GLAD HE TRIED THE TONIC TREATMENT

Through Its Use Strength and Vigor Was Restored.

To be tired after exertion is natural. Rest and food restore the body to normal after such fatigue. But to be tired all the time is a symptom of an anaemic condition that will not be corrected until the blood is built up.

Such an anaemic condition is so gradual in its approach and generally so lacking in acute pains that it is often difficult to persuade the sufferer to do anything for it. But it is not a condition that corrects itself. If the blood is not enriched the trouble will increase. The nerves will be undermined and neuralgic pains will follow. Digestive disturbances often result from thin blood, sleep is disturbed and a general breakdown may occur.

Mr. Wilson Johnson, Ninevah, N.S., says: "A few years ago my system was in a badly run down condition. My nerves seemed always on edge, and I found myself so weak that I could hardly do any work. I suffered from headaches and from pains in the back and under the shoulders, and was often so sleepless at night that when morning came I felt as tired as when I went to bed. I was taking medicine all the time, but it was doing me no good. Then I read the testimonial of a man whose condition had been similar to mine, and who strongly recommended Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I decided to give this medicine a fair trial, and when I had taken six boxes I felt much better. I continued taking the pills until I had taken six more boxes, and I can only say I am glad I did so, as I am now enjoying the best of health, and I advise all men who feel run down to give these pills a good trial."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills can be obtained from any dealer in medicine, or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Eventide

The day is past and the toilers cease. The land grows dim 'mid the shadows gray. And hearts are glad, for the dark brings peace At the close of day.

Each weary toiler, with limber pace, As he homeward turns, with the long day done, Looks to the west, with the light on his face, Of the setting sun.

Yet some see not (with their sin-dimmed eyes) The promise of rest in the fading light, But the louds loom dark in the angry skies, At the fall of night.

And some see only a golden sky, Where the alms their welcoming arms stretch wide To the calling rooks, as they homeward fly At the eventide.

It speaks of peace that comes after strife, Of the rest He sends to the hearts He tried, Of the calm that follows the stormiest life— God's eventide.

—Lieut.-Col. John McCrae.

Why Your Ears Burn

Everybody has experienced the feeling of a burning ear, but few understand how it occurs.

Sudden frights, excitement, worry, and anxiety are the causes. The sensation is due to the liberation of thyroid and other gland substances, which have a tendency to paralyse the muscles in the walls of the skin. This temporary palsy permits their elastic walls to expand, and a stream of blood rushes into the cheeks and ears.

When you realize that the heat of the blood as it circulates through the body is about one hundred degrees Fahrenheit, it is plain that a sudden concentration in one place causes a rise in temperature. The spot affected feels for the moment like a fiery furnace.

Surnames and Their Origin

YORK
Racial Origin—English.
Source—A locality.

The origin of York as a family name is not hard to guess. It comes from the city in England of that name.

The city of York is almost as important historically as London, and it is as old, antedating the Roman invasion, and having been founded by the Celtic Britons long before the first Anglo-Saxon settlers made their appearance.

Linking the names of York and London brings up an interesting question. Why is the name of London virtually never met with as a family name, and that of York rather seldom, while family names derived from smaller cities, and even towns and villages are quite common?

At the period when men's neighbors began to link their given names with the names of the places from which they had come, to distinguish different individuals of the same given name, it would have constituted little differentiation to use such a name as London. London was such an important place, the seat of the government and so many men came from London. There might be several Johns from London in a very small community. With York it was much the same, though not to the same degree. York was still a big and important place, but it wasn't the seat of the Government. Hence we find a number of Yorks in the list of English family names, but not as many as of Lincolns.

OGILVIE
Variations—Ogilby, O'Gilby, Galvey, Galwey, Gilbey, Gilboy.
Racial Origin—Irish.
Source—A given name.

In Scotland the name of the Clan Ogilvie, which was discussed previously, is traced back to an origin in a place name.

But in Ireland there was another clan of this name. That is, the name was the same if you make the comparison with certain of the Anglicized variations. In reality, however, it is not the same name at all when you look at the Gaelic form.

This clan was known as the "O'Gall-Buidhe," and the earliest records show that it became an independent clan unit about the year 1100 A.D. It was one of those little accidents of history that all persons whose names trace back to this clan are not bearing the name of O'Shaughnessy instead, for the chieftain who founded the Clan "O'Gall-Buidhe" was the son of the first chieftain of the O'Shaughnessys.

His given name, from which the clan name is derived, had a meaning of "yellow hostage" or fair-haired follower." It is to be noted that the true meaning of these old Irish given names in which this element "gill" or "giall" appears cannot be adequately rendered by any single English word. "Hostage" merely comes the closest to it, or "servant," or "follower." The meaning, however, was far from that of "prisoner" or "slave." There was embodied in it also the thoughts of "loyalty," "honorable service," "emulation" and the like.

SAVED BABY'S LIFE

Mrs. Alfred Tranchemontagne, St. Michel des Saints, Que., writes: "Baby's Own Tablets are an excellent medicine. They saved my baby's life and I can highly recommend them to all mothers." Mrs. Tranchemontagne's experience is that of thousands of other mothers who have tested the worth of Baby's Own Tablets. The Tablets are a sure and safe medicine for little ones and never fail to regulate the bowels and stomach, thus relieving all the minor ills from which children suffer. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Oldest Game in the World

The oldest amusement in the world is dice-throwing.

In some form or another dice have existed in every period of history. They are shown on early Egyptian monuments, and some dug up at Thebes recently are exactly similar to those in use to-day. They are mentioned in laws regulating games played in ancient Greece and Rome and most other countries in Europe.

The invention of dice is attributed to Palamedes, one of the heroes who sailed against Troy, about the year 1244 B.C., but the use of cubes with numbered sides for gambling purposes is probably much earlier.

Frequent passages in the works of ancient writers and numerous representations in marble and paintings show how popular dice-playing was among them.

Pineapple Products

The pineapple growers of Hawaii, anxious to encourage new uses for their product, are now putting up as well as sliced.

Grated or crushed pineapple is beginning to find favor as an ingredient of sodas and sundaes. Pineapple pie, made with the fruit thus prepared, is declared excellent.

Got His Answer

A bumptious young American farmer went to England to learn his business, but where he went he pretended that it was far easier to teach the farmers than to learn anything from them. "I've got an idea," he said one day to a grizzled old Northumbrian agriculturist, "for a new kind of fertilizer which will be ten thousand times as effective as any that has ever been tried. Condensed fertilizer—that's what it is. Enough for an acre of ground would go in one of my waistcoat pockets." "I don't doubt it, young gentleman," said the veteran of the soil. "What is more, you'll be able to put the crop into the other waistcoat pocket."

MONEY ORDERS

A Dominion Express Money Order for five dollars costs three cents.

Not All Profit

He was a struggling Scottish farmer, and he had the good fortune to win the hand of a widow who possessed in her own right the sum of five thousand pounds. Shortly before the wedding a friend went to congratulate him. "It's a fine thing for ye, this weddin', Sandy," he said. "Aye, it's no' bad," replied the farmer. "No bad? Why, it's worth five thousand pounds to ye, isn't it?" "No," sighed Sandy, "less than that. Ye see, 'twill cost me seventeen an' saxe pence for a marriage licence!"

Real Friendship

What true friendship consists in depends on the temperament of the man who has a friend. It is related that at the funeral of Mr. Scroggs, who died extremely poor, the usually cold-blooded Squire Tightfist was much affected. "You thought a great deal of him, I suppose?" some one asked him. "Thought a great deal of him? I should think I did. There was a true friend. He never asked me to lend him a cent, though I knew well enough he was starving to death."

Not Long But Wide

The portly Irishman waddled into the shop. "What can I do for you, sir?" asked the salesman. "O! want a motor-car," said the Irishman. "A first-class ottymobile." "Is it for yourself, sir?" "Sure, ye're inquisitive, but if ye 'Listen to the man!" exclaimed Pat. "Long body? Begorra, no! She's built like a barrel, same as me! But phwat's that got to do wi' it?" "Must know, 'tis for me wifoe."

Belgian Motor Car Industry

Belgian cars are dominating the Belgian market. American-made cars being the hardest hit, Belgian cars have increased 45 per cent; French still hold their own, with an increase of about 40 per cent. The fluctuation in the market seems due to the demand for the lighter cars of French and Belgian make.

French Chemical Industries

French chemical industries show a remarkable development in those materials for which it, like other countries was dependent on Germany before the war. The same is true of British industries, especially in the coal-tar products and dyestuffs.

How it Worked

"When we were married," said Brown, "my wife and I made an agreement that I should make the rulings in all the major things and she in all the minor ones."

"And how has it worked?" Black inquired.

Brown smiled wanly. "So far," he replied, "no major matters have come up."

Must Be Proved

"Well, Pat," said Bridget, "what kind of a bird have you brought home in that cage?"

"Well, it's a raven," replied Pat.

"A raven? And what did you bring home a bird like that for?"

"Well, I read in a paper the other night that a raven has been known to live for 300 years. I don't believe it, so I am going to put it to the test."

the marquis that the teacher questioned Johnny about. "What are marquis?" she asked the little fellow. "Animals that have pouches in their stomachs" came the quick reply. "And for what purpose do they use the pouches?" continued the teacher, ignoring the slight inaccuracy of the reply. "I am sure you know that too." "Yes'm," said Johnny promptly. "The pouches are for them to crawl into and conceal themselves when pursued."

Amusing the Neighbors

Johnnie, age six, was missed by his mother one day for some time, and when he reappeared she asked: "Where have you been, my son?" "Playing postman," replied Willie. "I gave a letter to all the houses in our street. Real letters, too." "Where on earth did you get them?" questioned his mother in amazement. "They were those old ones in your wardrobe drawer, tied up with ribbon," was the innocent reply.

Puzzling the Twins

James and John are twin brothers and look so much alike that it is a puzzle for their parents and friends to tell which is James and which is John. Is it strange then that the little fellows themselves were deceived? They were just learning to talk when the following funny incident occurred: One day mother had given John a bath and dressed him in fresh, clean clothes. She was carrying him across the room in her arms, when she happened to pass the big mirror. She stepped up to it to let John see himself looking so fresh and dainty. What do you suppose John said to his own sweet reflection? He waved his little hand and said, "Hello, James!" For several months after that it was the delight of the family to take one of the twins to the mirror and hear him greet his own reflection as his brother.

Hamilton Woman Declares Tanlac Overcame Her Rheumatism and Other Troubles

"If others hadn't allowed their statements published in the papers I wouldn't have known about Tanlac and would still be suffering, so now for the benefit of others I want to tell what the medicine has done for me!" said Mrs. John Dale, 65 Catherine St. South, Hamilton, Ont.

"About three years ago I began to suffer from rheumatism, which kept getting worse and worse. I almost constant pain. At times my arms became so swollen and painful I couldn't raise my hands above my head, and my fingers were so stiff I could scarcely hold the coffee pot to pour out the coffee.

"I could hardly get up a flight of stairs on account of the stiffness in my muscles. I was so nervous the noises made by my children playing about the house made me frantic. "Seeing so many statements in the papers about Tanlac, I decided to get a bottle and see if it would do me any good. Well, my rheumatism got better with the first few doses and, now that I have finished the second bottle the last trace of it is gone. My nervousness is gone, too, and I am so happy over being free from pain I can't fully express it."

THIN, FLAT HAIR GROWS LONG, THICK AND ABUNDANT

"Danderine" costs only 35 cents a bottle. One application ends all dandruff, stops itching and falling hair, and, in a few moments, you have doubled the beauty of your hair. It will appear a mass, so soft, lustrous, and easy to do up. But what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use when you see new hair—fine and downy at first, yet but really new hair growing all over the scalp. "Danderine" is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. This delightful, stimulating tonic helps thin, lifeless, faded hair to grow long, thick, heavy and luxuriant.

LETTER FROM MRS. WAKELIN

Tells Remarkable Story of Sickness and Recovery.

Toronto, Ont.—"I suffered greatly from weakness, seemed to be tired all the time, and had no ambition to do anything or go any place. My nerves were in bad shape. I could not sleep at night, and then came a breakdown. I read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the newspapers and several of my friends advised me to use it, and it surely put new life into me. Now I am quite able to do all my own work, and I would strongly advise every suffering woman to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial."

Mrs. CHARLES WAKELIN, 272 Christie St., Toronto, Ont.

The makers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound have thousands of such letters as that above—they tell the truth, else they could not have been obtained for love or money. This medicine is no stranger—it has stood the test for more than forty years.

If there are any complications you do not understand write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass.

Suppose a guide said—

"This way there's a safe and pleasant road to your destination, with no risks or troubles on the way," and—

"That way there's a road that a good many have stalled on and turned back from, but you may get through."

Which would you take?

Postum is a thoroughly agreeable and satisfying meal-time drink, and you're sure that it's perfectly safe for health. Tea and coffee contain drug qualities which disturb the health of many.

Postum or tea and coffee? Which road?

Why guess when you can know?

Postum comes in two forms: Instant Postum (in tins) made instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages of larger bulk, for those who prefer to make the drink while the meal is being prepared) made by boiling for 20 minutes. Sold by all grocers.
