temperance Hall on Thursday of this week to appoint a Secretary-Treasurer, Lady Directors and make arrangements for the removal of the Fair buildings.

Annual Meeting

The Annual Meeting of the Walpole Farmers' Mutual Fire Assurance Company will be held in the Music Hall, Jarvis, on Saturday, Jan. 29, 1921, at one P.M. for the purpose of receiving the annual statement of affairs, electing Directors and fixing their remuneration, and any other business that may be brought before the meeting. Members are earnestly requested to attend.
J. B. MCKENZIE, G. L. MILLER,
President. Secretary.

Sent to Kingston

William James Smith was sentenced to three years in Kingston penitentiary last Wednesday afternoon by Judge Hopkins, and his brother, Robert H. Smith was sentenced to the same institution for two years and six months. They were convicted of breaking into Clark's store in Caledonia.

Died In Saskatoon

Mr. "Charlie" Underhill, Formerly of Jarvis—Has Been in Saskatoon Since 1903.

The sad intelligence of the death of "Charlie" Underhill, who died Jan. 5th, was received a few days ago by his brother Alfred of this village. His former acquaintances and friends will regret to learn of his death. The following account of his demise is taken from the Saskatoon Daily Star:

Charles W. Underhill, a pioneer resident of Saskatoon, died in the city hospital shortly before one o'clock this afternoon. At the time of his death Mr. Underhill was undergoing an operation.

In the passing of "Charlie" Underhill, Saskatoon loses one of its best known and most respected citizens, an active member of the Kiwanis Club and Masonic Lodge and a civic booster of the 100 per cent class.

In the early days of Saskatoon, Mr. Underhill was connected with J. F. Cairns here. Later he managed the Flanagan hotel and was instrumental in having the King George built here, which he managed for a number of years. At the time of his death he was chief appraiser at the local customs office.

BORN IN JARVIS

Born in Jarvis, Haldimand County, Ontario, February 1, 1870, Charlie was educated in the Jarvis Grammar and High Schools, entering the grocery business at the age of 14 years. He was connected with this line of business for 21 years, four years in his native town, six years in Ridgeway, and six years in Owen Sound, coming to Saskatoon in 1903.

He was employed by J. F. Cairns for four years, and for one year he was associated with J. F. Cairns and Fred Engen in the Western Grocers Limited, until they sold out.

Mr. Underhill was identified with Saskatoon throughout its development into a city. He was president of the Licensed Victuallers' Association of the province. In 1892 he married Miss Minnie Loran, in Ridgeway, Ontario, and he leaves her and their only child Miss Jean.

His relatives are Messrs. Thomas, of Saskatoon; Homer, of Collingwood, and Alfred, of Jarvis.

Must Have Non-Glare Device

Every Motor-Car owner is being forwarded a 1921 license application form which contains two questions that have never been previously asked on application forms, and it is essential that these questions be answered. The first inquiry is if the car for which the license is to be issued is equipped with an approved device—for the elimination of headlight glare, and the name of the device. Unless the car is properly equipped with such devices no license will be issued. The name of the dealer or person from whom the car was purchased must also be given. The new number plates will be issued this month.
