Mr. Claude Pond was home for a few days last week and left on Wednesday for Alberta. He expects to be there for a few months.

Some from here attended the dance at Selkirk on Friday evening and report a good time.

Miss Gladys Dixon of Hagersville was a visitor of Miss Nina Pond for a few days last week.

Miss Gertrude Pardington spent Friday with Mrs. Thos. Westerby.

Miss Stella Pond of Hamilton spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Pond.

The meeting of the Sandusk Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Elvin Pond on Thursday, May 5th. The President in the chair. The meeting opened by singing the opening ode, followed by the Lord's Prayer. The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted. This being our business meeting the following officers were elected:—President, Mrs. Byron Pond; Vice President, Mrs. Chas. Peacock; Second Vice-Pres., Mrs. Bert Ineson; Sec.-Treas., Frances A. Nicol; Auditors, Nina Pond and Ina Sternaman; Directors, Mrs. L. Dougherty, Mrs. J. Westerby, Mrs. F. Pond. #### Nanticoke

Don't forget your dancing class on Thursday evening at 9 o'clock.

The dance Monday evening was a grand success. The prize waltz which was one of the events of the evening was won by Miss Long, of Port Dover, and Mr. Douglas Owen, of Jarvis. Mr. Parks showed no favorites in awarding the prizes. The waltz was played very successfully by Miss Lindsay at the piano and Mr. Lindsay on the violin.

Mothers' Day

When I look back sixty years, I see my mother there; I see her look so happy in her good old rocking chair. There were no velvet cushions, it had a basket seat;

While all around that chair seemed so clean and neat.

We had no gas or hydro, tallow candles was our light;

We had a tallow lantern to do our chores at night.

We had no costly carpets, to hide that clean white floor;

For mother used good ashes as she scrubbed from door to door.

We had no costly ranges, we had stoves "The Forest King";

An oven posed upon the top, where mother cooked good things.

I see those nice red currants there, that mother used to tend;

But we did not have the berries, on which we now depend.

Our apple orchard was quite small, few apples on a tree;

How we used to steal some apples, when mother wouldn't see.

We had good walnut tables, and cupboard of the same;

Our sofa was of walnut, and I still have got the frame.

It has been covered many times, hair cloth we could not get;

I am sitting on that sofa now, where mother used to sit.

The picture frames were walnut, which J. Burbridge did make;

We keep them in the family, no money would we take,

Mother made the soft soap, made from ashes and the scraps;

But now we use the hard soap, made by the city chaps.

Mother helped in the bush, to make the sugar sweet;

Everything that mother made, we all thought was complete.

But now she's dead and gone, we have our Mothers' Day;

How many mothers went to church on this eventful day?

When a mother leaves this world, we miss her tender care;

But she always leaves behind, a mother's dying prayer.

—T. BUTCHER—

Nanticoke, May 9th, 1921.
