From The Countryside

Nanticoke

Our village poet's latest poem is entitled "The Voice of Jacob and The Skin of Esau."

Miss Carrie Jackson is visiting friends at Strathroy.

The masquerade dance which was held last Tuesday evening was well attended in spite of inclement weather.

On Friday evening, Nov. 11th, the Nanticoke Women's Institute held a picnic in the Town Hall. Supper was served from 6.30 to 9 p.m. It being Armistice Day the tables were decorated with red poppies and during the evening poppies were sold in aid of the French orphans. After a sumptuous repast a short programme was given with Mr. S. A. Thompson as chairman. Mr. Harris in his pleasing manner once more kept the audience in peals of laughter with his humorous readings. She solos by Miss Walker and Miss Helen Lindsay, also the reading by Miss Pearl Jackson, were much enjoyed. Our village poet, Mr. Butcher, was also present to complete the evening's fun. After singing the National Anthem those who wished remained to enjoy the light fantastic.

Sandusk

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Booth are visiting relatives in New York.

Mrs. Andy Lofthouse is able to be around again after her illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Elvin S. Pond visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Bert Ineson.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Wright visited at Charles Peacock's on Sunday.

Rockford

The Mission Band had their service last Sunday after 8.30. The reports of the Provincial Convention held at Brantford recently will be given next Sunday at the close of Sunday school. Everybody try to be present to hear them.

Rev. Shaw delivered a fine sermon Sunday evening on the text, "Seek first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness and other things will be added unto us."

The Sunday School has commenced practicing for the Xmas tree entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. Elgin Mason, who have spent the past summer in British Columbia, have returned and are visiting at Mr. Frank Smith's.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Saunders and children spent Sunday at Mr. Ralph Golding's.

Miss Ellen Thompson, who has been away attending her duties in Nursing, is home visiting her mother, brothers and sister.

We were sorry to hear of the illness of our public school teacher, Miss Hazel Moyer, of Tillsonburg, she having gone home to spend Thanksgiving was taken seriously ill and was unable to attend to her duties last week and this, but hope she will soon recover.

Howard Bros. have their grand new barn completed and it is one of the best in the township, a credit to any community.

We understand Mr. Hambly has purchased Mr. Geo. Cook's house in our village.

Hugh Wilson of Brantford spent Thanksgiving at his home here.

We were sorry to hear of the death of Mr. Arthur Smith, who has been gradually failing for the past few months, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Schram, he having to give up his work here in the village where he has lived for a great many years. Mr. Smith was a splendid carriage builder and for some years has also carried on a blacksmith shop in connection with his other work. He was honest and obliging and the farmers have and will miss him from his usual place. The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon, service in the Baptist Church, Waterford, and his remains laid to rest beside those of his wife in the Waterford cemetery. The relatives have the sympathy of this community in their sad bereavement.

Mr. Fred Barnes died at the home of his brother John Barnes on Nov. 7th. The funeral was held on Wednesday of last week. The remains were laid to rest in the R. C. cemetery, Simcoe.

Renton

(Too late for last week.)

Election is about all the talk these days.

Hallowe'en passed off very quietly in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Gee of Woodstock were recent guests with Mr. and Mrs. Walt Warner.

Mr. S. Gilbert of Anbrose, Walsingham, spent a week visiting his nephew, D. Secord, at East Lynn Farm.

Several from around here attended the masquerade party held last Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mitchell. All report a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Secord and Miss Eva attended the missionary shower held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Butler in Simcoe on Monday evening last in honor of Mr. Charles Clarke.

Mr. S. Gilbert, Mr. D. Secord, Miss

Eva Secord and Miss Eleanor Misner motored to Hamilton and Brantford recently and visited with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Potts gave a Thanksgiving dinner to a few of their relatives, among them were Mr. and Mrs. Will Potts of Toronto and Mr. Adams of B. C. Snow is falling quite fast at time of writing, making things appear like winter.

Political Advertising

Wingham Advance—An old friend of ours took us to task for inserting advertising for the Progressives. Just as a grocer sells groceries to Grit, Tory, black or yellow people, so does the Advance intend to sell space in its columns to any person who is intelligent enough to buy it. It does not matter what position we may take editorially, each of the three political parties are treated precisely alike as far as the Advance's advertising is concerned. Space sold is our method of making a living, and just why we should refuse to sell it to Tory, Liberal or to the Progressive is more than we can see.
