St. Paul's Vestry Meeting

The annual Vestry Meeting of St. Paul's Church was held on Monday evening last, the Rector, the Rev. G. Wreford, presiding. The meeting opened with prayer, after which the minutes of last year's meeting were read and confirmed. The following officers were appointed:

People's Warden—Dr. Lewis. Rector's Warden—Arthur Hodgson. Treasurer—J. H. Burwash.

Delegates to Synod—J. A. Burwash, Arthur Hodgson, C. E. Bourne.

Stewards—J. S. Burwash, I. W. Holmes, Henry Docherty, Wm. Griffey, Arthur Hodgson, Herbert Peacock.

Additional—I. W. Holmes, Dr. Coiman.

The treasurer, Mr. Stace Burwash, submitted a statement of the accounts of the church. Quing, however, to the fact that in common with many other churches throughout the Dominion, the financial year is being changed to end in future on Dec. 31st, the exact figures could not be given. Statements of the finances of the Women's Auxiliary, the Junior Auxiliary and of the Sunday School were then read.

The Rector in the course of his report expressed the sorrow felt by the congregation at the lamented death of the late Mr. Sowter, and said that the overflowing affection which gathered on the occasion of his funeral testified to the affection and respect in which he was held by all who knew him. The departure of Mr. and Mrs. Sill Jones from Jarvis would also leave a gap which would not easily be filled, and the best wishes of their many friends at St. Paul's would accompany them to their new home.

The attendance at the church services he was glad to say showed a slight increase. He rejoiced that the numbers present at the Friday evening meeting for Prayer and Bible Study also continued satisfactory. He said that after Easter the Epistle of St. Paul to the Philippians would be taken for study.

During the last winter a Missionary Study Circle had taken the place of the A. Y. P. A. In response to an appeal from Diocesan Headquarters a Branch of the Junior Auxiliary had been formed and 20 members enrolled.

The proceeds of the Bazaar of the Women's Auxiliary exceeded those of any previous year and the Rector gladly received the appreciation of the parish. He also took the opportunity of thanking Miss Rodgers, the members of the Choir and the ladies of the Chancel Guild for their splendid service during the past year. The Warden and Mr. Stace Burwash deserved the warmest thanks of the members of the congregation for their unwearied efforts to promote the welfare of the church and to keep the finances on a sound and satisfactory basis.

In conclusion he pleaded that they would be satisfied with no low standard of Christian living, or easy-going church membership, but would endeavor in all things to be conformed to their Master Christ, and seek that in all things they might have the pre-eminence.

Dr. Lewis then gave a lucid statement of the cemetery accounts and other parochial investments. The meeting terminated with the Benediction.

Judge Colter Honored

St. Thomas, March 24.—Judge C. W. Colter, who recently retired from the bench, after 16 years as senior judge of Elgin, was guest of honor at a banquet held at the Grand Central to-night. The affair was arranged by the city and county jointly, and a large number of prominent citizens from various parts of the county, as well as the City and County Councils attended to do honor to the retiring official. A reception was held early in the evening, when many of the judge's old friends wished him many happy years as a citizen of St. Thomas. His Honor celebrated his 75th birthday a few days ago.

Mayor Brinkman, Warden McKillop, County Clerk McKay, Judge Ermatinger, who succeeds the retiring judge; City Solicitor Doherty, County Solicitor Leitch, and others gave addresses to-night. Each expressed regret at Judge Colter's retirement and spoke in high terms of his many years' service in Elgin.

Despite his 75 years, the judge has opened a law office here, and will act in an advisory capacity with his two sons. The new firm will have offices in Cayuga, the judge's former home.

A Social Evening

A most enjoyable event was held in the Music Hall on Tuesday evening, it being the progressive euchre party put on by the ladies for the Park fund. There were over twenty tables. Miss Edith McCarter was the winner of the ladies prize, while for the gents the race was close, there being six tied for first place. In the draw Mr. D. Steel was acclaimed the winner. At the conclusion of the contest a sumptuous lunch was served after which the assemblage indulged in the light fantastic for a couple of hours, the music being furnished by Mr. and Mrs. A. Marr and Bruce Hare. Altogether a very pleasant evening was spent and the ladies are to be congratulated upon its success. The total proceeds amounted to $73, which, after deducting expenses, leaves a balance of $66.20 to add to Park fund. Let's have another.
