Renton

Indian Summer has put in its appearance after a few days of winter weather. Who wouldn't enjoy it?

The U. F. O. held a bun-fest last Thursday evening at Ade's School, and quite a large attendance. There was speaking, readings, recitations and music. Mr. Joseph Cridland, M.P.P., occupied the chair. Everybody is invited to the next regular meeting.

Miss Eva Secord was the guest of Miss Lola Burch on Sunday last at Renton.

Mr. and Mrs. Walt Warner and children spent Sunday last at Doan's Hollow with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. Hazley of Simcoe spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Stringer.

Somewhere around 100 people gathered at "East Lynn Farm," the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. Secord, one evening last week, and gave them an old time party in honor of their daughter Eva's birthday. Friends from Simcoe, Boston, Renton, near Jarvis, and Pt. Dover—and there some. They bid adieu in the wee sma' hours—yes, long hours—of the morning.

The farmers are busy plowing these days. Some of us took time to take a few bushels of apples to the cider mill, "worms and all," so we could have "a wee drap" in case the other party gets elected on Dec. 6th.

Taking Her Order.

His parents were what is popularly known as "high-brow," but they also were good sports, despite their air of culture and breeding. So when he suggested taking them to a restaurant in the market district of Boston, they agreed. The mother's exquisite clothes stamped her as a society woman, but democracy reigns supreme at Durkin and Park's. They sat down at the table. The waiter handed the mother a menu and then leaned confidentially forward over the back of the chair and said: "Well, sister, what's the good news?"—Indianapolis News.

Now comes a yarn from Ottawa of strawberries having just been picked in a garden there.
